IN MEMORIAM

HOBSON — In loving memory of our beloved son and brother Roy William Hobson who passed away September 24, 1964. The wound is deep and will not heal. Only God knows how we feel. We laugh, we cry, we play on a part. But beneath it all lies two broken hearts. We hide our tears when we are lonely, but the ache in our hearts remains the same. Always remembered and sadly missed by Mom and Father. 5-1p

Keeping in touch

Few characteristics of life are as important in obtaining a satisfactory level of self-esteem as holding a purposeful and creative job. These persons who are meaningfully employed generally create a significantly smaller burden on the public treasury and reflect a more positive and constructive attitude towards society. Nonetheless, Canada's unemployment rate is in a state of unfortunate increase. This summer there has been a considerable jump in the number of unemployed and if the statistics are bad now, think of how much worse they will be by mid-winter.

Mass unemployment is the fact that the majority of unemployed are under the age of 31. I say "unfortunate" because people without jobs usually end up receiving some form of public financial support. The danger of such practices is that it gets young people started on the wrong foot in life and motivates them to dependence rather than independence. It's a problem serious enough to make one wonder whether help is helpful!

Of the three million high school and university students seeking employment in the job market this summer, Manpower Minister Robert Andrus predicts that only 11,000 will be successful in obtaining work.

While very few Canadians feel comfortable with "make work" programs and government incentives to employ students, surely that option is to be favored over a program of welfare to assist those in poverty caused by lack of employment opportunities. Most successful of all, however, would have been an expansionary budget in the spring of 1976 to give incentives to the private sector so as to accelerate the rate of hiring.

At the present time the United States economy is expanding much more rapidly than our own. Economists have generally credited the more successful U.S. recovery to the better business prospect that currently prevails in that country. The recent announcement in our balance of trade deficits with other nations should be fair warning of the fact that our economy is still in serious difficulties. Economists for the Royal Bank of Canada anticipate a five billion dollar deficit for this year and a six billion dollar deficit by the end of 1977. The essential answer to the two problems of unemployment and balance of trade deficits must be a revitalization of the economy. Greater productivity enlightens our position in the international market place and helps our youth to keep in touch with job opportunities.

Nominations due for achievement awards

"If they have it coming to them, be sure they get it!" Not at all a threat, that statement is the slogan of the 1976 Alberta Achievement Awards Program. The deadline for nominations is September third.

The annual Alberta Achievement Awards Program is designed to honour individuals and groups who have brought distinction to themselves, their communities and the province through extraordinary achievement or excellence. Presentations are made to award winners by the Premier at an annual banquet, on behalf of the people and the government of the province.

Nominations are encouraged from individuals anywhere, proposing those Albertans who qualify under the following categories:

Competition Awards:

In sports or non-sports fields. For those who have competed as representatives of Alberta (during the period of September 1, 1975 to August 31, 1976) and either placed first in a Canadian national championship sanctioned by the national governing body, or placed first, second or third in a recognized international competition.

Service Awards:

For those individuals or groups whose outstanding service, normally extending over a period of ten years or more, has had provincial impact. Service may have been performed in a professional, occupational or voluntary capacity.

Excellence Awards:

For those who have gained national or international recognition in a professional, occupational or voluntary capacity during the past year.

Under the 1976 Awards program, a total of 181 awards were presented November 5, 1975 in Calgary. The awards comprised 124 Competition awards, of which 13 were to teams and 111 to individuals; and last year 39 Service awards were presented, before an enthusiastic audience of approximately 800 recipients and guests. Premier Peter Lougheed was assisted by Mrs. Lougheed and Cabinet Ministers Schmid, Yurko, Russell, Adams and McEwen in making presentations to individual recipients.

The Ninth Annual Achievement Awards Dinner is scheduled to be held Saturday, November 6th, 1976 in Edmonton. But before that time, nomination of those Albertans whose efforts should be recognized need to be received by the Achievement Awards office, in order to be assessed.

Nomination forms and an explanatory brochure are available from the coordinator, located in Alberta Culture where the program is administered.

Write for information and nomination forms to Alberta Culture, Achievement Awards Program, 11th floor, CN Tower, Edmonton, Alberta.

Czar wins championship

The Czar Baseball team was successful in winning the Western Canadian Senior "B" Championship playoffs. The playoffs took place at Glenboro, Man. on September 4 and 5.

Czar won in the final game, defeating Manitoba's Teulon Cardinals 10-8. Other teams taking part were Glenboro and the Sask. Alb-Stars.

Tom Watkins, John and Graham Anderson of Sedgewick played for the Czar team. They were accompanied by the wives Brenda Watkins and Lynda Anderson to Manitoba.

CORRECTION:

In the obituary of Bertha Hampshire, in last week's paper, her brother Jack Hampshire was inadvertently mislaid from the mourners.

Mrs. George Klug of Hardisty has an extra hand these days — one grown in her garden. The hand, with "five fingers and a thumb", is a cob of corn. The thumb broke off when the cob was being husked, but was plucked back on for a picture.

Mrs. Frank Mayo brought the cob into the newspaper for picture-taking.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Thank you Kilham, for a memorial weekend. We had him. We had a family reunion we couldn't have had any other way (you folks). I loved meeting friends I hadn't heard of in years. Only thing that surprised me was how old the Kilham clan looked!

This was an exciting holiday for us. We started planning it when I heard of the Kilham Homecoming last year. The Mann clan were descended on Kilham, Tom and I in Barnaby B.C. not out by camper for St. Albert the end of July and I were picked up by our son Peter and his wife, Judy with their two children. Then we encountered Bill and Rita, Jim and Linda to leave Edmonton's fascinating corner for Kilham's premises of entertaining. Just as we were packing to leave St. Albert our daughter, Rene from Redburne, Nova Scotia, phoned from Calgary asking us to pick her up at Edmonton Airport then that was our first nice surprise of the holiday as we hadn't known she was coming. Tom and I took the short cut through the highway 21 and that proved a second surprise. For twenty-five miles it was great then we saw the sign, "next 14 miles under construction" and miles of fresh oil stretching to the horizon.

Some of us had a lovely stay with my school chum, Isabel (Robson) Hoyland and her son, Tom Mason who camped at Crestonall Barnaby, B.C.

COME ALIVE...

"The open doors of knowledge" is a phrase often heard. The implication being that on arrival in Kilham were so many new community-spirited folks had been created since our last visit only a few years before. Congratulations on your improvements, Kilham.

I had an autograph album containing many beautiful drawings and "fancy verses" inscribed by classmates of 1909 in the old stone schoolhouse and I decided to try to get as many of the same people to sign again. Well, I found a lot of them but somehow or other many signatures were forgotten as we tried to catch up on family histories.

I was much interested in seeing pictures of the first school, Willow Hill. I attended with my brother John. What memories it all brought back. Mrs. Ed Young crocheting a lovely quilt for my first doll (given me by Mrs. Margaret Sedgewick). The first Christmas Tree concert I had ever attended and how I told Mrs. Ann, Mrs. Hailall, that Santa had a wooden face which made Uncle Bert Rowland laugh as he had been "Santa". From Willow Hill also came the wonderful ladies of the C.P.W.A. who served those many lunches for years at the annual meetings of the Co-op.

Yes, everything was great. Thank you all so very much for putting the old home town on the map.

Some of us saw the sign, "next 14 miles under construction" and miles of fresh oil stretching to the horizon.

'Open doors'

"The open doors of knowledge" is a phrase often heard. The implication being that on arrival in Kilham were so many new community-spirited folks had been created since our last visit only a few years before. Congratulations on your improvements, Kilham.

I had an autograph album containing many beautiful drawings and "fancy verses" inscribed by classmates of 1909 in the old stone schoolhouse and I decided to try to get as many of the same people to sign again. Well, I found a lot of them but somehow or other many signatures were forgotten as we tried to catch up on family histories.

I was much interested in seeing pictures of the first school, Willow Hill. I attended with my brother John. What memories it all brought back. Mrs. Ed Young crocheting a lovely quilt for my first doll (given me by Mrs. Margaret Sedgewick). The first Christmas Tree concert I had ever attended and how I told Mrs. Ann, Mrs. Hailall, that Santa had a wooden face which made Uncle Bert Rowland laugh as he had been "Santa". From Willow Hill also came the wonderful ladies of the C.P.W.A. who served those many lunches for years at the annual meetings of the Co-op.

Yes, everything was great. Thank you all so very much for putting the old home town on the map.

that we think of education in secular terms, yet no education is complete without an awareness of our creation and our ultimate destiny, which is religious knowledge, by religious education. Our society reflects the spiritual void that is there. There is no emphasis to modern living that can only be filled through study, spiritual commitment and an understanding of our Creator.

James D. Smart, in his book "The Teaching Ministry of the Church" feels that religious education has fallen by the wayside to the point where christian people, however noble their character might be, are unable to possess the little light we on behalf of their faith. It is indomitable in truth it is so because we have neglected faith and religious studies for the processes of human reasoning.

I like the way the King James version of the Bible translates some of Paul's words to Timothy (Tim. 2:15) "Study to show yourself approved to God, a workman that need not be ashamed."

IMMIGRATION AND POPULATION

Very few people appreciate being labeled "prejudiced", and many will go to great lengths to avoid wearing such a title. Therefore, we have people among us who would, in the name of justice and equity, extend an open door policy on immigration. They argue that Canada is a big land with very few people and we have a moral obligation to take into our citizenship millions of persons from the over crowded southern hemisphere.

While I can understand the motives that encourage others to take such a position I totally disagree with its long term effectiveness. In the first place Canada would have to open her doors to 70 million people per year just to keep the population growth in other countries stable. That number, being more than three times our present population indicates the absurdity of such a scheme. Likewise, increasing our immigration by 100 thousand will in truth have little impact on the world's population growth crisis.

My personal bias is that Canada's immigration rate should be greatly curtailed perhaps cut in half from the present 250,000 person inflow. If Canada is to truly take her moral responsibilities seriously, then we must remain strong in human resources and not economy. To over-crowd our own country would weaken our opportunities.

It is my view that a restricted immigration policy, combined with a focus on scientific research and exportation of knowledge and goods is not a selfish view, but rather the most effective way to keep in touch with a world in flux.

— Arnold Malone, M.P.

GREEN PROVING PROGRAM

Are you one of the centimillion who is wondering how the agricultural advancements of the Green Revolution of the 1960's? This revolution started with the agricultural advancements of Dr. Bourgeois who developed a variety of rice that more than doubled their productivity. While the need for more human food in the world is an obvious fact, the truth is that most of the advancements in the developing countries have come about as a result of western technology.

In my opinion, the moral obligation in Canada is first to develop as extensively as possible the export of our agricultural produce and, secondly, to supply technology relevant to self-help programs in food, energy, energy development and housing. We cannot make a significant contribution from a position of weakness. As advanced culture, one that has developed beyond the basic needs of food, clothing and shelter is required to develop the surplus that are required in material goods and education opportunities.

The federal government will also pay to the owner of a ball testing is carried in the period of 25 days of half the total cost of the test, whichever is less, to help him meet these expenses. This phase of the federal program will be in effect April 1, 1977.

Alberta Agriculture's supervisory of beef cattle performance testing. Judged Bonagay, says the purpose of the Young Star Proving Program is to improve the calibre of bulls entering central test stations, thereby making the station more effective in the selection process and more attractive to commercial and purebred breeders as well as to the artificial insemination industry as a source of seed stock. "It will also facilitate the identification and selection of high performing bulls which might otherwise go unnoticed in the herd he says.

The Young Star Proving Program was developed under the guidelines of the National Advisory Board on Record of Performance and selection of high performing bulls which might otherwise go unnoticed in the herd he says.

His Honor L.J. Governor Ralph Schreiber shook hands with each honored guest and congratulated them as he presented them with a plaque of commemoration. What was it this celebration for?

It was Killam's 70th Birthday Party and all her former residents were invited to help celebrate it. And they did.

QUESTION: Can we use IBR vaccine on calves running with their mothers; and, when will a pinky vaccine become commercially available? Paul S. Hider - Red Willow County, Stettler.

ANSWER: Your Stettler veterinarian can advise you which brand of IBR vaccine to use on calves running with cows. An intranasal vaccine has been cleared on pregnant cows, so it should be safe to use on calves running with

You should not expect IBR vaccination to prevent all pinky problems. Since IBR is the cause of only one form of con-junctivitis (eye involvement) in cattle. There is no vaccine as yet for pink-eye even though much research has been done. S. Mikoloff.

Sewage causes concern

"Improperly installed or operated sewage disposal systems can cause disease spread," Dr. D. Mackay, M.O.H., Alberta, East Central Health unit said recently.

"We are particularly concerned where sewage disposal liquid from septic tanks is pumped onto the ground in hamlets, rural and recreational subdivisions."

The Medical Officer advised that investigations of recent illnesses reveal improper sewage disposal could have contributed to the spread of illnesses in some of these cases. If sewage liquid is on the ground, where flies may breed, water supplies be contaminated or where children or family pets play nearby, the chances of disease spread are greater.

Shigellosis or bacillary dysentery is a rare disease which has recently been occurring in the health unit which could be spread in this manner. This organism causes diarrhea, cramps, fever and vomiting in infected persons. Sometimes individuals can become carriers in that they have the disease but exhibit no symptoms. These people can infect other persons through poor hygiene practices or improper sewage disposal. Anyone with the symptoms is advised to contact their family doctor.

Please contact the Public Health Inspectors at Camrose 875-3101 or at Stettler 342-5226 if you have any questions regarding sewage disposal ideas.

MEMORIAL DONATIONS

The Community Press and The Enterprise will no longer publish lists of Memorial Donations with obituaries. The need for extra column space, plus the ease with which a name is misspelled or inadvertently misused, has made this decision necessary.

Agri - days winners of garden & handicrafts

The garden vegetables, needlework and handicraft were on display in the Club Room both days. The entries in the vegetables were very poor year after about 10 entries. The Needlework and Handicraft was good with it being our first year at such a venture, there are a few changes needed. The entries were large in some classes but lacked in others. There were over 120 entries judged capably by Mrs. V. Probst and Mrs. H. Shaberg of Longview.

Hardisty lady passes

Lillian Christine Drager passed away suddenly on April 26th, in the University Hospital, Edmonton, at the age of 52 years.

Lillian was born June 23, 1923 in Hardisty and spent her early years in the Hardisty district, until her marriage to Paul Drager in 1943.

She had lived both in Hardisty and later on the farm until her passing.

She leaves in mourning her late loving husband Paul, one daughter Lynette (Mrs. Greg Sambock) and son-in-law Greg of Edmonton, two sons, Dean with his wife Debbie and Ryan, at home.

Two brothers Harvey Dink of Hargenden and Arne Huss of Hardisty, one niece Lina of Hargenden, also express her loss.

Funeral services will be held on Monday, May 3, 1976 in St. Paul's United Church officiating with Rev. Jackson Hafferty.

Pallbearers were Ralph Gihl, Richard Eagle, Bill O'Brien, Ken Williams, Craig Mills and Louis Delange.

Interment was in Hardisty cemetery.

We wish to express our deep gratitude and appreciation to our friends, relatives and neighbors for the many acts of kindness shown to us during our recent bereavement in the loss of our dear wife and mother, Lillian.

Also for the beautiful floral tributes, cards, flowers and food sent to the family for the memorial donations.

Special thanks to Dr. Cahill and staff of the Hardisty Hospital, the ambulance drivers, pallbearers, Rev. Jackson, the organist and to the ladies who served lunch after the funeral and to Gail Kobitsch who assisted in the ambulance to Edmonton.

Paul Drager, Dean and Debbie, Lynette and Greg, and Evan.

Treat for Wild Oats

With Avadex' BW

from Co-op

Why wait till next spring to do a job you can do just as effectively this fall? Avadex' BW granules — a proven oat herbicide — can be put into your soil anytime between October 1 until freeze-up. These herbicides remain locked in the soil and wait for the wheat and oat seedlings to come up next spring. And Avadex' BW granules are convenient to use. You can even apply them on windy or cloudy days.

Take one of next year's wild oat seeds. Cover 100-200 square feet with your supply of Avadex' BW granules.

With a new pair of Heritage Fund steps, Premier Peter Lougheed has revived critics' worst fears of a day cabinet could be using its $1.5 billion in secret - but then disarmed scepticism by a display of responsible management.

As few as eight ministers, voting in complete and personal confidence, can commit the fund's investment sections under rule a governing its managing committee.

But a first portfolio of cautious holdings reserves all assets for Alberta home buyers, energy projects, municipal financing, and the province's telephone company.

The bill creating the fund last spring directed the 21 member cabinet to form its managing investment committee and design their own procedures.

A slimsy list of six rules sets the quorum for committee meetings at a dozen ministers. Decisions require a two-thirds majority, or approval from only eight members if only a minimum quorum can be mustered.

Mr. Lougheed said customary practices of cabinet should be followed (Continued on Page 8)

PARK COMPLETED - The black and white of newspaper does not do justice to the beautifully green park on Sedgewick's Main Street. As part of the Devotion Foundation's "Main Street Alberta", the park was undertaken this summer and has become an area of which Sedgewick is very proud. A fountain at the top of the creek bed allows sufficient water for a pond at the lower portion. Many days you will see young children with their shoes off, running thru the water.

The design of the area and the work was under the direction of Danny Danneman. Judging by the many favourable comments it is one of Danny's best works and he should be commended for it. This past summer Danny has designed attractive parks for Killam and Sedgewick.

Twenty-three children at Sedgewick kindergarten

Twenty-three Kindergarten children, all very excited and bursting with energy, entered through the door of the Lutheran Church in Sedgewick on Tuesday, September 7th, to begin a year of Kindergarten. Their teacher, Mrs. Donna Polge was there to greet them with their parents and to make each and every one of them feel welcome.

Previous to this on Tuesday, August 31st, a meeting was held at the Lutheran Church for parents and teacher, to register their child and to outline the program of Kindergarten, acquainting parents with the vehicle in which she was to be held Tuesday, October 14th at 8:00 p.m.

Accident claims life of Killam girl

An eighteen year old Killam girl was killed in a single vehicle accident on Highway 12 on Monday, September 6th. Sheila Ann Slavik died when the vehicle in which she was a passenger went out of control and overturned in a ditch along Highway 12, 1.1 miles east of Oxbow about 10:00 in the evening.

Miss Slavik was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Slavik of Killam.

The driver of the vehicle, Leanne Francis Allan of Edmonton, was treated for minor injuries at St. Mary's Hospital and released.

Two other passengers were injured. Clifford Thompson of Edmonton sustained a fractured shoulder while Leanne Arbuckle of Sedgewick sustained lacerations. Both resulting in pure heartache for their parents who live in St. Mary's Hospital.

Puppet show recommended for schools

by Sandra Pope

A Puppet Show produced by the Legal Resource Centre of the Faculty of Extension, University of Alberta, captured the attention of not only the children, but all ages attending the Lougheed Fair on August 14th. It was extremely well presented, professional, very educational and free of charge.

The Puppet Show entitled "Just Like You" portrayed two points of law. The actors were a wise brown bear, an innocent rabbit, a naughty porcupine, an impatient squirrel, a lawyer raven and Judge Owl. The marionettes were told by an elderly male storyteller, that looked so real it was difficult at times to realize he was a puppet. The show was 45 minutes in length, performed backstage by four members of the Legal Resource Centre.

After the show the puppeteers brought the puppets out to the children and showed them how they moved and what they and the scenery and stage were made of. Pamphlets on "The Criminal Justice

COME ALIVE...

A boy one time was asked to give a definition of brain. He answered: "my brain is that part of my body that makes up my mind." That is a pretty good definition, isn't it?

Right now, at the beginning of the school year might be a good time to think about our brains. There are three A's about our brain that we can easily remember.

First, you "absorb" with it. Something like a sponge absorbs water, I suppose. Our ears and eyes, all sensory perception and experience are taken in by the brain, whether good or bad. The process also is one of taking in understanding of what is desirable or undesirable according to the information given and the source of that information.

Secondly, the brain "assimilates." The letter A again. The brain assimilates the thoughts and ideas and ideas that it absorbs and translates them - changes them into character and personality. It is through the processes of absorption and assimilation in the child that the brain for values, goals and meanings are directed. This leads us to the third A, "acts".

The three A's of learning

The brain uses what it has absorbed and assimilated and acts upon that. From these perceptions, experiences and learned facts the brain acts to give direction to living, associations, relationships and feelings about the world and people and relationships to them.

The brain "acts" to give feelings about God and his will particularly. The brain gives action in the person. The brain is active in whatever we do, think or believe.

Now that all sounds so simple and mechanical that it leaves one cold. Some, who think that we have forgotten about reason, spirit and will. No I have not forgotten about these things. They are there and are important to what we do as persons and what we do and the direction we take.

But the point I want to emphasize is that learning is important for all of us, young and old alike; and that there is a deep abiding need to learn.

To those who phone when the news will you please phone in on Friday night or Saturday morning. This way we will be more of the future, urea (46-0) will be the cheapest and most available dry nitrogen fertilizer.

Many prairie grain producers have become familiar with anhydrous ammonia as a nitrogen fertilizer. It is not only the highest analysis nitrogen fertilizer on the market (it contains 25% nitrogen), but it is also the source of nitrogen for nearly all other commercial fertilizers. Ammonia is made by reacting natural gas with nitrogen from the atmosphere. Many fertilizer plants produce ammonia for anhydrous ammonia fertilizer (32-0-0), but most of the ammonia is needed to manufacture other nitrogen fertilizers.

Urea (46-0) contains 45% nitrogen. A ton of urea contains more nitrogen than any other dry fertilizer. Fertilizer plants produce one ton of urea by combining 0.5 tons of ammonia with 0.5 tons of carbon dioxide.

New fertilizer plants now under construction in Alberta will concentrate on producing anhydrous ammonia and urea. While anhydrous ammonia is the cheapest nitrogen fertilizer to produce, it is the most expensive to handle, distribute and retail. The next least costly nitrogen fertilizer is urea. Huge production facilities will allow urea to be the lowest priced dry nitrogen fertilizer by 1977. Western Canada's urea production capacity will have increased from 215,000 tons per year in 1.2 million tons per year.

School committee set bus pick-up policy

These excerpts are from the County of Flagstaff's School Committee meetings of May 26 and June 16th which were held in the County Office at Redgwick.

The Committee decided not to change the length of the school day. The Committee also decided on the policy to be used by the bus drivers in the picking up of students.

The decision on gate service was left and various forms were allowed to be granted gate pickup. A committee will be set up to review which of the forms in the County are to be allowed gate pick-up for their children.

The Committee decided that no pets would be allowed in the multi dwelling complexes or the county teacherages.

A number of the County-owned teacherages were put on tenders sold.

The teacher situation was reviewed and negotiations are to be accepted and appointed.

The Committee also set out the 1976-77 School Year.

The Committee authorized the sale by tender of the sale at the Galahad School.

The Killam School was to be notified that no vice-principal would be needed in the coming school year.

The Committee authorized the purchase of the P. F. Fankhoush bus and also the W. Zietel bus, the T. Taylor bus.

One bus route is needed of a bus driver and one is to be advertised for. Also appointments were made re spare bus drivers.

James Real Estate was asked to provide insurance to be made available to the students for the County of Flagstaff for the coming year.

Reports of break-ins to the County of schools within the County were reported to the Committee.

The meeting was adjourned to meet again in September.

Technology and rising costs are changing fertilizer manufacturing. While commercial fertilizers have been used by Canadian farmers for almost 80 years, two new nitrogen fertilizers - anhydrous ammonia and urea - gained acceptance in the 1970's. I'm PROTECTING
My GRAIN
from THEFT with

GRAINFETTI is a small lot of paper, each containing a "key" - it is a pre-cut to identify stored grain and is a modern means of providing a preventive measure to grain theft.

GRAINFETTI is an idea developed by police, in cooperation with the Saskatchewan Farmers' Union, to deter theft of stored grain.

The tiny, numbered pieces of paper should be mixed with the grain and, in particular, scattered over the top of the binful in the granary.

Care should be taken to assure that numerous slips of GRAINFETTI would be included in any quantity of grain stolen - whether siphoned from the bottom of the bin, shovelled from the top or removed by puncturing a hole at truck-height in the side of the granary.

Stolen grain, by itself, cannot be identified in court, while in transport or in someone else's grain storage bin. But - "nuchetter" GRAINFETTI identified grain is a definite proof of ownership.

GRAINFETTI is sold only in five-pound (5-lb.) quantities and each order has its own individual registration number. Once sold, this number belongs to the purchaser and remains his property. This number will not be used again unless the original purchaser provides.

Should your personalized GRAINFETTI be stolen, the number would be cancelled and it would be of no use to anyone.

Grain containing GRAINFETTI is as acceptable at elevation as the program has been approved by Canadian grain authorities.

LOW COST PROTECTION

Use of GRAINFETTI, either in your presently stored grain or put in at the time of harvesting, is a major deterrent to grain theft. Grain rustlers do not want "branded" grain in their possession. Your bins of grain are relatively safe from theft.

GRAINFETTI is a registered trade mark of THE INDEPENDENT PRINTERS, BIGGAR, SASK. It is only available for immediate personal purchase or individual orders by mail from The Biggar Independent and its authorized agents.

Mail orders must be made out by the owner of the grain to be protected.

Cost of five-pound lots is $31. This price includes federal manufacturer's sales tax and 9 per cent Saskatchewan sales tax. Price valid effective Nov. 1, 1975.

GRAINFETTI orders are mailed postage paid. Your money-order or cheque is required at time of order. Orders for COD shipment acceptable.

Details regarding registration are included with each order.

ALLERGY INFORMATION ASSOCIATION
The Allergy Information Association (A.I.A.) was formed in 1961 by a group of women with allergy problems in their families. They do not attempt to diagnose or give medical advice; their main interest is to accumulate and exchange information on medically prescribed diets.

Members of the A.I.A. receive an information kit which is a compilation of all back information. It includes the following:

- A series of lectures by doctors and dietitians on diet management.
- A selection of free booklets and diet sheets.
- A book review or reviews on the subject of allergy and diet.
- A botanical list of food families.
- A list of the recipe books for special diets.
- Other miscellaneous information.

ation of interest to those with allergy problems.

The A.I.A. also publishes a Newsletter four times a year. The Newsletter keeps members informed of developments on the diagnosis and treatment of allergies; changes and services of special food products and other products of interest to the allergic; and the progress of lobbies for improved ingredient labelling of all food products.

The A.I.A. has also compiled a booklet type of recipe book called "Dietes Unlimited for Limited Diets". It can be made up in any one or a combination of the following categories - egg free, wheat-free, gluten-free, and milk-free recipes. All recipes in the book have been contributed and tested by members and additional recipes come with each newsletter. This recipe book is available to members for $2.00 and to non-members for $3.00.

If you would like some help in the management of food allergies why not join the Allergy Information Association? It's a volunteer organization made up of doctors, dietitians, health units, and private individuals. Send a letter outlining your specific allergy problem - the foods to be avoided, other allergies, and the age group of the allergic members of your family. Killam area farmer passes at age 56

Albert M. Child passed away at Killam, September 4, 1976 at the age of 56 years. He was born at home on the family farm north of Killam in 1919 and with the exception of a short period of service in the army during World War II, lived and farmed there all his life. In 1946 he was married to Sheila Baker, and to this union 3 children were born.

During his lifetime one of Albert's many enjoyments was the operation of his farm and giving help to his many friends and neighbors when able to do so. He was deeply involved in the foundation and setting up of the Iron Creek Gas Co-op. An ardent nature lover, Albert was involved in many and varied activities, and was sadly missed by the community.

He leaves to mourn his passing, his loving wife Sheila, a son Richard of Killam, two daughters, Sandra Reynolds of Brooks and Barbara Wambler of St. Albert. There are five grandchildren. Funeral and committal services were held Tuesday, September 7, 1976 at Knox United Church, Killam, with the Rev. A. Richards officiating. Pallbearers were: Dave Pritchard, Don MacEachern, Craig Lawson, Bob Palmer, Dave Doyle, Pat Wambler, Ghiesl. Fee and Sons Funeral Homes were in charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS
We would like to thank our relatives, friends and neighbors for their kind acts and sympathy. Floral tributes and memorials.

MAIN STREET PROJECT

Several towns in the County of Flagstaff have taken advantage of the Devonian Foundation's Mainstreet Project.

Shown in the above picture is the park that was under the Village of Galahad. Over twenty trees were moved and planted on a leased portion of the C.N.R. property on the south end of main street.

Plans called for the park to be covered with grass this fall and next year there will be two arch bridges built, and sidewalks will wind their way through the park.

A committee of ten people were in charge of designing and organizing the volunteers. The fee and sons of the work done on the park. This labor was supplied by citizens and Clubs of Galahad and the surrounding district.

The giant strides

by Sharon M. Chevrax

Frequent mention of Homecoming '76 and the "old days" has prompted my own's curiosity and he's begun asking questions.

"What did you do when you went to school, Mom?"

"Learned to read and write and do arith..."

"No! I mean important stuff. Like what did you do at recess?"

"Well, when I was your age we spent most of our recesses playing on the giant strides."

He was totally bewildered and I suddenly realized something. My son doesn't even know what giant strides are. Nor is it likely that he will ever experience the fearful excitement of "flying" over the heads of his friends - round and round the pole. Modern school authorities have deemed the giant strides too dangerous and removed them from school playgrounds. I haven't seen one for several years but when I was growing up, I never thought of the danger. Only the thrill.

The better would sound for recess and the whole schoolyard would erupt with student.

"Come on! Race you to the giant strides," someone would call.

"I got to fly first. It's my turn," someone else would yell as we all tore toward the tall metal pole with its clanking chains and bars.

The dangling chains were pulled taut as we prepared for our first ride. Whoever was given the privilege of "flying" would wind her chain around the pole, over the top of the others. Then the "flyer" would get a push from a "big kid" chomper as starker, while the rest of us would run around and around - our arms above our heads, our hands clasped on the smooth metal. Whenever our momentum was great enough, we'd lift our feet and ride. Meanwhile the lucky "flyer" would soar above us - sometimes as high as the pole itself.

For me, "flying" was the ultimate thrill. I'd get off after a ride - my armpits chafed and sore, my hands burning with blisters - and beg for another turn. There was joy and freedom in those wild moments aloft and I'm sorry my son has to miss it.

I'm not so sorry he has to miss another of my memories of the giant strides. I was in Grade 3 when I decided to experiment one cold winter day with kicking the bar. My tongue froze to it. Just as I was in asquels at the burning sensation, the bell rang ending recess. My classmates looked at me in wild dismay: then, afraid of being late to class, abandoned me. I was left in an empty playground, hard and scared of what my teacher would say if she found out. In desperation, I squirmed and finally yanked myself free - leaving a part of my tongue on the bar as I scrambled toward the school.

"What are giant strides?" my son asked.

"A chunk of my childhood."

Killam students elect

Well, here it is the beginning of school again! And to start off with we'll say goodbye and hello to some teachers.

Mr. Jack Sparrow, Vice-Principal last school year left Killam Public this year and now teaches at Sedgewick.

Mrs. K. Nawro is not with us this year, either. She taught Math.

New we say hello to Mr. Chate from Nova Scotia. Mr. Chate teaches down at Longview, and here at Killam Public School in the afternoons.

Another newcomer is Miss Latwick. She is also from Nova Scotia. She teaches Physical Education from grades 2 - 6 and teaches grade nine math.

September 9 and 10 were the days which the Junior High chose their Executive Council. The first day candidates made liability and confidentiality are carried over to its meetings as fund directors. Cabinet stand or fall together. Disasters result to oppose policy from outside.

The premier said roll-calls on Heritage Fund votes will not be part of any public record and will not be otherwise revealed. He chairs the committee while Provincial-Treas. Merv Leitch is vice-chairman.

Mr. Leitch said commitments of the province's savings — there is no limit to the size of its Alberta Investment Division — by a small hand of ministers are unlikely, but if special behavior which the fund sets precedent, free wheeling and surprise uses of the assets will be rare. The students of Pacific Western Airlines acquisition remains the only split, secret camp with the money.

PWA has not been included in fund assets, pending settlement of legal and political wrangles over the airline with B.C. and Ottawa, plus a decision on the form of ownership for the government's $25 million share holdings.

The biggest single piece of the fund — 20 per cent — is held as advances to the Alberta Housing Corporation and the Alberta Home Mortgage Corporation. They receive $20 million in debentures used as loans and equity for Spryde Canada Ltd.

The balance, 61 per cent, is in marketable securities of Alberta Government Telephones and the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation along with short-term money market cash assets.

Mr. Lougheed said the cabinet's first priority will be preparing capital projects section commitments, which are expected to include half ownership of the Alberta Energy Company plus initial portions of an eventual $400 million in loans and equity for Spryde Canada Ltd.

The balance, 61 per cent, is in marketable securities of Alberta Government Telephones and the Alberta Municipal Financing Corporation along with short-term money market cash assets.

Well goodbye until next time!

"How's your wife?"
"Awfully sick."
"Dangerous?"
"No, she's too weak to be dangerous."

Faucher - Danielson wed

On July 31, 1976, at 3:00 p.m., friends and relatives gathered at Britannia Lutheran Church in Sedgewick, to witness the very pretty wedding where

For her daughter's wedding, the mother of the bride chose a gown of pink crepe with a sheer cape tied with a long sash. Head accessories and a wrist corsage of one white orchid completed her ensemble. The groom's mother wore a gown of pale green crepe forlorn with a white panel insert, accented with a white lace shawl and yellow orchid corsage. Both fathers were dressed in dark brown tuxedos with white ruffled shirts and boutonnieres of one red rosebud.

As the bride and groom greeted one another at the altar, Sandra Danielson sang, "Sunrise, Sunset". During the signing of the register, the groom's aunt, Jeanne Bastenash rendered the beautiful "Wedding Song."

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception for 170 guests was enjoyed in the gaily decorated Community Hall, with Cheryl Danielson and Louise Faucher in charge of the guest book.

Mr. Elder Danielson, the bride's uncle, acted as M.C., and called on Pastor Sid for Grace. After the delicious meal prepared and served by the Kilmore Club, the head table and distinguished guests were introduced. Great uncle, of the bride, Mr. Arthur Palla, proposed the toast to the bride, to which Eugene ably responded, after which a few words were said by Oswald Olsen and Laurent Bastenash.

The bride's father proposed a toast to the out-of-town guests from Vancouver and area, Kelowna, Hinton, Calgary, St. Paul, Edmonton, Lake Louise, Canmore, Killam and Loughed.

Following the Open House

at the bride's parental home, a wedding dance in the Community Hall was enjoyed by a large crowd of friends and relatives, music provided by the Horlock orchestra. For going away, the couple changed to light-blue matching cord outfit, the bride wearing a corsage of red roses. Many of the friends and relatives gathered together with the bridal party on Sunday at the Danielson farm for the opening of the many lovely gifts.

Following a short honeymoon to Jasper and Banff, around, Val and Eugene have taken up residence in St. Paul.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to thank our many relatives and friends for joining us on our special day, making our wedding such a happy occasion.

Valerie Lynn Danielson became the bride of Eugene Paul Faucher. Rest and Mavis Danielson of Sedgewick and John and Louise Faucher of Richmond, B.C. are the parents making this union possible.

Pastor Sidney Christopher of Red Deer, friend of the family, performed the double-ring ceremony. Val was escorted to the altar by her father in the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Lavinia Olsen, godmother of the bride.

The bride was radiant in her floor length gown of pompadour satin with sheer nylon overlay, featuring caplet sleeves, her hair styled in a chignon, and gold earrings. To complete her bridal costume, she carried a bouquet of red and pink sweetheart roses, complemented with scattered white daisies and baby's breath, with rosettes falling from the white streamers.

Three lovely bridesmaids preceded the bride and her father up the aisle. Penny Ried, friend of the bride attended as Maid of Honor, with bridesmaids being Sandra Danielson, sister of Val, and Rita Faucher, sister of Eugene. They wore identical yellow checkered dresses featuring caplet sleeves and tiaras of yellow roses. The bouquets they carried were of yellow carnations, blue daisies and scattered baby's breath.

The groom was handsomely dressed in a Charleston-style tuxedo of sky-blue, with matching tie and white ruffled shirt. His boutonniere was two carnations, red and pink.

The best man was Eugene Polanski, friend of Eugene, and groomsmen were Fred Watkinson, also a friend, and Robert Faucher, brother of the groom. They were attired in tuxedos matching the groom's but with white ruffled shirts and boutonnieres of white and yellow carnations.

The guests were ushered in by Maurice Faucher, brother of the groom, and Alvin Olsen, cousin of the bride.

OPERATION SERVICE

In this, the Royal Canadian Legion Anniversary year, 1976. A very special Campaign, known as "Operation Service", has come into effect. The purpose of this Campaign is to make sure that every Veteran, Spouse and Dependent shall be informed as to whether they are receiving in full, or in part, all the benefits they are entitled to, under the Pension Act or War Veterans Allowance Act. Apart from the easily identified ex-members of the Canadian Armed Forces there are many other Categories who may qualify for benefits.

For example: Allied Veterans of any of the Wars in which Canada was engaged, and who have lived in Canada for a period of 10 years. We have the Civilian War Pensions and Allowances Act, which also covers the Widows of our Veterans. This Act covers personnel who served under specific wartime conditions, such as in the Merchant Navy, Deep Sea Rescue, Tugs, Corps of Canadian Fire-Fighters Overseas, the Canadian Red Cross or VADs of the British Red Cross W.V.I. Former Ferry Command Alcrewea (Civilian) and the Newfoundland Overseas Forestry Unit of W.V.I.

The Branches of the Royal Canadian Legion, within the County of Flagstaff are organizing Units of Operation Service in order to reach as many as possible, who may be entitled to benefits of which they do not know. It is of course up to us, however, it is also up to you. If you think you are entitled, or know of anyone who may be eligible, let us know. This is a monstrous undertaking Canada wide, and we need lots of help from All Legion Members. How about it Comrades and Ladies?

ABOUT GROWING OLD

Few things are as personal as taxes and birthdays. Unfortunately, both have their own way of hurting. Taxes place the wallet; birthdays place the course place every muscle and joint. All cultures of the world recognize the special problems of the aged but the methods by which the elderly are cared for varies from country to country around the world. In many cultures it is the task of the upcoming generation to directly care for their parents!

ancestors in the extended family. In such systems grand-children, parents and grand-children all live in one dwelling.

In Canada the pace of our culture has separated the nuclear family from the extended family and the elderly are often dependent on government for their special assistance. Whether or not our system is right or wrong in the basic concept, one fact clearly remains: that is, the elderly are not given the fullest opportunity for the pursuit of happiness as a society such as ours should offer.

As a result of a recognized need, our Party has asked me to undertake a five or six city speaking tour in the fall of 1976 to ascertain the problems that face senior citizens. Many of the problems are already clearly etched in my mind through numerous conversations and letters from our youth of five or more decades ago. I know of the deflated self-esteem that occurs in proud hard-working people when initially receive any form of government aid. While the figure is small in the overall total, it does represent a steady increase in the holding of Alberta land by non-resident, non-Canadian owners. Figures have not been kept previously but provincial sources estimate from $600,000 to 1 million acres of Alberta land were owned by foreigners before the mounting began.

Agribusiness Minister MacLean says the provincial feeling by saying the total is "not alarming" - but not insignificant either.

Mr. Moore stresses that would-be Alberta and Canadian farmers should be able to buy the land they need to keep the province's major industry going. And he reminds the prospect of farmers having to lease back land held by foreign owners: "I'm a pretty firm believer (U.S. farmers) should have the opportunity to own their own land."

As of September 13, students at Central High have been up to their "old tricks" while trying to carry out Frosh Week activities on some 110 new Grade 10 students.

Throughout the week we've seen a colorful array of mismatched socks, knee-length plaid skirts, slicked back hair and a host of Western attire of cowboy hats and pyjamas.

To close the week's festivities a Teen Dance will be held on Friday Sept. 17th at the Sedgewick Community Hall, from 10:00 p.m. to 1:30 a.m. with "Lovers" playing.

Lougheed

Vacationing with the Bill Parsons during the summer were their granddaughters Shiron, Susan and Sheila Macdonald; their grandsons Todd Patterson, Robert and Todd Walsh and their daughter Zana.

Mrs. Winifred Macdonald of Albert and Mrs. Betty Chapman of Victoria; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Patterson of Edmonton; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Vanderhook and Kelly of Leduc; Mrs. Pam Cridie, Doreen and Ed of Edmonton; and Mrs. G. Ray Boe of Edmonton.

Restrictions are forthcoming but are currently bogged down in the great Canadian constitutional debate. The province may be forced to ban buying by all persons not resident in Alberta - or Ottawa co-operatives, restrictions will be based on citizenship.

Sheep head - this picture was taken from the Charlie Lane garden south of Lougheed. Charlie says it was the first potato bug he ever saw. He was testing for size.

Another oddity in a Sedgewick garden was a light cream colored carrot, 12 1/2" long - 2 1/2" in diameter. It was a parsnip some where along the way (The lady who grew it, didn't want her name mentioned).

Land survey shows who buys land

Kerin Peterson

When an acre of rural Alberta farm land changes hands chances are one in 40 that it is going into the hands of a foreign buyer.

A Land Titles Office survey of all sales in the province in the 12 months after June 1, 1975 shows that 2.5 per cent of the total acreage sold (79,000 acres in all) went to buyers from 23 different countries.

While the figure is small in the overall total, it does represent a steady increase in the holding of Alberta land by non-resident, non-Canadian owners. Figures have not been kept previously but provincial sources estimate from $600,000 to 1 million acres of Alberta land were owned by foreigners before the mounting began.

Agribusiness Minister MacLean says the provincial feeling by saying the total is "not alarming" - but not insignificant either.

Mr. Moore stresses that would-be Alberta and Canadian farmers should be able to buy the land they need to keep the province's major industry going. And he reminds the prospect of farmers having to lease back land held by foreign owners: "I'm a pretty firm believer (U.S. farmers) should have the opportunity to own their own land."

"No system should allow a situation to develop where outside investors own land and

Alberta farmers only get a chance to work by leasing.

The survey, which charged politicians have been delayed for political reasons, it was approved by the Legislature almost three years ago, found that foreigners bought land in 32 of the 64 municipalities it covered.

About 20,000 acres left Canadian hands between Calgary and Edmonton, while 22,000 more acres north of Edmonton were picked up by foreign buyers.

U.S. buyers were the most active, purchasing 12,000 acres of rural real estate. German buyers accounted for 27,518 acres.

Buyers from 31 other countries purchased land ranging from 9,210 acres to British buyers to five acres purchased by a Newcan company.

Included in the 79,000 acres in 22,000 acres purchased by persons holding landed immigrant status. Provincial officials are not worried by that total as they feel it represents persons who wish to settle here.

Restrictions are forthcoming but are currently bogged down in the great Canadian constitutional debate. The province may be forced to ban buying by all persons not resident in Alberta - or Ottawa co-operatives, restrictions will be based on citizenship.

Challenge of learning

Have you been challenged with the need of study? If you have not then you are wasting away with spiritual malnutrition. It causes diseases of the spirit.

The past few weeks, these articles have been directed toward understanding the importance of study with Christ. The faith. When we talk about Christian Education most people immediately think of school children and the Sunday School. It is important that children be taught the Word of God and receive it for themselves, but any program of Christian Education that does not have a healthy adult study must ultimately fail with the children also. It is a sad fact that many adults today have been satisfied with a limited and erroneous knowledge of God's word for us.

We need to hear again the words of Paul that he wrote to the church at Corinth: "examine yourselves: are you living the life of faith? For you are in the last" (II Corinthians 13:5 N.E.B.).

When asked, more than one out of ten persons will declare that they believe in God, but they cannot say what they believe or why. Not having studied, thought and received to have God's word for themselves, they are confused and limited to what they learned as a child, garbled by speculations and prejudices. Their belief in God is not the same as the belief in the Bible called "God-faith." Simply put it is belief, because without some kind of God, how many questions are left unanswered and life is a puzzle and a dilemma.

The problem is not that we don't believe, but that our belief is weak, diluted and unchallenged. It does not grow and therefore does not bring with it victory.

Each of us needs a belief that is conviction, right to the marrow of our bones and the centre of our being. That conviction gives joy and harmony and meaning to all that we do and are. In that conviction we study to know more of God's love and of God's will. Thus we grow in the spirit bringing harmony to our life and pass it on to our children.

Study and learning are an ongoing thing for all who would believe. It transforms all of life, directing us into ways and places of service that consecrates our time and talents and possessions, and makes us as restless unless we are growing in faith and knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

SOMETHING TO BEAT ABOUT

While Bert Plimpton was chairman of the Food Prices Review Board, she was instrumental in creating the image with many Canadians that farmers were getting too big a share of the dollars that went into total food costs. The facts, however, demonstrate that across the last two years the farmers' share in the consumer cost of beef has steadily decreased. This means that not only are farmers underselling their beef products, but also that the rest of the industry has failed to reflect the farmer's cheaper selling price on to the consumer.

One cannot help but be disgusted with the lack of federal action regarding the prices that have been inflicted upon the producers of beef and veal. It was bad enough that there was a significant overproduction during the past 5 years, largely as a result of government encouragement and false incentives, but the real insult is the great increase in importation of Australian and New Zealand beef and veal. For farmers and ranchers to learn that beef imported from Australia and New Zealand is up 35% in 1976 over the same period in 1975 must be devastating news in view of the fact that most producers were previously making their animals at below production cost.

What has happened is obvious: the beef producers are victims of a negotiated trade agreement at the most recent round of bargaining of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (GATT) held in Tokyo. For months now I have been trying to obtain a transcript of these negotiations so as to learn what Canadian benefits were achieved that the negotiators could so easily import more beef at the peak of domestic overproduction. Most important, I wanted to know who played at the expense of the producer. To this date I have been told that all such information is confidential. With the above in mind, a livestock committee has been established to organize and host a massive beef producers' rally at Stettler on the evening of October 22nd. In attendance will be featured speaker Dr. H. Harries, a member of the recent Beef Inquiry and a former Liberal Member of Parliament, and Bert Hargrave, M.P., Medicine Hat, presently the National Progressive Conservative critic on beef production and marketing.

After an analysis and public discussion, the petition will be circulated requesting the government to yield representation and authority to the agricultural industry in international negotiations with the direct effect to producer prices and costs. If the government cannot protect the agricultural industry then it is high time that the producers' industry be given an opportunity to keep in touch with its own needs.

Riters Ramblings

A favorite place

by Betty Walsh
This morning it's green and golden. Yesterday it was grey and gloomy. The sun sheds its early morning rays over the familiar scene, still glistening from last night's rainfall.

Here I watch the seasons come and go. The first green grass, pushing up almost before the snow has gone. The little buds growing full, ready to give birth to their heavenly scented buds. They were just little twigs when we planted them. Now I have to stand on tiptoe to bury my face in their flowers. Here the bright pink rhubarb looks so carefully through the earth and under the lilacs the first shy violets appear. The current bush dresses in bright pink and the maple slowly unfolds its yellow green leaves.

Now come the birds. The juncos, just here for a week or so, before continuing further south.

My grandson's "hog birds", the robins, singing their hearts out from my high perch. In their speckled spring coats the fuzzy noisy starlings are handsome as they strut around informing all that they have arrived. The chily coats of the blackbirds are reflected in the blackness of the crow's apparel. While the ever present sparrows add their voices to the chorus.

Now the lilacs are in full bloom and the rhubarb flaunts its heavy leaves on bright stalks. The yellow willow of the popples is matched by the yellow of the black capped gold finch and the orange of the oriole. And in the blue sky the swallows perform their aerial ballet.

The grass grows brown. The rhubarb leaves become as red as when they first appeared. The current hangs heavy on the bush and the blackberries are wither and fall. As do the maple leaves after a brief brilliant red display. Once more the juncos appear, following their feathered cousins on their flight south.

Soon a white blanket covers all. The trees wear their shimmering garments of hoar frost. The wax wings strip the current bush while the chickadees are with us again, sharing the bird feeders with the sparrows and the grackles. In the maple tree the woodpeckers eat heartily of the moist hanging there. And the seasons have slipped by again.

And once more I have watched this very small part of this very large world through another year, such a small part. But since this large world is made up of small parts surely it is important as the most majestic mountain or awe inspiring sea. And I can say with the psalmist, "The earth is the Lord's and the heavens thereof" as I gaze at my changing, changeless world through my kitchen window.

Galahad auxiliary meets

The Galahad Hospital Auxiliary met on Wednesday, September 15, 15 members and 50 guests were present. The meeting opened with the members repeating the Auxiliary prayer. Minutes of the June meeting were read and approved. Treasurers report followed. The Hospital staff tea and raffie sponsored by the Auxiliary was a huge success and the Auxiliary turned over the proceeds to the staff and a television and a Compressor were purchased. The Auxiliary also purchased a life line for the Hospital. Plans were slowly progressing for the Harvest Tea to be held on October 23 in the Lions Hall. A get well card was sent to Marie Tauler who is ill in the hospital in Edmonton. Tickets were handed out for sale on the Digby Clock which is being raffied. Mrs. Martha Ponto moved the meeting adjourned. A delicious lunch was served by ladies present.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Granger new Sigma Boy of Edmonton. They were married in Edmonton on August 15. His mother, Mrs. Ruth Granger of Killam attended the wedding. The Grangers are former Galahad residents.

Wages vs prices. What's happened in 1976.

The anti-inflation program is nearly one year old.

The program was announced last October 14 and the Anti-Inflation Act was passed by Parliament in December. The goal was to create a fair and stable economic climate for all of us. Guidelines were established for the control of prices, profits, incomes, dividends and professional fees. The federal government established a policy of spending restraint. The provinces are supporting the program and are applying guidelines in areas of provincial concern such as rents.

The target of the first year of the anti-inflation program was to bring inflation down from a rate of 10.8% to 8% or less. This goal is going to be reached. Still, many Canadians are concerned about rising prices and may feel in fact that prices are rising faster than their family incomes. For most of us, this is not the case. The facts prove that since the start of the program most of us are better off than we were before because salaries, on average, are keeping ahead of prices.

Prices

Last year, sudden and frightening price increases were happening all too often. By October, 1975, Canadians had experienced 20 months of inflation of 10% or more. No one could be sure how far the dollar earned one day would stretch the next. The anti-inflation program was brought in to control the rise in prices, giving Canadians a better chance to plan and live within their family budgets. Price increases have slowed down. By August, the annual rate of increase in the Consumer Price Index had dropped to 6.2%. Although some price increases have to be expected this month and next, the 8% target will surely be met.

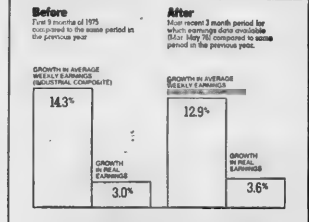

Wages

The anti-inflation program has also helped to restrain increases in wages, salaries and other incomes. The guidelines on compensation allow for a basic increase of 8%, plus 2% as a share of national productivity growth. Another 2% can be added or subtracted depending on whether a group had kept up with or fallen behind cost of living increases before the program began. More than half of the agreements and settlements reported to the Anti-Inflation Board have been within these arithmetic guidelines. A gradual downward trend in wage increases has started and it should continue as more Canadians realize that because of declining inflation, settling for less won't hurt them.

The real gains

Since the start of the anti-inflation program, the average Canadian has actually improved his or her buying power. This is because lower wage increases along with lower price increases have resulted in a gain in real incomes. The real gain is worked out by taking the actual increase in earnings and subtracting from it the effects of higher consumer prices. Real incomes are probably the best measure of how we're doing, of how we can manage to pay our bills at home. By this spring, real incomes were up 3.6% over last year.

Controls on both prices and incomes are part of the reason why the inflation rate is dropping. The co-operation and hard work of most Canadians is the rest of the story. We will soon be moving into the second year of the program, with a goal of lowering the inflation rate to 6% or less. Working together we can reach this target too.

Whole wheat flour is higher in fat than white flour, so be sure that you store it in a cool place.

Consumer's Association of Canada reports that using lead-free gas will save you money as well as cut down on air pollution. It usually costs a few cents more to buy, but lead-free gas will keep your car engine tuned longer, and as a result it will consume fewer gallons. Also, your exhaust system will have a much longer life. Oil won't have to be changed as frequently and the emission control system won't require as much maintenance.

Nature Nutrition Products for Hanging Baskets and Balcony Planters.

If you are having problems keeping the soil moist around the plants in your hanging basket or balcony planter, you will be interested to know that there are products on the market which increase the moisture retention of the soil around the roots of the plant.

These products act as a sort of sponge, absorbing a large quantity of water, thereby reducing the frequency of watering. According to Ariane Chancy, Alberta Agriculture's horticulture specialist, they do not have to be mixed with the soil before the plants are potted, but should be put around the stems of the plant. They can be obtained from most garden supply centres.

"Mashed" French Fries - Better for Less.

French fries may soon be produced by a new "no waste" method which uses the entire potato. The new method produces a high quality product - more flavorful, less oily and more economical to produce than the conventional product. It could provide a better product.

Auburn-Hill wed at Strome

A lovely wedding was solemnized on Saturday afternoon August 14th, when Donald Auburn only daughter of Myrland and Ann Hill, was married to Donald James, younger son of Eric and Suele Auburn.

The setting for the ceremony was the front lawn of the bride's home. A little altar, covered with her great-grandmother's hand made lace cloth, and flanked with garden flowers, was set under a great weeping birch; and there the wedding vows were pledged before Rev. A. Richards of Killam and Strome. The chairs for the wedding guests were set out against the flower beds and under the line old trees of the yard, all contributing to the beauty and serenity of the occasion.

Just before the wedding procession, Janie Raver, close friend of both bride and groom, is shown here carrying two would-be footballers of the Wainwright Champions in an interlocking high school game played last Saturday at Central and won by Central 36-24.

The bride approached the altar escorted by her parents. She looked enchanting in a long, full skirted, white gown, with high collar, long full sleeves with lace-trimmed cuffs. Her train-length veil was fastened with a crown of white roses, and the carried golden flowers - red roses, enhanced by sweet peas and babies breath.

She was preceded by her maid of honor, Judy Robbins, and her bridesmaids Charlene Forcman and Bonnie Stott, in identical golden flowers - red roses, enhanced by sweet peas and babies breath.

The bridegroom wore a grey tuxedo with black velvet lapels, ruffled shirt and boutonniere of red carnations. His attendant Dennis McInnis, Ron Borge and the bride's brother Karlis, were light blue tuxedos with dark blue lapels, ruffled shirts and pink carnations. Their gifts from the groom were lighters. Usherung the guests were Brian Borge and the brides brother Clifford. Helping to park the cars were Ken Hill and Bob McNaughton.

The bride's mother wore a long gown of beige on white, with a deep border of blue at the hem, complemented with a short belted jacket and a corsage of orange gladioli; while the groom's mother chose summer blue sheer, with long full sleeves, and a corsage of pink gladioli. It was a special honor to have the bride's great grandmother, Mrs. May Sauer, who were a softly gathered gown of garden colors, with yellow gladioli on corsage. Other relatives of the young couple were presented corsages of gladioli and sweet peas for the ladies and carnations for the men.

All of the flowers worn, and used for decorating, were home-grown, and arranged especially for each person, by Nancy Currie, the groom's aunt, and her cousin Ruth Auburn. Much labour and loving concern went into their arrangements which contributed so much beauty to the occasion.

Janie Raver sang "Mare" during the signing of the register, and then Rev. Richards introduced Mr. and Mrs. Donald Auburn.

After the ceremony, picnic tables were set up and the guests were hosted to a leisurely happy hour while the photographer took the formal photographs in the gardens of both the Hill and Auburn homes.

The reception for sixty-five guests followed at 5:00 p.m. Tables were placed under the trees and decorated with flowers. The bride's table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake, baked by the bride and her mother, and decorated in blue by the bride's great aunt, Mrs. Ruth Peckard. The M.C. was George Borge, who called first upon N.A. Cranston, great grandfather of the bride, to ask a blessing upon the gathering. Close friends, Mary McNaughton, Rosemary Hayes, Jennie Frouther and Myrna Rave served an old fashioned country dinner of fried chicken at all. George Cranston proposed the toast to his granddaughter carrying out in his remarks the theme of Janie's song "Everything is Beautiful". The groom responded in his usual jovial style. Dennis McDougall proposed a toast to the bridegroom's aunt, Mrs. May Sauer, the bride's great grandmother. Sedgewick old-timer laid to rest

Funeral services for Mr. John Glenale were conducted at the United Church of Canada, Sedgewick, September 16 at 2:00 p.m. by Rev. H. Allan Richards, officiated with Stabfield Funeral Home and Fee and Sons Funeral Home of Kildam in charge of arrangements.

John Glenale was born in Langdon, Kansas on October 16, 1891 and passed away at home in Parkville, B.C. on September 10, 1976. He was 85 years and 11 months of age. In 1913 John Glenale moved to the Sedgewick district to become a long time farmer. He met and married his wife Nina Stubbfield in 1928 and they raised their family - Robert Glenale, Alex Glenale of Australia and Alice Reid. John Glenale's wife, Nina, passed away in 1953 and he lived on at the farm south of town until his retirement in 1973. In November of 1973 John moved to the coast to be with his daughter. Besides his three children he leaves behind seven grandchildren: two sisters, Mrs. Rachael Lisle of Dayland and Mrs. Martha Kingle of Oregon, many nieces and nephews, two brother-in-laws, Neil and Ned Stubbfield and friends.

Burial followed in the Sedgewick Cemetery. Honorary Pallbearers were Bob Munro, Gilbert Swanson, Elmer Els, Overt Bakken, Sigurd Backen and Carl Christensen. The Pallbearers were Eldon and Roger Ferrier, Termond Christensen, George Jackson, Jimmy Davidson and Everett Lancaster.

CARD OF THANKS
The Glenale family sincerely thank the old friends for their expressions of sympathy on our loss of our father. To those who send cards, donations, food to the house and the U.C.W. boxes for serving lunch after the funeral. Your kindness and understanding is greatly appreciated.

"With fuel prices going crazy, we added insulation in the attic. Now the house is more comfortable and we've cut our gas consumption by about 12%."

Adding insulation is one of the best investments you can make.

Keeping the heat in helps to conserve Canada's dwindling energy reserves. And cuts your fuel bills. Add insulation, caulking, weather-stripping and storms. Have your furnace tuned for peak efficiency. Keep a tight hand on the thermostat.

You'll save money for yourself, and help Canada to conserve energy and fight inflation. No wonder insulation is one of the best investments you can make. Remember, too, that many insulation products are now exempt from Federal sales tax.

$100.00 reward
The mentality of some people was evident last week when person or persons drove through the new park at Sedgewick, leaving deep tracks. After nearly uprooting a lovely large spruce tree, the vehicle drove on the grass boulevard along the street, causing the damage to the tree and possible damage to some houses. This took place early Thursday morning. A number of such acts of willful damage have occurred in the past few months. In an effort to apprehend the delinquents, the editor of this newspaper is offering a reward of $100 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of those responsible for the incident at Sedgewick Park. Information may be left with the undersigned, or with the R.C.M.P. detachment at Killam. Monte Keith

Sedgewick Lake area to be zoned
The August meetings of the Council of the County of Flagstaff No. 28, were held in Sedgewick, Alberta on August 12th.

Business dealt with at the 17th meeting was varied. A synopsis of that meeting follows.

Delmore Bergum, Development Control Officer met with Council to discuss several items. Approval was given to C. Penrock to construct a house; no objection was made to the proposed development of Brian Oude to construct a mobile home on the NE 23-1-10-14; Council are proposing to pass a resolution zoning the area surrounding Lake Sedgewick as a resort area; Mr. Bergum is to look into a zoning by-law on the zoning of the trailer park; Approval of subdivision of a 20 acre parcel out of the E 1/2 of 13-42-10-14 was Meridian.

Proposed Overland Permitt System By-law was received and discussed at length with Constable Vanderweerde, regarding suggested changes and increase in road limits from 30,000 lbs. to 35,000 lbs. It was moved by Mr. Miller that the road limit on S.R. 802 from Alliance east to S.R. 872 be increased from 15,000 lbs. to 35,000 lbs., and that this road be included in the by-law.

Plans for overloads were discussed and it was agreed that the fine when the vehicle and load if any, is over 3,000 lbs. of weight limit, be set at $300, rather than $100.00.

Permits for local truckers within the County were discussed and it was agreed they would be put on an honour system giving a blanket permit and asked to report to the office several times a year. They will also be asked to report any road damage to the County Office immediately.

By-law No. 311 for the purpose of controlling and regulating the use of highways, roadways and streets within the County and the vehicle moving thereon, was presented subject to the changes agreed to above, given three readings and carried.

Constable Vanderweerde requested Council to consider sharing the cost of purchasing a truck with the Town of Sedgewick, to be used in policing the town and the County.

With regard to safety officers, and a recent occurrence in the County, grand operators are to be instructed to use the income, said the small-scale beef producers will not be encouraged to abandon the business despite its problems.

He said most inefficient operators have already been weeded out and the government continues to insist that diversification of products across the farm community is essential for its long-run stability.

Mr. Lougheed said cutting production and forcing Canadian to rely on imported beef would be "illogical". Alberta raised 40 per cent of the country's beef and the livestock industry is essential.

He attributed three years of depressed prices to poor tariff protection against over-supplies of U.S. meat plus federal trade policy that allowed cheap New Zealand and Australian beef to flood Canadian markets this year.

Deities are only three cents a pound on boxed, processed U.S. beef. But Canadian exports free U.S. taxes of 18 to 15 cents, the premier said.

His government had stoutly resisted demands for grants, saying aid should be federal to handle a Canada-wide problem and Alberta should not be a "cheap help for other provinces."

But the announcement follows growth of a debt moratorium movement among cow-celebrated at different times and with different frequencies. It symbolizes for us all the self-giving love of our Lord whose body was broken-whose blood was poured out for us for us all. From the highly formalized and beautiful Mass of the Catholic traditions, the few people gathered around the kitchen table of the house church to those seated on the mud floor of a jungle hut, all agree that in taking part in this sacrament they come face to face with an action that moves into the very heart of the Christian religion. We all at the table of the Lord. We eat from one bread and drink from one cup as Jesus taught His disciples "this is the remembrance of me." It is fellowship with the Sacrament and Sacrament a fellowship among brothers.

This coming Sunday, as we all know he way around the world it will be as the nations and peoples in the family of Christ will be sitting around his table together. From the high mass of the great gothic cathedral to the little group of brothers from the persecuted church to the iron curtain to the little group.

Bridal shower for Daysland girl

On September 18 a shower was held for Serena Lamuris in the United Church social room. One contest was played and Michelle Markovich sang a few songs. Sitting at the head table with Serena were her mother and her two sisters-in-law. She received many lovely gifts for which she thanked the ladies very much.
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thomas are initiating in Winocoma. The Friendship Club met in the United Church social room Sept. 21. The President Mrs. Anna Boggis welcomed the members back after the holidays. She also welcomed Mrs. Bertha Oliva back after her stay in hospital. There were 15 members who answered the roll call. Mrs. Anna Dolan read the Devotion. On lunch for October meeting are Mrs. Erickson, Fraser, Armstrong and Laura Graham. It was moved that we have a supper in November. Mrs. Anna Dolan gave the program of a contest and a reading on the "modern grandmother" and a reply by the grandchild, which was enjoyed by all. Then the ladies each gave an account of their holidays. A special lunch was served by Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Court, Mrs. Clegg and Mrs. Dolan, with a time of visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Foster (nee Connie Jacobson) of Calgary visited Mr. and Mrs. George Munro last weekend. Mrs. Anna Boggis spent a few days in Vermilion at the home of her son Arthur and she attended an Easter Star meeting while there.

On Wednesday Sept. 22nd about 25 ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. Lil Kolof, for an afternoon tea to honor Ray Brown. They had a money tree which each one taped money on and signed their names to a card for their efforts to provide a most enjoyable program to commemorate the 50th anniversary of the sons of Killam.

It seems that words are inadequate to properly express our gratitude.
The warm welcome extended to us and the program as well organized establishes that the residents of Killam and district are wonderful people.

We are proud to be able to say that we are from Killam. The occasion permitting us to meet so many friends of years gone by will no doubt happen only once in our lifetime and we are indebted to you for providing us with that memorable occasion.

We wish to express special appreciation to Jim and Olive Grant who provided us a home during our four day visit, and their hospitality added immeasurably to our enjoyment. Yours very sincerely,
Lorne, Audrey and David

A few ladies went out to Mrs. Robert Lansing's to help Mrs. Agnes Twitcheil celebrate her 81st birthday September 18th. The afternoon was spent in visiting and food served a lovely lunch and birthday cake.

Agriculture — If You Eat,

You're Involved

All Albertans have a role to play in agriculture, as consumers, and also as willing members of the agriculture industry, which provides one out of three jobs in the province.

A wide variety of foods are produced in Alberta, and processing these foods keeps 450 plants in business and their employees on the job.

Wheat, for example, must be milled, baked, packaged and marketed before it reaches the dinner table as bread. Each step means jobs for Albertans.

You're a part of the chain of industry, too. As a consumer you're a most important link. If you eat, you're involved in agriculture.

News from Killam and District

Happy birthday to Mr. Bill McMahon of Sedgewick Lodge who was 87 years young on Sept. 22nd. We never forget Bill's birthday as we, Bill and Dot, celebrated our 31st anniversary on this date.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan spent Sunday in Edmonton visiting the family and of course to administer the new grandson. Dearest sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Annie Kistner and family, in their great loss of their son, Sept. 22nd. Funeral services were held on Sat., Sept. 25.

Constant and Mrs. Larry Erickson of Meadow Lake, Sask. are visiting parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Erickson and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Kercher and family of Alameda.

We notice work progressing on the new Senior Citizens home on the west side of town. The new addition on the Elks Hall is also coming up in a hurry.

Dearest sympathy of the community goes out to Mrs. Grace Kells and family of Harbly and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Busse and family in their sudden loss of John Kells.

We welcome to town Mr. and Mrs. Craig Larsen of Hinton. Craig will be employed by Jay Pritchard. Nice to see our hometown young people come back.

Miss Loretta Miller and Ralph of Killam were visiting

Mr. Tom Natras and Mrs. George Natras last week. Loretta returned to Calgary with a heavy left finger. Congratulations to Tom and Loretta who became engaged on Saturday, Sept. 25.

Mr. and Mrs. Reg Kistner and family and Miss Debbie Houghton have moved into the former Bob Houghton home. Mrs. George Natras attended her nephew's wedding recently at Harbly.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Hart spent the weekend in Edmonton visiting Mr. and Mrs. Terry Bleicher and family. Miss Val Hart of Edmonton is holidaying with her parents.

Nice to see Mrs. Charley Lewis home after her stay in St. Mary's hospital in Camrose.

Mixed Bowling League organizational meeting on Friday, Oct. 1 at 7:30 at Agriplex. Please have a team representative attend.

Karen and Philip Mathias of Calgary spent Sunday at her parents home, the Bill George's.

Stan Hobbs and Vern Nicks have come back from their hunting trip with a moose for their deep freeze.

I'm sure most farmers are finished with the harvest and fallowing and garden are finished. It has been a beautiful fall, so time to wash windows and do fall cleaning and then on to winter sports. Her Vern has his skin sharpened up, ready for snow. If it doesn't snow, this year the ski will make their own so should be a good year for those interested in skiing.

KILLAM SENIOR CITIZENS

President Mrs. Wilson called the meeting to order and asked the members to stand for our minutes silence in respect for the late Mr. Leonard Quinton.

OPERATION SERVICE

In this, the Royal Canadian Legion Anniversary year, 1976. A very special Campaign, known as "Operation Service", has come into effect. The purpose of this Campaign is to make sure that every Veteran, Spouse and Dependent shall be informed as to whether they are receiving in full, or in part, all the benefits they are entitled to under the Pension Act or War Veterans Allowance Act. Apart from the easily identified ex-members of the Canadian Armed Forces, there are many other Categories who may qualify for benefits.

For example: Allied Veterans of any of the Wars in which Canada was engaged, and who have lived in Canada for a period of 10 years. We have the Civilian War Pensions and Allowances Act, which also covers the Veterans of some. This Act, covers personnel who served under specific wartime conditions, such as, in the Merchant Navy, Dugout Crew, Corps of Canadian Engineers, Canadian Red Cross or VADs of the British Red Cross W.V.I. Former Ferry Command Aircrews (Civilian) and the Newfoundland Overseas Forestry Units of W.W.II.

The Branches of the Royal Canadian Legion, within the County of Flaxton are organizing Units of Operation Service in order to reach as many as possible, who may be entitled to benefits of which they do not know, and of course up to us, however, it is also up to you. If you think you are entitled, or know of anyone who may be eligible, let us know. This is a monstrous undertaking, Canada wide, and we need lots of help from ALL Legion Members. How about it Comrades and Ladies?

4-H CLUB ACTIVITIES

KILLAM NUMBER 4-H CLUB

Bele-H-ty's.

This will be my last white-out (or my last day) as Community Press reporter for the Killam Number 4-H Club. We will be having our re-organizational meeting as soon as harvest is over (some of our mothers and leaders have been busy heading jobs this time of year). Members were requested in the schools with regard to our first meeting.

Our Club members had a very active year - our first major project last Fall was our Yea & Bake Sale and the sale of Arts and Crafts which was very successful. We entertained the Killam Auxiliary Hospital patients before Christmas with a program of Carols, dancing and piano selections - a combined Christmas party with the Beef Club a cash donation was given to the local Agri-Plex. We also took part in the 4-H Curling, Bowling Pan Days held in Sedgewick. A risk, comprising of members from the Beef and Curling Clubs, took part in the Viking 4-H Curling competition. Our Club backed the Killam Number 4-H Club. Our members competed in the Bowling against the Heister Henshaw and won the Tip Henshaw Challenge Cup. Later on in the season in no other competition we won the 4-H Curling trophy. In January, we hired a school bus and travelled to Edmonton to see the Ice Capades - a very enjoyable outing.

In April we had our Achievement Day, where our year's work was displayed and judged - a real nice display. Elaine Manning was our Efficiency winner. Gayle Nilsen was selected to attend Club Week at Oils. She reported a very nice trip. Earlier in the year, Gayle attended Selections at Oils.

In July, the three Killam 4-H Clubs with the assistance of the Agri Society, hosted the East Central 4-H Regional Days - 1 day of action packed activities. The Clubbing Club had a display of their sewing articles and a fashion show at the Agri-Plex. The Horse Club had riding competitions, etc. at the Arena. The Beef and Dairy Clubs had their showmanship and judging at the Auction Market. Cows came from all over the East Central Region to take part in competitions, make new friends and have fun. Elaine Manning was 2nd runner up in the Home Craft Queen Contest, and our Club received a 2nd Award Pin for participation in the Clothing Section.

Why don't you join the Club and get in on the fun and excitement. New members wanting to join our Club should phone Mrs. Helen Nilfornik, our Club Leader, at 365-2235, or watch for posters.

Good luck to my successor, Deanna Wilson Reporter

Killam man laid to rest

The community was saddened on September 11th with the passing of Mr. Leonard Quinton in the Killam General Hospital. He was born on July 11, 1901 in the Killam district and resided here with his family in the Theodoresk area at an early age.

In 1914 he came to an early age to the Killam district and purchased land north of town and farmed there until his retirement in the town of Killam in 1947. He was known as a kind and gentle man, well liked and respected by all who knew him. He was a successful farmer with a fine herd of registered hereford. He served as Councillor in the M.E.D. of Flaxton for a number of years. He will be greatly missed by his wife Florence and two daughters, Evelyn Poboda of Viking and Olive Smith of Terrace, B.C. and Ada Little of Theodoresk. He was preceded by three brothers, Richard of Theodoresk, Norman of New Zealand in 1947. John of Theodoresk, Sask. in 1975 and William of Viking in 1976.

The pallbearers were six nephews, Hugh, Ross, Norma, Quinton and Gordon, Clara and Robert Maxwell. The funeral service was held from the Killam United Church on Sept. 14th with Rev. Allan Richards officiating with interment in the Killam Cemetery. Many floral tributes were received from family and friends.

CARD OF THANKS

We would like to express our heartfelt thanks to Dr. Ann, nurses and staff, Rev. & Sons, Rev. Richards, the Choir, our Club Leader, the ladies who served the lovely lunch, and for all the food brought to the house, the pallbearers, the beautiful floral tributes. The many joyous memorial donations and all the beautiful sympathy cards. We appreciate it all and we thank you.

Judge of the day was Mr. Dale Lybbert while ring mistress was Betty Holt. Ralph Manning ably carried out the job of announcer and many others helped to make the day a success.

THE GREAT HEAT ROBBERY takes place when furnace filters are dirty.

3 Most furnace filters are the glass fibre disposable type. These should normally be cleaned monthly and replaced twice a year.

4 Permanent type metallic filters should be cleaned and re-oiled as required. Most hardware and department stores carry various size filters.

5 In addition to a regular check to ensure filters are clean, be sure your furnace motor and fan bearings are lubricated according to the manufacturer's instructions. Registers should be cleaned of dust and foreign objects. Furniture should be placed so that hot and cold air registers are not obstructed.

Attention to your heating system will help you to get all the heat you pay for this winter.

1 Forced air heating system filters are designed to prevent dust and lint in the air from being drawn through the furnace.

2 When filters become clogged with accumulated dust the flow of air is restricted reducing heating efficiency.

What I really mean to say is . . .

by Sandra Pope of the Pisgah Creative Writers
When you speak do you say what you intend on saying?
Do you leave your listener with a question in his mind? "What does he really mean?"

A message communicated from your lips into the ears of another could have altogether two different meanings, based theoretically on your expression, your experience and your intelligence, as opposed to what he sees in your physical gestures and what he hears from his own experience and knowledge.

Such, with all of its ambiguity and evenness is referred to as "semantics."

If you have ever used or been used as a result of an automobile accident, you may be startled when you hear a witness give testimony as to "what he saw happen." Because his testimony and your own are as different as "cheese and chaff" you logically assume that he must have been watching an entirely different accident in the other direction.

Which one among you has said, "Oh! I wish I had said," or "What I meant was . . ."
or "In other words . . ." There are times when we do not make ourselves clearly understood, and times when we only answer half of the question.
For example, three Texans were talking. One asked the second, "How much land do you own?" He replied, "Only 12,000 acres!" "Oh!" the first replied, "I only own 10,000 acres!" They both turned to the third Texan and asked the same question, to which he replied, "Only 2 miles." "An unimpressive reply," the other two Texans thought as they walked away, but what the third Texan neglected to say was that his 2 miles were located in downtown Houston.

"Doubtless" he can be referred to as a "semantical error."
A person slapping you on the back and saying, "Why you old son-of-a-bitch!" is not calling your parents a weapon, but merely expressing a form of affection. If you are going to "run into him" it is much better to take the car and save your strength.

Semantics is two-way traffic going down a one-way street, for although it allows man to understand and manipulate his life, it can also lead to misunderstanding and sometimes conflict when in communication with others because of the fact that one opinion may be made from an authoritative point of view, while another person may rationalize his opinion. Another opinion may be scientific, while another is given impulsively from the point of view that any reason is better than none.

Poetry is an excellent example of semantics. If a ci-smple of semantics. If a ci-of 30 students are instructed and write down what the teacher said when he wrote those moving words, no two students will interpret the personal exactly the same, including the teacher. Therefore, "subjectivity" it is a matter of say that a student does not get meaning from the printed page, but puts meaning into the printed page depending on his own experience and knowledge.

Similarly, no two people will interpret the passage in the Bible exactly the same. It is also true that the same person will change his or her interpretation as the years go by.

Politicians are not always awarded the opportunity to exactly their statements, because a good deal of their speeches are promises - short bits of their intent to do. When Jimmy Carter stated that he would give amnesty to all drug offenders, he was stating a promised fact and not a personal opinion, and therefore he was not allowed the luxury of shifting his statement.

Just as no two events in nature are identical, so no two opinions are exactly the same.
A difference of opinion is not a right and a wrong opinion, but merely two opinions and it is this difference that makes each of us unique, interesting and fascinating to one another.

Hardisty and District News

A warm welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Rick McNealley of Cadogan, the new Alberta Wheat Pool grain buyer.

Mrs. Carl Anderson made quite a discovery while digging in her garden. The fork hit something metallic, and on examining it closer, it proved to be two dog tags looking none the wiser for wear, dated 1932 and 1931, numbered 3 and 14. One must assume that Hardisty must have been a populated town 43 years ago, as there are dog tags for some 48 or more dogs!

We were all addressed and greatly shocked to learn of the sudden passing of Mr. John Kella. His parents were known far and wide as being the best neighbors and friends to all, and John followed in their foot steps very faithfully. The funeral service was attended by a large crowd, many school friends and neighbors. Among those attended from a distance included the three Vandewick sisters, Myra, Virginia and Ellen, Marjorie Lyman from Calgary, the former Beebe girls, Carl and Mrs. Baker and family, just to name a few. The sympathy of the community goes out to his mother, Mrs. Lottie Kella, his wife Grace and family, his brothers and sisters and other relatives.

The community was also saddened to hear of the passing of Mrs. Mary Wells after a lingering illness. Mrs. Wells lived in and around Hardisty many years ago, then became a nurse's aide in Edmonton where she worked for many years. About three years ago, she bought a house in Hardisty and came here to live. We are sorry to have her leave our midst. Sincere sympathy to Lillian Farnin and John Wells as well as other relatives.

Seen around town recently was Glen McAdden. Glen tells us that he has lived in Ft. McMurray for ten years and has four almost grown-up children.

Just came across a 1925-26 "Packer Directory and Bowler Guide" of Hardisty. The town fifty years ago had a population of 700, had three general stores, two barber shops, two meat markets, three restaurants, three blacksmith shops, a harness shop, a newspaper, bakery, two hardware stores, a lawyer, auctioneer, etc.

A family gathering took place at the Allen Currier house at Cadogan on Sept. 20th, the event being the christening of Tammy Ann Currier by Rev. Jackson. Tammy Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Currier. Her grandparents, the Allen Curriers, and Mrs. Ken Korth of Hardisty were in attendance, as well as Todd and Carol Korth, Corinne and Tina Rand. Godparents are Greg and Lynnette (Wenger) Sambrone of Edmonton.

Services held for Sedgewick pioneer

Mary Jane Clarke of Sedgewick, Alta., passed away in the Flagstaff Auxiliary Hospital September 28th, 1976.

She was born March 11, 1881 at Portadown, Co. Armagh in Northern Ireland. In April 1912 she was united in marriage to Thomas James Clarke of the same town. To this union five children were born Thomas, Olive, Winnie (deceased), Maude and Douglas.

They immigrated to Canada in 1927 and took up farmland south of Sedgewick until 1964, when they retired and moved into town. She was predeceased by her husband in 1953. In 1969 she took up residence in Flagstaff Lodge. Due to ill health she was moved to the Auxiliary Hospital in January of this year where she resided until her passing.

Funeral services were held in Killam Baptist Church on Friday, September 30th, 1976 at 2:00 p.m. with Pastor Bert Nieuwenhuis officiating and soloist Mr. Harry Anderson rendering her favorite hymn "Face to Face" with Mrs. Jean White at the organ.

Later he became a great gardener and later Mrs. Leedholm moved to Hardisty where schooling was easier for the children. After leaving a long and very useful life Mr. Leedholm passed away suddenly on August 27th, the day before his 80th birthday. Man the questioner

In A.D. 67 the monk Paulinus visited King Edwin in Northumbria to persuade him to accept Christianity. He hesitated and decided to summon his advisers. At the meeting one of them stood up and said "Your Majesty, when you sit at table with your lords and vassals, in the winter when the fire burns bright on the hearth and the storm is howling outside, bringing the snow and the rain, it happens of a sudden that a little bird flies into the hall. It comes in at an open door and flies out through the other. For a few seconds that it is inside the hall, it does not feel the cold, but as soon as it leaves your sight it returns to the dark of winter. It seems to me that that the life of a man is much the same. We do not know what went before and we do not know what follows."

They found answers to these questions in the message of Jesus. Does this mean that questions about the meaning of existence created to be put? No. Every generation and every man must ask them. It is natural for man to question the meaning of life.

Indeed all our work and all our family affairs, all that we do be it pleasant or tiresome, are answers to the same question. It is so vast and deep that we also put it with our heart and hands. It is the question to which we give occasional thought. Everything we do is a tender, strong and urgent request to put it to rest. We want it to be kind to us, to be meaningful for us, in a word to reveal its purpose.

During the next four weeks we shall deal with four important elements of this all important question. For existence (1) We live together with others (2) On this earth (3) Ourself part of this world (4) But endowed with a certain freedom and spiritual quality. There are also the main elements of which our happiness is composed.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Kinner spent the weekend in Edmonton visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morgan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Les Walker of Edmonton were visitors with dad, Mr. Sid Walker.

Sympathy of the community goes out to the Callison family and relatives of Mrs. Tillie Callison who passed away at the age of 96 years on Oct. 4, after a lengthy illness at Tacoma, Wash. Tillie was an old timer of the Killam District, having lived here for a number of years.

Dedication service at St. Marks

Sunday, Sept. 19 was a special day at St. Marks Anglican Church when a service of dedication was held. A plaque has been prepared bearing names of those deceased members whose memorials and work have helped beautify St. Marks. Invitations had been sent to families of these members, resulting in a full church. The newly re-opened windows added to the beauty of the church, as did flowers on the altar and organ.

Rev. Richard Conrad conducted the service, blessing the plaque with appropriate words. In his sermon he paid tribute to these faithful members who through the years kept St. Marks active.

Of real interest was the reading of a note that had been left in the church from Mr. Jack Reynolds of Kimberley, B.C. who had stopped in during the week. Jack is the son of Rev. G. Reynolds who served at St. Marks as a student in 1913 and again in 1921 as rector. Old-timers may remember the family.

Following the service, lunch was served and a social time enjoyed.

LINEAS AND WRINKLES

By MARY KAI LIA

Cosmetic science has extracted a skin beauty substance from the bean of a tropical plant that works wonders by making rough, lined face and dry chapped hands look years younger fast. Use it tonight and you should see vast improvement in the morning. Many small lines around the eyes and mouth may already have disappeared and wrinkles you have given up as hopeless should start to vanish in a few days. But that isn't all. That discouraging weather-darkened old-age skin tones fades away. But don't take my word for it... use this exciting substance yourself for 7 days... satisfaction is guaranteed or return for refund. It's the tropical nut extract that works wonders for wrinkles and lines. It's called Cocoma Dry Skin Creme.

"My goah Mom!" you're thinking about Christmas shopping already! "What do I want... What do the kids want?" "Come to think of it, Mom, Vernon did mention abouder pads, for hockey. He must be another cold weather thinker like you! But mom, don't you realize the thermometer says 22 celcius! The bees are still here. Even the flies in my barn aren't the least bit inclined to fly south yet. I'm still wearing sandals when I go outside to look at my geraniums, and water my begonias.

There's still water getting cold in my radiator. Ah heavens it's not instead of for awhile yet. Relax and enjoy the sunshine out on your patio Mom. Don't crowd my mind with arid-bells and tin-ted yet!!

Confidently that I'm worried! When I think of it, my mother is pretty close in her forecasts of weather situations.

If there's a thunderstorm coming, she knows two days in advance. Don't ask me how it may be her arthritis, or her sense of cloud formation or some other vital indication. I just don't know. I do know it's going to hail, her built in barometer registers the hail pitch, and she sounds like the alert.

You know there's a possibility my mother's been surveying the sky again for signs of snow and sleet - and has come up with some chilly news in regard to weather, and this deduction has triggered this sudden concern for Christmas shopping.

If this is the case, it won't hurt me to put antiferre in my radiator, and change to lighter all in my crack case!!

OK Mom you win. I'll give Christmas a thought but can't we put off the shopping till after Halloween?"

Fall lawn weed control

The fall is a good time to control weeds in your lawn because at this time of year you can use herbicides without so much worrying about them damaging nearby flowers or vegetables.

Arnold Steerman of Alberta Agriculture's weed control branch recommends 2,4-D amine for killing dandelions in your lawn. You should use it on a calm day when the temperature is 20 degrees C. or higher. At a lower temperature the herbicide may not be as well absorbed by the weeds. The best way of controlling chickweed and clover is to use a herbicide containing a mixture of 2,4-D and mecoprop. It should be applied when the temperature is above 20 degrees C.

If you have been plagued by snow mould in the spring of past years, you could use chlozox, mercuric chloride or quitoxene as a preventive measure. It should be applied just before the first snow.

Mr. Steerman recommends keeping on mowing your lawn in the fall as long as the grass is still growing. Long matted grass provides ideal conditions for disease. However, when cutting the lawn in the fall you should set the blades on the mower slightly higher than normal so that you do not leave the roots of the grass exposed to frost.

You should not fertilize your lawn at this time of year. It needs a chance to harden-off before winter, and you should reduce watering it. However, if the soil is very dry you should give the lawn one final soaking just before freeze-up.

Feed grain policy changes

AGRI - INSIGHT

by Alberta Wheat Pool

Canada's feed grain policy changed on August 1, 1976. Four modifications to the policy involve the method of pricing domestic feed grains, reductions in feed freight assistance, new funding for part of the feed and livestock industries and re-location of feed grain reserve stocks. Designed to overcome feed grain marketing problems, the changes should allow grain producers to maintain their share of domestic feed grain markets and at the same time permit feeders to buy grain more competitively with U.S. feeders.

The method of pricing domestic feed grains is the major change. Rather than priced in relation to the export market, feed wheat, oats and barley are now offered for sale by the Canadian Wheat Board at prices competitive with U.S. corn imports. The Board's domestic selling prices are adjusted by changes in the ratio of soybean meal and corn prices to compensate for the difference in feeding values. Livestock Nutritionists have computed the feed value of wheat, oats and barley compared to corn, for various soybean meal - corn price ratios. Wheat, oats and barley are all higher in protein but lower in energy than corn. Soybean meal is also higher in protein but lower in energy than corn. Soybean meal is also higher in protein but lower in energy than corn.

The open market for feed grains continues to function as in the past in late crop years, but the Wheat Board also offers feed grains for sale each day, based on a Thunder Bay storage position. For No. 1 feed barley, the Board's Lakehead price is based on the price of U.S. corn at Montreal adjusted for its comparative feeding value (determined from the soybean meal - corn price ratio) less the freight and handling costs between Montreal and Thunder Bay. Is an example. If the price of U.S. corn at Montreal is $12.50/bushel and soybean meal is $21.00/ton, the soybean meal - corn price ratio is 1.68. That is, soybean meal is 1.68 times the price of corn. At this price ratio, the feeding value of barley is calculated to be 92.5% of corn. Therefore the price of barley at Montreal would be $11.75/bushel or $2.62/bushel. Deducting 27 cents for freight and handling between Montreal and Thunder Bay, puts the Wheat Board's Lakehead offering price at $2.39/bushel.

A central Alberta feeder is able to purchase feed barley at this price less the Crow's Nest freight rate to his location and an allowance for dockage. In this example, the feeders price at this local elevator might be about $2.30/bushel.

Feeders in central Quebec are able to buy the same feed barley for $2.29 at Thunder Bay, plus the 27 cents for freight and handling to Montreal and additional freight to their location less the applicable feed freight assistance.

Their price would be approximately $2.59/bushel.

A second modification to the feed grain policy was a reduction in feed freight assistance. Rates of feed freight assistance to B.C. were reduced by $1.00 per ton and rates of less than $6.00 per ton to Ontario and western Quebec were eliminated. Most other rates in Ontario and western Quebec were reduced by $6.00 per ton. Rates in central Quebec were scaled down to prevent backhauls but freight assistance to eastern Quebec and the Atlantic provinces was not changed.

These reductions in feed freight assistance will save the federal government $11 million annually. For the next five years, the money will fund programs to improve feed grain production and marketing in the regions where the freight assistance was reduced. This was the third major change in the feed grain policy.

Finally, the 10 million bushel reserve stock of feed grains maintained in Thunder Bay terminals for the last two years, will be reduced. Most of these reserves, kept for eastern domestic feed users in case of transportation problems from the prairies, will be moved further east to facilities near the livestock feeding areas.

Benefits of the policy changes mainly accrue to feeders in both the east and west. For grain producers, a dependable domestic feed grain market is retained, but the Wheat Board must sell in Canada at corn related prices, even if export prices are better.

Reaping the Damage of War: Alberta is making a tangible contribution to repelling war-damaged hillbills in the Republic of Korea. A re-education program has been planned for Canadian conscripted seedlings in war-torn-over areas. Women in Agriculture: Increasing number of women are choosing agriculture as a profession. Women graduates from degree agriculture programs account for 15 per cent of grads in Alberta, 10 per cent in Saskatchewan, and 20 per cent in Manitoba.

The northern areas of Alberta produce over 100 different varieties of grass and legume seeds, contributing more than half of all Canadian exports of forage seeds.

Export marketing of Alberta's agricultural products is of prime importance, with the province's small population and limited food consumption. Present and potential markets are constantly being scrutinized by marketing specialists.

World demands for an ever-increasing variety of agricultural commodities are met by Alberta farmers who diversify their production, add new crops or alter existing ones by changing varieties. Rapeseed, for example, was virtually unknown to Alberta farmers twenty years ago. In 1975 rapeseed production exceeded 27 million bushels.

Alberta-produced wheat, which is sold through the Canadian Wheat Board to more than forty countries, has a reputation for high quality.

Agriculture Week

October 3rd to 9th

The Flagstaff area is well aware of our dependency on the agricultural industry.

Towns and villages have been arrived to provide services to the farm community, and as the farmer prospers, so do the others in the area.

Agriculture today, however, is a very diverse industry. It is no longer to graze the sole commodity contained among farm products, just as complex as this business of farming.

During Agricultural Week from October 3 to 9 the contribution of the agricultural producer is recognized across the province. Here is something of what farming is all about.

Agricultural land is one of Alberta's great resources. Nearly 16 million acres are utilized in crops and livestock production with approximately 28 million acres classified as cultivated. A further 22 million acres could be brought under cultivation. It is estimated.

Export marketing of Alberta's agricultural products is of prime importance, with the province's small population and limited food consumption. Present and potential markets are constantly being scrutinized by marketing specialists.

World demands for an ever-increasing variety of agricultural commodities are met by Alberta farmers who diversify their production, add new crops or alter existing ones by changing varieties. Rapeseed, for example, was virtually unknown to Alberta farmers twenty years ago. In 1975 rapeseed production exceeded 27 million bushels.

market for reputable dairy and beef animals and semen. Several thousand head of live dairy and beef cattle as well as millions of dollars worth of semen were purchased from Alberta's cattle producers during 1975.

Milk processing is a highly developed industry in Alberta. Approximately 56 per cent of the total milk production is used in the manufacturing of dairy products. Of the milk used for manufacturing, 62 per cent is used in the production of creamery butter, 13 per cent for cheese processing and 25 per cent for the manufacture of concentrated milk and ice cream milk.

Alberta's honey production currently averages 18 million pounds or 48 per cent of the annual Canadian production. The province's honey is light coloured and has a delicate and suitable flavour.

systems through improved breeding and feeding techniques.

CATTLE FEEDING UP Specialized livestock feeding operations in Alberta continue to require extensive feed grain. This year Alberta farmers anticipate producing over 250 million bushels of barley, oats and mixed grain. Grain producers in Alberta seeded more corn and barley than were seeded in any other Canadian province, a total of more than 8.5 million acres.

Alberta producers continue to increase wheat production in response to demands for high quality spring and summer wheats. Wheat acreage for 1976 jumped to 5.7 million acres with total production expected to exceed 140 million bushels.

For 1976, the total production accounts for only one-quarter of the annual wheat production in the world, a small and delicate balance of foreign sales.

Exports marketing of Alberta's agricultural products is of prime importance, with the province's small population and limited food consumption. Present and potential markets are constantly being scrutinized by marketing specialists.

August County meeting resumes

The second regular monthly meeting of the Council of the County of August was held on Tuesday, August 24th, 1976.

Countable Vandervoort met with Council and suggested setting a truck route through the county. Mr. Linn noted that S.R. 276 was in bad condition due to gravel trucks hauling over it and would have to be re-laid again before freeze-up. Condition of the township line from S.R. 276 to Highway 26 was also discussed briefly.

After further discussion on the condition of the township line, it was moved by Mr. Linn that a 75% road be placed on the township line north of Township 11, Ranges 11, 12 and 13, from S.R. 276 to Highway 26, at 7:00 a.m. Wednesday, August 25, 1976. Mr. Linn's motion was carried.

School has been back for a month now, and already it seems as though lunch is a problem. Here are a few ideas from Betty Birch - D.H.E. in Seattle.

SCHOOL LUNCHES - SANDWICHES

Sandwiches always seem to be most difficult part of lunches. Unless you have someone who will eat nothing but peanut butter sandwiches, trying to keep something different in the lunch box can be a real headache. Kids usually want some variety. Grilling the same thing every day can really get you down.

One way of making sandwiches different is to vary the bread. Use rye, whole wheat, cracked wheat, brown, cheese or raisin. Or try muffins, baking powder biscuits, fruit bread, crackers or melba toast.

Many things can be done with the middle of a sandwich. Plain old roast beef can be dressed up with chili sauce, fruit chutney or relish.

LUNCHEON MEAT AND PINEAPPLE FILLING 1 - 12 oz. can luncheon meat, chopped.
1/2 c. drained crushed pineapple
1/2 tsp. chili powder
2 tbsp. salad dressing
Don't forget that if these

Bacon strips make good sandwiches. Some kids like it with peanut butter, jelly or tomato slices.

Chicken or turkey is good with dressing and cranberry sauce.

Whether sliced or chopped with pickles, mustard or mayonnaise are good.

Cheese is always a favorite and easy to carry in a lunch. It goes well with chopped egg, nuts or dried fruits, ham or tomato.

Some people like haked beans in sandwiches. It's even better combined with bacon.

Another easy sandwich filling is simply cold meat loaf or hamburger patties.

Perhaps if your kids are not afraid to try something different they might like these fillings.

APPLE CHEESE FILLING
1 c. grated cheddar cheese
1/2 c. chopped celery
1/2 c. Salad dressing
1/2 - 1 c. chopped raisins
1 c. finely diced apple
1/2 tsp. salt

seem a little complicated for 7:30 in the morning, sandwiches can always be made ahead of time and frozen. Booklets on lunches and sandwiches are available from my office.

Rapeseed Production Boars: Although rapeseed was virtually unknown in Alberta 20 years ago, there are now 15,000 growers in the province and current production exceeds 10 million barrels per year.

FINANCE IN POLITICAL PARTIES

Through the course of the legislative session there is a tremendous waste in the nature of the bills debated and passed. Quite naturally, however, debates will be focused on those bills that are controversial and considered by some to be negative to nature. In a similar vein the mass media contribute considerably more space to the discussion of controversial bills of legislation.

It is my view, however, that one of the best pieces of legislation to be passed in the first Session of the 20th Parliament was the Elections Expenses Act. That act allows any officially organized political party in Canada to receive from individuals in the public at large and the donor be credited with a receipt for tax deduction. The tax deduction scheme is very lucrative and offers ample encouragement for people to participate in the financial support of the party of their choice.

As an example, for amounts up to $100.00 a donor can deduct 75% of that amount directly off his tax payable. As an example, a person who donated $10.00 would receive a deduction of $7.50 from his tax payable meaning it would cost him only $2.50 to make a $10.00 donation to the party of his choice. Likewise, a person who donates $100.00 would receive a deduction of $75.00 so that he could contribute a one hundred dollar donation

O'Reilly and Helen Sutherland as co-hosts. Roll Call is to bring a guest.

Helen O'Reilly read a very amusing reading entitled "In Behalf of the Neurotic Mother".

Laurie Ashton won the raffle. Roy Bombough won the Lucky Tree Cup. Melba Cameron and Mary Bombough were co-hostesses and served a lovely lunch.

A heartfelt "Thankyou" to Mrs. Zimmerman who offered us her home for this meeting. We all enjoyed the trip to Camrose and the most pleasant afternoon.

TOWN & COUNTRY DRUG MART

Crs. Lien and Ness also reported on their meeting with the M.D. of Provost and representatives of the Battle River Regional Planning Commission regarding the study on a proposed subdivision zone in the Hardisty area within the M.D. of Provost.

The next steps to be taken by Council with regard to arriving at a decision of whether to zone the area in the study as country residential or not, was discussed at length. It was noted that if the area were zoned as country residential development of the land would not be compulsory.

After much discussion, it was moved by Crs. Ness that Notice of Intent to pass a by-law zoning areas B and C in the Hardisty area as proposed by the Battle River Regional Planning Commission study, as country residential, with a meeting to be held of the Planning Commission representatives, County Council, the Council of the M.D. of Provost, and all other interested parties, later on in the fall to examine and discuss the proposed by-law.

Cr. Lien advised that Mayor W. Johnson of the Council of the Town of Sedgewick had discussed with him the decision of County Council to have a by-law drawn up zoning Lake Sedgewick as a resort area. The Town Council were in favour of orderly development surrounding the lake and Mr. Johnson suggested a meeting to be held of both Councils and the Planning Commission to discuss the matter.

It was moved by Cr. Hogg that the Planning Commission and Department of Environment be asked to make a study of proposed development at Sedgewick Lake, and that they, along with the Council of the Town of Sedgewick, be invited to attend a meeting with County Council.

Reeve Blais reported briefly on the meeting of the Edmonton Union of M.D.'s & Counties held July 26, 1976. Amongst the items discussed were The Stray Animals Act and the fact that animals can no longer be translocated from the pond; and the proposed change in The Municipal Election Act to the same as the School Election Act for voting eligibility.

Cr. Buncney and Reeve Blais reported on the Agriculture Tour stating they looked at the deep plowing plots and the Reclamation Project. They also looked at an experimental afforestation project on the other side of the Battle River.

By-Law No. 215 for the purpose of prescribing a 30 mile per hour speed limit 1000 feet from the limits of the Village of Alliance to the said limits on S.R. 402, and authorizing the erection of speed zone signs to designate the area as prescribed, was presented, given three readings and carried.

Proposed amendments to the Code to be by the A.M.A. received from the Association were read and it was noted the amendments had been approved by the A.M.A. committee as well.

Lengthy discussions ensued regarding the proposed amendments.

Harold Hogg, Road Official Foreman, entered the meeting to discuss resurfacing being done in Division 7. He advised that 800 yds. of patching material is being stockpiled in the Daysland Division 7, leaving the Strone stockpile as is.

Work to be done in Division 6 was discussed and Mr. Hogg advised both patching crews were busy. Mr. Hogg was informed of the road being placed on the township line in Division 6 until his crew could patch it up.

Repair of grades in Division 2 and 4 were also discussed briefly.

Reeve Blais informed Mr. Hogg of the proposed transfer of $5000.00 to the Park Road from the road grant for S.R. 801 and the work on the two roads was discussed briefly.

Type of oil to be used was discussed and it was generally agreed to use SC 70.

The patching crew are to do the Strone Road after completion of patching the Park Road.

Mr. Hogg was requested not to level the Hardisty pit until further testing for gravel was done and he stated the testing could be done when it was too wet to oil.

Hydraulic motor for the conveyor has not yet been ordered and no further work has been received on the radius for the communication system.

It was agreed that the Hayco moving truck should also be equipped with a two-way radio.

Correspondence received from Alberta Environment, Water Resources Management Division, regarding a proposed drainage project for the SE 4-14-16-W4 M. was read and discussed.

The letter requested the County of Flagstaff to breach, remove or install culverts in the abandoned road grade blocking the water on NW 31-42-14-W4.

After discussion, it was agreed that the abandoned road be cut and the owner of the quarter section advised when this is to be done so that he may install a culvert if he so wishes.

Applications received from the Battle River Regional Planning Commission to subdivide a 5.7 acre parcel out of the SE 24-15-16-W4; a 20 acre parcel out of the E 1/4 of 12-14-16-W4 and a 5 acre parcel west of NW 7-13-16-W4 and the subdivision of SE 24-14-16-W4 and SW 41-14-16-W4 were discussed and approval given, with some conditions made.

Correspondence received from the Department of National Defence advised that a long range reconnaissance patrol training program will be conducted through the County of Flagstaff during September and October.

Request for permission to cross County roads was approved, provided any damage to the ditches was the responsibility of the Department of National Defence.

Date for the 1976 Organizational Meeting was discussed and set for October 21, 1976 at 8:00 a.m.

Celebrates 91st birthday

On Tuesday, Oct. 6th, 1976, Mrs. Bezie Black celebrated her 91st birthday at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, David and his May Black in Sedgewick.

She was born in Essex, England on Oct. 5, 1885, coming to Alberta with her husband and young son David in April 1912 as a C.P.R. settler. They farmed 5 1/2 miles south of Lougheed where she lived until Aug. 1972, when she went to Killam Auxiliary Hospital where she resides.

Funds for hospital

Kevin Peterson, Premier Peter Lougheed has announced an $84.4 million expansion of the aging University of Alberta Hospital in Edmonton that he predicts will make Alberta into Canada's leader in medical research.

The commitment, which could amount to a $125 million total rebuilding of the facility after 1980, represents the government's long-promised medical research program for the Heritage Fund's capital projects division.

Over the next four years, the initial 1984-85 will house extensive new facilities for medical training, practical study of disease and trials at treating patients without confining them.

Mr. Lougheed said the development, to be called Alberta Health Sciences Centre, will become a focal point "for both Canadian and world medical scholars who will maintain potential for quality care improvement."

"The centre will give Alberta the lead in health care research in this country at a time when throughout Canada concern has been expressed over the degree of financial support for health care."

New buildings will provide up-to-date diagnostic facilities, operating theatres, laboratories, education services and emergency care.

Old U of A Hospital buildings, which date back as far as 1912 and 1929, will be gradually demolished. Hospitals Minister Gordon Minns said renewing existing structures was rejected as too expensive. The complex will provide referral services and a growing ground for new procedures, technology and clinical methods to assist all Alberta hospitals in improving standards.

The plan will be submitted to the Legislature this fall as part of the government's first bill setting out uses for the Heritage Fund's capital projects division, the only section that the House must endorse in advance.

Mr. Minns maintains the project is consistent with current policy of tightly restraining growth of Alberta's hospital network while shifting the system's emphasis off high-cost bed care.

A key feature of the new centre will be a major "ambulatory care" facility, an outpatient clinic, to treat patients but not house them overnight in hospital at great public expense.

Mr. Minns said the result will be an actual decrease in the total number of acute care beds across the Alberta hospital system.

"We want to see how first-rate care can be provided without admitting people directly into hospitals."

The first capital projects bill is also expected to launch a 16-year, $200 million southern Alberta irrigation development new provincial parks and a science and industry research plant headquarters in Calgary.

COME ALIVE

Life in common

We do not live isolated from another. Our life is lived in common and this is one of the most inescapable elements of our existence. Man cannot exist without his fellows. He could not speak or think or love otherwise. He could not even survive his birth. Society is a fabric of personal relationships expressed through mutual confidence and love.

Such is our existence along with others. But it is also along with the things of this world. From our very first cry we make contact — laughing, grasping, feeding, playing. We work at things and build, we calculate, ponder and achieve. Man fits his life with efforts to change the world, whether he is washing dishes or building rockets. But it is not meaningless pastime. It is a joyful task. A man provides a home for his family and his neighbors. He gives his life to work together to construct an environment wherein a child can find security.

What we do as a family we also work for as a nation and indeed on a universal scale, striving always to make the world human and livable, to master it by our own silver, we grow and become men through our work.

The third element of our existence is that we ourselves form part of the material world. We seem to be made of the material at the earth and planets and animals around us. The fibres of our being are so much part of the universe that we cannot think or make a decision without the pressures at work in our brains, without the matter of this world. This is not a limitation. It is the way we are and it is our glory.

On the evening of Wednesday, September 15 the August amateur Hobbyists of Flagstaff met in the Sedgewick United Church Hall. There were 22 guests.

The President, Mr. R. Patterson chaired a short business meeting.

An apple head doll and a collage made from natural objects gathered in the Northwinds were on view. Mr. J.H. Pettigrew spoke briefly on some impressions and experiences of his trip home to New Zealand and this past summer. There was a rare assortment of slides which Mr. J.H. Pettigrew took a number of years ago and followed up with some very interesting slides of his own. A most enjoyable program was completed with a delicious lunch and social hour.

The next Hobby Meeting will be on Wednesday, October 20 at 8:00 p.m. in Sedgewick United Church Hall. Everyone welcome.

Although most people don't need to supplement their diets, vitamins and minerals may be beneficial for:

—women who are pregnant or breastfeeding;

—those who are growing very rapidly;

—those people who are ill or recovering from illness;

—those who are eating foods from all food groups;

—people who aren't able to get the necessary nutrients while travelling.

If you do use vitamins and mineral supplements, remember:

1. Vitamins and mineral supplements are classified as drugs under Food and Drug Regulations. As with all drugs, it is a good idea to check with your doctor before taking these pills.

2. They must carry an expiration date on the label. The product should be bought well ahead of the date and used up fairly soon.

3. Supplements should be stored away from excessive heat, light and moisture to retain their potency.

4. Minimum and maximum levels of vitamins and minerals are allowed in supplements. Lower minimums are established for children.

5. If a product contains more than the maximum normally allowed, it should be labelled "For Therapeutic Use Only". Such products should not be purchased unless prescribed by a doctor.

6. An excess of vitamins can be harmful. In excess, vitamins A and D can be detrimental to health and if a supplement contains more than certain levels (10,000 IU for vitamin A and 1000 IU for vitamin D) then a prescription is required.

Remember that vitamins and mineral pills are not needed by the general population. Consider what you are eating and whether you and your family cannot get the nutrients in your general diet before purchasing supplements.

Periodically, following the taking of a new population census, federal and provincial governments redistribute their constituency boundaries. This process is often the source of considerable anguish for some incumbent members of Parliament and the redistribution, which is prescribed to adjust for population increases and shifts since the last census, often causes two or more elected members of the same party to be in a situation of conflict. However, that is one of the risks of the occupation and ought to be viewed with a mature and open mind. As important as it may be, that specific issue is not the concern of this particular column.

What is occupying my mind and causing considerable worry is the fact that Parliament is both growing larger in size and shifting heavily towards an urban emphasis. Those who defend that the bulk of the representation ought to come from the larger cities cling to the long established principle of representation by population. That is a principle that appears at first glance to defend the very roots of democracy. Keeping in touch

Periodically, following the taking of a new population census, federal and provincial governments redistribute their constituency boundaries. This process is often the source of considerable anguish for some incumbent members of Parliament and the redistribution, which is prescribed to adjust for population increases and shifts since the last census, often causes two or more elected members of the same party to be in a situation of conflict. However, that is one of the risks of the occupation and ought to be viewed with a mature and open mind. As important as it may be, that specific issue is not the concern of this particular column.

What is occupying my mind and causing considerable worry is the fact that Parliament is both growing larger in size and shifting heavily towards an urban emphasis. Those who defend that the bulk of the representation ought to come from the larger cities cling to the long established principle of representation by population. That is a principle that appears at first glance to defend the very roots of democracy. In my opinion, however, the times and conditions of this nation have so changed that a new formula ought to be considered. When "representation by population" was first brought about at the time of Confederation, Canada was 95 per cent rural in population.

The principle of representation by population, not only allowed for human numbers but automatically diversified the representation to the various regions of the nation.

The Laidlaw Report on Population Projections predicts that the present 28.8 per cent of Canada's population will live in only five cities. If the predicted "concentration by population" remains unchanged, then in just 24 years 85 per cent of the members of Parliament will be from those five cities. At the present time the city of Toronto has 22 members of Parliament and the Province of Alberta only 18. Likewise, the cities of Toronto and Montreal combined have more members of Parliament than the total of the three Prairie Provinces and four Territories.

I can appreciate that all Canadians want to have a chance by which they may register their opinions with Parliament. None the less, after two years experience in Parliament, I am fully convinced that those M.P.s who represent larger populations are not burdened with a greater number of issues than we in the more sparsely populated areas. The only difference is that M.P.s from larger populations bear those issues with greater frequency. The answer to that problem is simple: provide the smaller members with a larger staff.

Another major concern about the growth in Parliamentary members is that it degrades the quality of the work of members of Parliament are doubled then it is only natural that each member's opportunity to participate is diminished in half. He will be only half as likely to get recognized for asking questions during Question Period. Likewise, his opportunity to speak on debates will be diminished. Canada has gradually, since Confederation, moved from about 30 members of Parliament to the present 286. After the next redistribution there will be 322. Presently Great Britain has more than 400 M.P.s and with a fixed number of hours in the day one can certainly recognize the futility that a back-brother in such a large Parliament must feel. Large Parliaments by their very size destroy the Parliamentary process and replace it with government by cabinet.

The British Parliament is now so large that there are not enough seats for all the members in the House of Commons to have a vote in which the members must file by the speaker indicating their vote rather than having from their desks. Moreover, most studies indicate that larger groups are less effective in decision making than smaller groups.

As for myself, I know that I must be an active participant for the process to capture and retain my interest and energy. I would feel despondent if I were greatly restricted in the number of questions I could ask or speeches I could deliver. It is, therefore, my firm view that enlarging the size of Parliament ensures that we do not keep in touch with the various regions of the nation but rather, locks us into a system of government by cabinet. In my judgment, that is a destructive course of action.

Grain marketing in France Australia and Argentina

AGRI - INSIGHT
by G.B. Sargent

The five major wheat exporting nations of the world all utilize different systems for marketing their grains. Canada's combination of Board and open marketing and the American system of open marketing are often discussed.

Wheat, Australia's largest grain crop, is bought and sold solely by the Australian Wheat Board. The other major grain, barley, is marketed by state barley boards or producer organizations.

Except for local sales and seed requirements, producers sell all their wheat to the Australian Wheat Board. The Board uses initial and final payments and a price pooling system in its operations. The Board handles all domestic sales to flour mills, feed mills, grain merchants and exporters.

Export sales are accomplished in two ways. The Australian Wheat Board either sells directly to foreign governments or to grain trading companies. If a grain trader develops a new market for Australian wheat, the Board may grant exclusive sales rights to the trader until the market is established.

The Wheat Board does not conduct direct sales negotiations with the Japanese Food Agency. Since Japanese importing companies act as agents for the Food Agency, the Australian Wheat Board uses international grain traders as its export agents. Imported to the United States on behalf of the Food Agency and exporters operate on behalf of the Wheat Board.

State barley boards or producer organizations are responsible for exporting barley. International grain companies are used as sales agents.

France

As a member of the European Community (E.C.), France exports wheat firstly to other member countries and secondly to world markets. Although the E.C. is not self-sufficient in grain production, France produces more soft wheat than is required.

The European Community has a complex agricultural policy which normally pays producers more than the world market value for their wheat.

For wheat exports to non-member countries, the E.C. pays an export subsidy to cover the difference between domestic wheat prices and world prices. International grain trading companies generally handle 90% of E.C. grain exports. Under a tendering system, trading companies bid for the amount of subsidy to be applied to a particular grain shipment. Once a bid is accepted, an export license is issued for the sale. The subsidy is paid when the grain reaches its destination.

If world grain prices rise above the Community's domestic price, an export levy is added to the E.C.'s price.

Argentina

Argentina's National Grain Board is the only market for producer's wheat, corn and sorghum. The Board is an instrument of government policy and has been paying producers about 1/3 of the world grain market price. Sales to millers are at prices even less than those paid to producers. On the international market, the National Grain Board sells directly to foreign governments, tender bids or negotiates sales with buyers' agents. Only Argentine organizations are permitted to submit bids or negotiate grain sales with the Board on behalf of foreign buyers. Often these buyers are the large international grain trading companies. Under the tendering system, the Argentine organizations receive a commission from the Board if its bid is accepted.

Five distinctive marketing systems are used by the major wheat exporting countries. All involve the international grain trading companies.

Memory's strings

Doris M. Saunders

The old, red-plush string bag was in its usual place in my Fibber Magre's closet. I dumped its contents out on the table and as I searched for the string, right to the my parcel I picked up the conglomeration piece by piece.

Here was a scrap of white canvas. How did it get there? Oh, yes I remember. One summer we made camp stools to take on our holidays. I was the saving kind, always thinking it will come in handy some day.

Here too, was the fishing line I picked up beside a fast flowing river and carefully rolled as a piece of driftwood. It also might come in handy some day. Tired of my poor luck, I panned for gold. Glory be! I actually found a few flakes, a thrill not to be forgotten.

A pair of pink corset strings. How long had they been there? They had come off my maternity garment worn before our first born arrived. The strings could be loosened as the figure blossomed. Why on earth had I saved them?

A once-white pair of skate laces took my mind wandering back to the skating seasons our girls had enjoyed and the thrill of the skating carnivals with costumes, lights, music and excited giggles. Oh, for those days!

A piece of soft leather shoe lace to tie meecassins caught my eye. Our eldest daughter had worn them one winter but my mind went far back to the days when we were nothing but meecassins filled with several heavy pair of socks to try and keep our feet warm as we rode to school on horseback. Even they didn't keep feet warm in twenty below weather and we suffered from chilblains when our feet were warmed up. Oh, how well I remembered sure swollen but itchy feet of those long gone days.

I picked up a leather strap from a pair of sandals. Oh, yes the other one was holding the playhouse key. That key too, had its memories. Our youngest daughter and her cousin locked themselves in the playhouse and then for some reason best known to themselves pushed the key out the hole in the storm window. To their dismay it went too far and they were really locked in.

It had been raining for a day when my daughter inquired if I thought rain could come in a broken window. "How did the window get broken?" I asked.

"Well — er, we threw a chair through it."

Oh, here was a modern heavy nylon string. That would do. I must get that parcel off or my grandson won't have his birthday gift. I quickly gathered up the rest of my memorabilia and stored them in the old, plush string bag and slammed the door hurriedly on my Fibber Magre's cupboard.

QUESTION: How much good does a dose of antibiotics do for a sick steer that seems to be off feed and acts like it has shipping fever? D. Carter, Canmore.

ANSWER: In the first place, what is wrong with the steer? If it is a viral infection the antibiotics are not affecting the virus but are affecting the secondary infections. If it is overeating or has some other disorder, antibiotics won't help. In general, they should be used only when indicated for bacterial infections. What's wrong with getting a proper diagnosis from your local veterinarian?

QUESTION: What's the cause and prevention of acute bleeding in newborn piglets? Wallace Davidson, R.R. No. 1 Okstun, Canmore. My understanding is that the cause is not definite. It has been speculated that it is hereditary, but this has not been proven satisfactorily. Myotonia produced in mossy feed have been blamed, and could be the cause. Matter of fact, a large commercial feeding farm in B.C. experienced a similar problem three years ago. The cause in this case was definitely established as muddy feed.

REGION WORK PARTY — Sedgewick Cemetery was a beehive of activity last Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2 and 3 when a large number of volunteers erected fences and paved concrete for a new fence. The new fence will match the present fence on the north part of the cemetery, and will be joined with a large arched gate.

LETTERS—EDITOR

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is simply a letter about a dog. He was a special dog to me as he was bought as a Birthday gift by my son. He was a whirlwind of energy, overflowing with love and was starting to train up to a beautiful dog. He was still just a pup not yet a year old, but I can't realize his possibilities because someone poisoned him! Was I not?

My only consolation is that he died very quickly and at home.

But, whoever did this should share their conscience with those thoughts in mind, what if a child had gotten this deadly poison? Then you would have murder on your soul, which as far as I am concerned you have anyway!!!

SEDGEWICK COMMUNITY HALL

A number of oddities in vegetables have been reported this year. Here is a potato that closely resembled a lamb brought in by Jane Thompson last week.

SEDGEWICK NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Newman of Delta, B.C. are in town visiting her mother, Mrs. K. Johnson. While in the Press office, Mr. Newman had a short visit with his wife's nephew, Barry Nordstrom.

John Kells laid to rest

John Melvin Kells of Hardisty passed away suddenly September 21, 1976.

He was born January 1908, 1918 at his parents home in the Hardisty district. In July 1948 he was united in marriage to the late Mrs. M. Kells. This union four children were born. One son Douglas, three daughters, Dianne, Lynn and Lorraine.

John farmed in the Beehive district all his life. He was well thought of as a good friend and neighbor, with his social disposition and helping hand to one and all.

He leaves to mourn his loss, his loving wife Grace, one son Douglas and wife Cathy of Forestburg, one daughter Dianne of Edmonton and two daughters Lynn and Lorraine still at home. His mother Mrs. Little Kells resides at the Flaggstaff Lodge in Sedgewick. John leaves also three sisters Leona Kells of Provost, Vivian Wilkey of Camrose and Virginia Patterson of Cochrane and three brothers Leslie and wife Ruby of Blackhead, Norman and wife Laura of Cochrane and Ray and wife Betty of Hardisty. Surviving are also many nieces and nephews and a host of friends and relatives.

His father Robert Kells predeceased him in May of 1963. Funeral services were held in St. Paul's United Church, Hardisty, Friday, September 24th, 1976 at 2:00 p.m. with Rev. Jackson officiating. Organist was Mrs. Bea Hahn. The choir and congregation sang "He Leadeth Me" and Reverend Jackson closed the service by reading the "23rd Psalm".

The large crowd at the funeral represented the high esteem in which this man was held in the community.

Honorary pallbearers were Homer Elm, Roland Van Dewick, John Sherkoff and Lloyd McNamee. Active Pallbearers were Joe Beber, Carl Campbell, Orville Van Dewick, Pat Fisher, Mike Chomysien and Jim Kerkley.

Interment was made in the Hardisty Cemetery in the family plot with Fee and Sons in charge.

For over 30 years Canada Savings Bonds have been the most popular investment in Canada. Literally millions of Canadians have used Canada Savings Bonds as a way to build a solid financial base. They're simple, straightforward and easy to understand. They're a great way to save. Here's why:

Security.

Canada Savings Bonds are secure because they're backed by all the resources of Canada.

Income.

They pay good income, an average annual interest to maturity in 1985 of 9.13%. Each $100 bond begins with $5.50 interest the first year and then pays 9.13% interest for each of the remaining 8 years.

Flexibility.

They're flexible, because you can buy Canada Savings Bonds in various denominations, for cash or on instalments wherever you bank or invest. And they're callable anytime, at their full face value, plus current interest. This year, the purchase limit has been set at $15,000.

Two Kinds.

A. Fully registered bonds. These bonds are registered as both principal and interest. The interest is sent to you automatically by cheque each year on November 1st. They are available in denominations of $500, $1,000 and $5,000.

B. Coupon bonds. These bonds are registered as to principal and have annual interest coupons payable to bearer. They are available in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000.

GREEN ACRES

RON TESTING:

For less than 5 cents an acre a farmer may know how much fertilizer and what kind to apply to his fields for next year's crop.

Who Should Soil Test?

Every farmer who utilizes his fields for the production of grain, alfalfa or forage, both summer and winter, should be as well as he can and possibly should be tested.

When Should You Test?

Soil tests should not be taken from problem areas and used to determine recommendations for the whole field. Samples should be taken from average representative areas of the whole field. The field should be about 50 acres or less, and of the same management. (i.e. summerfallow or stubble, not a mixture.) If problem areas exist within the field, these should be sampled separately so the problem may be defined. Samples for the field should not be taken from the slopes or top of hills only.

The whole field should be represented in the sample.

When Should One Test?

Soil temperatures are low enough now that very little change will occur in nutrient levels between now and next spring. Testing all the samples may mean that the sampling will be future, when one gets to it. Sampling frozen ground is not recommended as it usually is not representative.

What Should One Test?

All fields intended for next spring's planting. In sampling, one is looking for essential nutrients like Nitrogen, Phosphorus and Potassium. If problem samples have never been taken, sampling to find out what is below the 8" depth is a good idea. 6-8, 6-12, and 12-24 are the 4 most common levels of sampling. Hayland and pastures should also be sampled to determine nutrient levels and requirements.

How To Test

As already mentioned, samples should be representative. The best way I have found to take samples is as follows:

1. Obtain a sampling tool, which can take samples to the desired depth.
2. Take 25-25 samples from a field no larger than 50-60 acres, and place in a 5-gallon bucket. (use a 1/2 ton and ride on the tailgate. It sure saves the legs and back.)
3. Mix samples well in tub and take out a representative sample 1/2 in increments.
4. Dry sample (immediately) on newspaper in dry place, until all water or direct sunlight (dried samples in warm truck or house give incorrect results when dried later.)
5. Take representative sample from dry soil and fill soil sample box.
6. Submit box, information sheet, (completed) and $2.00 sample fee to Soil and Feed Testing Lab.

Kits are available from our office free of charge.

One last thing, when you get your results back, study them. If you need help, please call.

Daysland friendship tea

The U.C.W. meeting was held October 7th in the United Church social room. The President Jean Hamilton opened the meeting with a greeting. Anna Hogg read the Devotion. "What we can be thankful for." Dorothy McDevitt read the minutes of the last meeting and the correspondents. The roll call was answered by 22 members, 2 visitors and 54 hospital calls. Kay Brown read the Treasurers report and it was approved.

A motion was made to have a Friendship afternoon tea for the new people in town or country on October 26th or early in the charge. Come and get acquainted.

On Saturday, October 23rd the Fall Executive meeting will be held at New Norway. The program was given by Betty Koebel with contests by Angela Food Cakes for the best table. A number of pictures were also taken.

On Sunday October 24th ladies gathered at the Ukrainian Church basement for a farewell party for Mrs. Annie Siyura, who is leaving to stay to be married soon to the President Jean Hamilton. The President Jean Hamilton presented her with a gift of glasses from the U.C.W. and Phyllis Gahewik presented her with a necklace from the ladies on her circle which she had awarded with. Mrs. Armstrong gave a nice talk of how faithful Kay has been to the Church and U.C.W. They all sang for she is a jolly good member.

A lovely lunch was served by the Hostess Laura Graham and her helpers Margaret Graham and Emily Hill. Jean Hamilton brought a decorated Angel Food Cake for the best table. A number of pictures were also taken.

at the Senior Citizens home at Mendota, Alberta.

Mrs. Ruth Fairbank of Vancouver B.C. has been visiting her sister Mrs. Margaret Berry for the last two weeks. Mrs. Maize Fraser is visiting her mother in Manitoba who is very sick.

Mrs. Anna Hogg spent ten days in Edmonton at the home of her daughter Mrs. Alice Thomson.

Mrs. Fred Schmidt spent several days visiting relatives in Edmonton, Leduc and Wetaskiwin.

C.P.L. Bernice Makarowski from the Air Force Base at Summerside, Prince Edward Island was a recent visitor with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Dave Makarowski. While here he also visited his Grandmother, Mrs. Ida Larson of Camrose and his brother Ron at Hay Lakes.

Let's talk it over with Gordon

My father used to tell me that when a certain neighbor in our district finished combining, you could be pretty sure that all the harvesting in Alberta was complete and this year year M.A. would qualify for being the last farmer in East Central Alberta for putting away his combine. Any way we finally wrapped it up last Friday evening and now faced with falling wheat prices. I recall only last Spring when the Federal Minister responsible for the Wheat Board was advocating increasing wheat acreages. It would seem to a great many people that when the Fed. Government does as well as our own make a recommendation a farmer is usually better off doing the exact opposite.

Unfortunately for the first time we were unable to attend the Annual Banquet meeting of the Camrose and District Assoc. for the Mentally Retarded. And also due to an all day Caucus meeting in Edmonton, to be at the Victoria and Grey Trust Company Official Opening. I think its pretty significant when a mayor of Eastern Financial company opens his first office in Western Canada, not in Edmonton or Calgary but here in Camrose. However I was able to bring greetings to a Banquet honoring the Camrose Merchants the Western Major Football Champions and also was called upon to officially judge and weigh-in a cabbage growing contest sponsored by the East side Horticultural Society of Camrose. By the way, the heaviest cabbage entered was 19 1/2 lbs. owned by E. Stokker and the lightest entered by B. Bailey at 2 lbs. even.

Someday this coming week I will be delivering a cheque to Roger Milbrink, Chairman of the Camrose Overture Series, a cheque in the amount of $2,765.00 from Alberta Culture as the Governments Contribution to the 1975/76 Camrose Concert Series. And in my own home town of New Norway, to Mayor John Kvill a Street Improvement Grant of $12,254.00. There is a whole summer will give me back for the Government program for giving grants for cemeteries, water wells, Senior Citizens Home improvement, Drop-in Centres, Child Shelters, Community Halls, Libraries, Ag. Societies Recreation etc. But one program I will defer to my dist. day is the Street Improvement Grant to assist town and village councils to improve local conditions. I know of no single grant that has done more to improve the quality of life in Albertas smaller communities.

As to the number of other grants, I think the best and fairest way to evaluate is to ask the individual, group or organization that are directly involved in spending of the grant monies, their opinion as to their worthiness. By the way a contract has been let for reconstruction of Highway 13. More information on this contract next week. Hope you have a good weekend.

Fairy Rings

by Ruth Pearce

Carol McDermott has "fairy rings" for her little girls. They must be fair sized because what they've done is not so small matter. The whole idea has been completely appreciated by them, leaving big gaps in the lawn.

I'm afraid the situation is getting completely out of hand and if they have gotten that bad, then I'm afraid that there is very little hope for a cure for such an advanced problem.

Carol, I am under the impression, has been applying her own theory in regard to the cure for her formidable fairy rings. She's been touring the country soliciting donors to assist her in this arduous task of extermination. So far she has succeeded only to aggravate the situation by administering this application. Perhaps there is not enough donors or perhaps not the essential quality of ingredients to efficiently and effectively eradicate her dreadful "fairy rings." At any rate, her solution has not been the answer to this particular hazard.

We as concerned citizens should all sit back and deliberate on this grave problem because I'm afraid the Cliff McDermott's lawn soon will become a disaster area.

I suggest that anyone with a special cure for fairy rings communicate the formula to poor Carol for her immediate application.

Mrs. Marilyn Gustafson and family and Ron went to her

Services held for Charlie Gunn

Charlie was born Rapid City, South Dakota on May 11, 1902 and passed away at his farm home in New Fish Creek, on Sept. 14, 1976 at the age of 74 years.

Charlie came to the West-ern, Alberta area, with his parents in 1906. There he helped run the family Livery Stable and also helped in the family store. A few years later they moved to Hardisty and ran the Livery Stable there, and he rode pony express for the payroll for the railroad built from Hardisty to the Sask. border. Around this time he dug the basement for one of the schools at Hardisty with horses and a sign across. He took out a homebased at Hardisty at this time.

Sept. 3, 1941 he joined the Royal North West Mounted Police, Regina, Sask. He was assigned to the North Battleford & Lloydminster areas. After he resigned from the Mounties, he went to Lacombe, Alberta and took over his brother Hugh's candy store, there he learned the fine art of making candy which he became well known for amongst his friends. One of his favorite was Boston Cream and he loved nothing better than having people in for a little pull. Around this time he met his wife Mabel Langrock and they were wed at Mission City, B.C. in 1947. After coming back to Alberta for a short time, they decided to go down to the U.S.A. Charlie worked their way to California and back again. Once again after arriving in Alberta, this time in Sounding Lake area, they settled on a homestead and had a few racing horses and also took them to the fairs and also made and sold homemade candy.

In 1928 they moved from Sounding Lake to High Prairie, for a short time, and then took a homestead in the Little Smoky Hills for a few years, while there he did alot of irrigating to get the family over the rough times.

In 1928 he took a homestead in the New Fish Creek area. Over the years he opened up his land. He helped to build on the school and the church. Charlie made one of the shingles for both buildings and both buildings are still standing to this day. During this time he did alot of trapping and then when the Alaska Highway was being built he was hired in the Dinosaur Country Ft. St. John B.C. area. After that he went to the High Prairie in the mid 40's and opened a candy store for a few years. Then he came back to the farm at New Fish Creek, where he stayed until his death. Charlie was a very active person, he drove his own car up all the time of his passing and his license had no convictions on it. He milked his cow daily and rode the hay mower and the binder all the fall for the harvest. Charlie will be missed by many, his funeral service was held in the Valleyview Jubilee Theatre at 7:00 p.m. on Sat. Sept. 18th, with Rev. Brian Parker officiating. His pallbearers were Ernie Kielegger, Bill Smith, Wilbur Bates, Gerald Grondin, Henry Bradley, Ken Marvotte, Charles Casket was covered with the Canadian flag and family floral wreath. Const. R. B. Cook of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police in full review order dress was Honor Guard. Joy Finlay played. What A Friend We Have in Jesus and Abide With Me, on the organ. Charlie was placed to rest in the Valleyview cemetery, with graveside prayers, followed by Const. R.B. Cook, stating while long legs were played.

Charlie leaves to mourn his passing, his wife, children, seven children and great grandchildren, sisters, nieces, nephews, many relatives and many friends.

holders located in the Forestburg Elementary School and of the work done on the boilers during the summer holiday period. The Provincial Boiler Inspectors have been asked to again inspect these boilers. Work will now commence by a boiler-fuel-water chemical treatment company to try and further dissolve scale in the boilers. Payment of $283.12 to Every-Ready Industrial Services Ltd. of Edmonton to clean the boilers was approved. The meeting was informed that Mr. W. Herdlick had resigned in July, however, a contract had been drawn up with him for the service and repair of typewriters and audiovisual equipment. The contract was approved. Direction was received from the School Buildings Board regarding the proposed renovation to the Industrial Arts room and Home Ec at Central High School. It was shown how a 20 x 40 ft. addition could be placed on the west end of the present I.A. room which would extend the I.A. area to the full length of the gymnasium. Building costs were discussed as well as improvements to other Industrial Arts rooms at Forestburg and Dayland.

Personal leave was discussed at length. It was decided that leave policy should be reviewed and the effective date of the revised policy be the start of the 1976-77 school year.

A discussion paper on enrolment, costs and educational services at the Galahad School was reviewed at this time. It was agreed that the Small School Study Group again become active in the Galahad area.

A change in method of payment was accepted from Mr. and Mrs. A. Cleveland at the April 7th School Committee meeting. The Clevelands wish to make payment of $25,000 on Sept. 1st, 1976 and $2,000 plus 10% interest no later than at the rate of $12.50 per trip.

Long Service Awards were discussed and J. Johnson suggested that the awards be similar to the ones presented last year and that the practice of a local member for the presenting it be continued. County employees eligible for these awards are H. Lasse, a teacher on staff at Heister for 19 years, D. Lang, a teacher at Heister School for 20 years, M. Blummen, a teacher on staff at Killam School for 21 years, W. Ziesel, Strone bus driver for 21 years, and H. Erickson, Killam bus driver for 21 years.

Correspondence from Mrs. Judy Neimark, A.S.T.A. Solicitor, discusses the communal use of schools and the areas of responsibility for serving alcoholic beverages to minors. The letter also discusses who is liable for injuries that may result during a community function. If the injuries are the result of a faulty or dangerous premises the County would be at fault, however, the sponsoring group is liable for injuries resulting from the activity.

The meeting was informed that the teachers at Strone and the trailer at Hardisty will not be required for the teaching staff. It was agreed that these be offered for rent to the general public.

The meeting adjourned at 8:25 p.m. The next meeting to be Wednesday, October 6th, 1976 commencing at 8:00 a.m.

Camrose firm accepts grant

An instant breakfast cereal plant in Camrose, has accepted a development grant of $23,841 under the Canada-Alta. Nutritive Processing Assistance Program.

Announcement of the offer to Byers Flour Mills Ltd. and Sunny Boy Ltd. in Camrose was made jointly by Marcel Louard, Federal Minister of Regional Economic Expansion and Marvin Moore, Alberta's Minister of Agriculture.

The cereal plant will employ six persons on a full and part-time basis.

The grant, provided under the Canada-Alberta Subsidy Agreement on nutritive processing, is based on a retroactive agreement between the company and the two levels of government. Size of the grant, which is shared equally by Dave and the Provincial Government, was calculated on a rate of 10 per cent of total capital requirements for the facility, estimated at $232,480.

The Nutritive Processing Assistance Agreement provides financial assistance to encourage the establishment, modernization and expansion of nutritive processing facilities in rural Alberta.

THE ANTI-INFLATION PROGRAM

Where we are and where we're going.

After one year, the anti-inflation program is doing what it set out to do.

The most important achievement has been the drop in the inflation rate. A year ago, the consumer prices were rising at a rate of 10.6%. By August 1976, that rate of increase had dropped to 6.2%. This fall some unavoidable increases in energy costs and municipal taxes will affect the rate of inflation. In spite of this, the first year target of an inflation rate of no more than 8% will be met.

Increases in all forms of income—wages, salaries, fees, profits, dividends—are also being successfully restrained. On the average, prices have gone up less than wages this year. This means that most Canadians can cope a bit better, we have more buying power than we had before the program began.

The goal of the second year of the anti-inflation program is to bring inflation down even further, to no more than 6%. This can be achieved only if increases in everything slow down together.

In our kind of market economy, prices have to be able to move up and down to some extent. But the anti-inflation program does put an effective restraint on prices by controlling profit margins. In the second year, the price and profit controls are being changed to make the rules simpler and to apply restraint more fairly among different companies. They also include important incentives to encourage the investments the country needs to make the economy grow and create new jobs for Canadians. New investment credits will make allowances for company profits re-invested to boost production and productivity.

In the area of wages and salaries, the second year Guidelines limit increases to 6% as a protection against price increases, with 2% more added as a share of national productivity.

This Guideline is designed to protect and improve the real income of working Canadians, while bringing down the rate of inflation.

All governments are restraining their expenditures. The federal government is limiting growth in its own spending to keep it in line with the overall growth of the Canadian economy. This means that every day hard choices must be made to limit new programs and trim old ones. These choices are painful. But they have to be made if the government is to restrain its costs and avoid contributing to inflation.

Nobody likes controls. Not the people whose private decisions are affected by them. And not the governments that have to enforce them. But controls were and are needed, to bring inflation down and to assure a growing economy. The program will be terminated by the end of 1976. Until it is ended, the government is committed to making sure the controls work hard to bring about a continuing reduction in the rate of inflation.

Inflation has to be cut down to protect our personal buying power, our savings and pensions, and jobs for Canadians. If last year's spiral of rising prices and incomes had continued, Canadian-made products would soon be unable to compete in world markets. Imports could easily undercut goods produced and sold here at home. It's especially important for us to keep our prices and costs competitive with the United States, and on both counts the U.S. is still doing better than we are. Finally, inflation also hurts investment. And when investment goes down, unemployment goes up.

After a year of controls, inflation has come down. Progress has been made, in protecting Canadian jobs and improving Canada's well-being. The success of the anti-inflation program so far has depended a great deal on the co-operation of many Canadians. With continued co-operation, we can all look forward to sharing a more prosperous and growing economy.

Sometimes a good business idea needs a friend.

Finding the capital to start a new business, or to expand the potential of an existing business is never a simple task. But when the regular financial institutions are not able to help, the ALBERTA OPPORTUNITY COMPANY is available. We aren't easy — but we do go further in loaning funds that can't be obtained elsewhere. The business must be well managed, and it's plans must be well researched as to market pricing, competition and other relevant matters. But given these conditions we're ready to listen seriously.

A major reason the ALBERTA OPPORTUNITY COMPANY was formed was to aid development in the province's smaller communities — and this remains an important objective. But most important, ALBERTA OPPORTUNITY COMPANY is formed on the principle that given the opportunity, Albertans need not take a back seat to anyone for resourcefulness, talent or imagination in the field of commercial enterprise.

Fall prov. session opens

The fall Legislature sitting has opened with a dramatic but largely symbolic refusal by the Conservative government to hand Ontario the lead in Canada's petrochemical industry on a platter.

In his annual "state-of-the-province" address, Premier Peter Lougheed served notice that Petrostar Ltd.'s Sarina Plant will not be an approved customer of the Alberta Petroleum Marketing Commission.

The firm applied for contracts to the commission a few weeks ago - two years after the province vehemently protested the Ontario location as it prepared Alberta's petrochemical policy.

Petrostar could consume 10 per cent of the province's crude oil reserves over its lifetime. The government continues to maintain it lacks a "strategic" development on Alberta's behalf.

The project, a four-company consortium including the federal government's Canada Development Corporation, may still wind up using Alberta oil.

The $250-million operation is being built with a capacity to refine 170,000 barrels of crude a day into basic building blocks of plastics.

Mr. Lougheed unveiled the decision in a review of the Alberta economy he concluded with warnings prosperity in precariousness and there must be "fundamental" shifts in development away from Central Canada.

The premier also warned

Ottawa faces a major challenge in the form of a balance of payments "crisis" comparable to Britain's already fall.

He said experts have lagged for two years, deficits from subsidizing oil prices below international levels will soar $2 billion a year by 1980 and companies are borrowing and investing abroad too much.

Government House leader Lou Hyndman has predicted the sitting's highlight will be the first Heritage Fund capital projects bill and the premier used his major address of the year mostly to restate positions.

After prolonged questioning by the opposition, Mr. Lougheed again rejected indefinitely municipalities' demands for a new share in provincial revenues to finance local services.

He pledged efforts to push Ottawa into seeking lowered international tariff walls against Alberta's fledgling petrochemical and agricultural processing industries.

Alluding to more than $1 million in failures racked up by the defunct Alberta Export Agency, he explained problems will be inevitable because food manufacturing and marketing is a high risk business.

He reiterated Alberta's economy is the strongest in Canada now but current prosperity and high levels of government services may last only 10 years unless the province's industrial base diversifies.

MADAM PRESIDENT - Ken Ince past president of Battle River Tourist Association transfers the association gavel to this year's president, Edna Palmer of Killam. The event took place at the tourist group's annual banquet and meeting in Camrose on Friday.

October 15th. Also named to the new office was Len Dutton as resolutions chairman.

Reports given at the meeting to a full house showed an impressive list of achievements in the past year. The tourist booths program showed a 67% increase of visitor registrations over the previous year. A total of 50,882 registered at the eleven booths in B.R.T.A.

Publicity and promotional programs have been reviewed and increased activity in this field will result in increased tourism in the following years. More emphasis is being placed on the winter activities potential of the area.

Constituency meet coming

by Henry Krueger, M.L.A.

The Sedgewick Constituency Commission is designated to be divided into five parts and become part of surrounding constituencies and has caused some concern.

A Commission Hearing, dealing with our Constituency, will be held in Camrose on October 20th, starting at 10:30 A.M. in the Courthouse. Submissions will be made to the Commission by groups and individuals at that time, and anyone interested should participate.

Apart from that, it has been a busy summer for me working with concerns of the area. Particularly active has been the area of hospitals and health care, in view of the fact that as a member of the Alberta Hospitals Services Commission, I have accompanied the Minister on visits and inspections of various hospitals and nursing homes around the province. I also represented the Minister, Mr. Minely, at a conference in Edmonton, New Brunswick, this fall.

I am actively supporting the development of two new hospitals in the Constituency; one for Camrose and one for Hardisty, and both of these applications are now well along. A fair amount of road construction and improvement has also been completed; specifically, completion of grading Highway 41.

The Legislature is now back in session and we expect to be here for about one month. Please feel free to call me at the Legislature if you have any concerns that I can help you with.

Lougheed lady 90 years

On Sunday, Oct. 10, the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Tweedy was the scene of a happy gathering, when Mrs. Margaret Tweedy was honored by her family on her 90th birthday.

The pioneer lady came to Lougheed on a settlers train with her husband and small daughter in 1904. They homesteaded thirteen miles north-east of Lougheed. Here they raised their family and lived for many years. Her husband passed away in 1923, but with the help of the family she continued to farm.

In later years she made her home in Sedgewick, Edmonton, Wainwright and Victoria.

At present she is in the Flagstaff Auxiliary Hospital and Nursing Home at Killam.

Nine of her children were present; the first three they have all been together with their mother since 1962. In all, thirty-seven family members and two guests enjoyed a lovely meal together and an afternoon of visiting.

The "Birthday Lady" received a beautiful corsage, a bouquet of flowers, many gifts and cards of congratulations and best wishes. She also received congratulatory scrolls from the Lions, Gov. Mr. Stelkhamer, and Premier Lougheed.

AN ILL WIND - The high winds of Oct. 13 and 14 resulted in considerable damage to such things as T.V. antennas. Other damage also resulted, but two of these were recorded by "The Press" camera.

A tractor with front end loader, shown above, was needed to hold up the front portion of the Simpson-Sears office in Killam when the wind boomed it from the building.

At Killam, Electric, metal strips were torn from the front of the building, resulting in extensive damage.

COME ALIVE...

Desire of our conscience

We spoke of our longing for happiness. But there is also our desire to be good. We know that we may not match at happiness at any time. If we did, it would not even be happiness. We wish to live well. A man may be in love with a woman, but it would mean misery for her husband and her children. It cannot be. Men put "goodness" where happiness. If they try really to be happy, we have a conscience.

All men believe and believe, know the voice of conscience. Efforts have often been made to reduce it to "moral intelligence" realities and to explain it. A natural inhibition has been suggested. Just as the instinct of self preservation (fear of death) keeps men within the bounds where life is possible, so, in its way, conscience keeps men from doing what elements play a part. They explain the application of conscience - why the boundary between good and evil is placed differently for various peoples or various men. There are, after all, great differences in human judgments of what conscience allows or forbids. But we all agree in placing the difference between good and bad on a deeper level than between useful and useless, pleasant or painful.

CHILDREN'S WINTER BOOTS

Winter boots for children are an essential purchase and one which can involve considerable choice and indecision. Snowboots come in overalls and pull-on over the shoe style. The best choice this year will be a different choice than was a good choice when the child was younger. Very confusing!

TODDLERS

Toddlers are just getting their footings, and have enough problems maneuvering without the added bulk of snowboots! However, since most toddlers get outdoors in winter and spring, snowboots are a necessity.

Most snowboots are waterproof, whether they are made from rubber, vinyl or nylon. Most are lined with a synthetic pile or cotton fiber.

For little ones, the rubber overboots with adjustable straps, and nylon boots are a good choice. The pile trim around the top helps keep snow out. They are relatively low priced and are readily available. The child's shoes provide stability and support for little feet. An added benefit is that the child wears the shoes rather than having to carry them.

This style is available up to size 2, which fits about an 8 year old.

Attractive and warm pull-on styles are also available for little children, but you do have to carry shoes along.

YOUNG CHILDREN

From about children's size 4, there are very few overboots. Skidboots, nylon and leather with separate felt liners, are popular and practical for children through to adults. They are for wearing overboots, and the felt liner does wear warm. They are quite water repellent too, for wet spring snow.

"Moon Boots" are a current "fashion." They resemble the bulky boots worn by astronauts on the moon. They are made of vinyl and nylon with fleece lining, and have red or fake laces. They, too, are pull on styles, and come in sizes from around 11 to adult. They are also quite warm and water repellent.

Pull-ons in dressier styles for girls are made of vinyl or leather with fleece lining. Leather is warmer and more expensive but not waterproof. They begin at about size 5 (to fit about an 4 year old).

Long haired pull-on boots are very fashionable, fairly expensive, and not too durable. They have a vinyl or rubber sole, long synthetic "hair" on the outside and fleece lining. The long pile becomes matted and soiled and is not easily cleaned.

Preschoolers are usually not too difficult to fit in practical, warm, waterproof snowboots. This situation usually changes at around school age, to the child wanting the same type of snowboots as his friends. Practically and mother's choice may not rate!

The new baby

"Marge."

My fuzzy mind struggled to awaken. I turned my head and through half-open eyes saw Dennis stooping beside my bed, clasping my hand between his. He had a very tender expression on his face.

"Marge, I saw her."

My mind focused on his words. "You didn't" I mumbled. "Yes, when they wheeled her into the nursery, I saw her. Marge - she is pretty. I thought all new-born babies were supposed to be red and wrinkled, but she's not. Her skin is smooth and pink."

I smiled up at him. His words were like a balm on my weary body. I felt I could sleep for days. Sleep - that's what I wanted now. I closed my eyes and did not hear him leave.

I opened my eyes. It was very quiet and it took a moment to remember where I was and to realize what I was doing there.

A short, white-haired nurse with a beaming face bustled into the room and a cheery

I couldn't think while the nurse was gone. I didn't know what to expect. I just waited. The nurse came back into the room and with a sense of about which she held the plank bundle she held wasn't quite the length of her hand to her elbow. She laid the sleeping baby beside me and left. I held my breath and didn't move. I couldn't take my eyes off that perfectly formed little face, the round chin, the tiny plump mouth, the wee button of a nose, the two half-circles of her closed eyes, the smooth hair, the fine black hair lying close to her head. How was right. She was pretty! It seemed I could not get my fill of looking. Tears welled up in my eyes and I tried to swallow the lump in my throat. I could not believe that she was mine. I took a couple of deep breaths to slow down my pounding heart.

At last I made a move. Tentatively, I reached out and touched a tiny little hand that was curled up into a ball. The hand jerked open. The reaction caught me by surprise and I laughed shakily. The eyes opened and seemed to be searching for the source of that sound. Such dark eyes. Could they really see me? Again I touched her hand and she curled it around my finger. I smiled. What a strong little grasp she had. Five pink fingers reaching out in a wee finger nail. I thought it was wonderful and a tear crept out of the corner of my eye and rolled down my cheek. This was my baby.

QUESTION: This week and what to do about it? Paul S. Hofer - Red Willow Colony, Stettler.

ANSWER: First of all, I'd suggest you contact your veterinarian and have him explain the problem and how to deal with it. Your veterinarian is much more qualified to answer a question that you posed. With my limited knowledge in this field, would like to relay a few pointers gleaned from practical experience taken to good operators in your field.

Acemia in cows has been diagnosed in herds which show weak or silent heat after calving. Blood chemistry reveals anemia, and here is where the professional services of your veterinarian are required. Possible causes of anemia include deficiency of protein, phosphorus, iron, copper, vitamins A or B and external and perhaps internal parasites. The veterinarian I am familiar with in the Edmonton area used injections of Vitamin B and iron dextran (twice more than one injection of iron). One veterinarian also used injectable copper in the form of copper glycinate.

An anemia mineral mix that could be used at the rate of 1 oz. per animal per day three weeks before calving and four after calving has been in wide use. You will have to consult your local veterinarian for the proper mixture and usage of this specially formulated mineral.

REXALL'S 66th ANNUAL (formerly 1c Sale)in KILLAM at BORTH TOWN & COUNTRY DRUGMART*Strome fire inquest*OIL SPILL, FIRE DEATHS JURY RAPS SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

A coroner's jury decided Tuesday that adequate safety precautions were not taken by the International Pipeline Ltd. in cleaning up an oil spill last March.

The decision was made at the inquest into the deaths of Nestor Horbachewsky, 36, of Beaumont, and Jerry Schan, 35, of Kerrobert, Sask.

The two men died as a result of burns suffered when a fire broke out at oil spill they were helping clean up near Killam.

Cleas Huchler, pipeline foreman said that a heavy snowstorm had interrupted the cleanup, which was resumed on March 12.

He said Mr. Horbachewsky and Mr. Schan were sent out in caterpillar tractors to clear an obstruction that was preventing oil from flowing towards the pumps. Once this was accomplished, they lifted their tractors nearby and walked to see how the oil was moving.

"I noticed a string of fire on top of the crude and hollow-ered as loud as I could, 'fire' The foreman also noticed flames on the drawer of Mr. Schan's tractor.

He said he saw Mr. Schan jump off his tractor and fall into a pool of oil. His clothes burst into flames. The foreman stopped the running man, pushed him into a sawbuck and tore him off top of him.

"It was the only way I could think of extinguishing the flames," he said. He could not see Mr. Horbachewsky because the smoke was too thick.

James Russell, of the Energy Resources Conservation Board, said there were no government regulations as to procedures to be used by companies in oil spill clean-ups.

"It wouldn't be practical because two spill are identical," he said.

A company spokesman said that 19,000 barrels of oil had leaked through a minute crack in one of the pipes. He also admitted that spills had occurred on two previous occasions in the same area.

Both the government and the company have conducted inquiries into possible causes of the fire. An expert at the Alberta Research Council believes it may have been caused by an electro-static spark.

A six-person jury recommended that the Alberta Research Council continue its investigation and draw up safety precautions to prevent a recurrence. It also recommended that fire-protective clothing be worn.

COW-CALF PRODUCER PROGRAMS:

Application forms for the two Cow-Calf Programs announced on September 21st are now available at the District Agriculturalist's office.

The Cow-Calf Producer Program consists of a cash advance or loan and an outright grant or support program.

The cow-calf Advance Program is very similar to 1975 and is in the form of a 7% loan. Application is made at the District Agriculturalist's Office, and a document is prepared which in turn is taken to the bank or financial institution of your choice. Upon approval the loan is then obtained. The proceeds of the loan will be used firstly to pay out any existing cow-calf loan. Any amount above and beyond this level may be used as the producer wishes.

The one year 7% loan has a maximum level of $5,000 and is calculated on the number of calves at the time of application. The formula used is 80% of the total calves times $75.00. The amount cannot exceed $5,000.

Deadline for loan application is January 31, 1977.

The Cow-Calf Support Program is in the form of a one time grant. The amount of the grant will be based on the difference between average calf prices and average cash costs of production and could be up to $50.00 per calf.

In order to qualify herds must have 11 or more cows. Large herds of 100 or more cows also qualify but only 100 cows will be used in calculating the grant.

Grant calculations are based on 70% of the eligible cows as of September 1st, 1976. Maximum grant available is $3,500, pending the amount of taxable income.

In the final calculation, taxable income plus grant cannot exceed $5,000. If the taxable income is $5,000, the maximum grant available would be $2,000, even if there were sufficient cows to qualify for $3,500.

Cow-calf producers wishing to make application are reminded to do several things:

1. Know the correct number of cows and calves available on dates indicated.
2. Bring the Social Insurance Number.
3. Know their exact taxable income for the past year filed.

Finally, further information is available by calling 245-2721, and office days for an appointment will be announced soon, then applications can be taken care of as well.

SOIL TEST & CHOOSE THE BEST

Elephant Brand 46-0-0 is dry nitrogen fertilizer in its most concentrated form. You cover the same acreage with fewer tons. This means less handling, less labour and less wear and tear on your equipment.

46-0 is less corrosive than 34-0-0. Therefore, equipment maintenance and replacement costs are reduced.

46-0 is free flowing. This means fewer handling problems and more even application. Also, the nitrogen in 46-0 converts rapidly to the ammonium form and is held by the soil against leaching and run-off.

11-55-0 is the same kind of fertilizer as 11-55-0. But pound for pound, it contains more plant food than 11-55-0. (11,864% more to be exact.)

Therefore, fewer tons are required to cover the same number of acres. Fewer tons mean less handling, less labour, less time filling your applicator.

Elephant Brand pioneered 11-55-0 and they've done everything possible to make their 11-55-0 the best. An improved production process virtually eliminates dust which makes Elephant Brand 11-55-0 an easier handling product that flows smoothly through your equipment and permits more even application. These are reasons enough to change to 11-55-0 this crop year.

11-55-0 is just one of the quality Elephant Brand products and services I offer. Come in soon to see what's just right for your soil and your crops.

The Grade 7's and some grade 8's and 9's had to wear slippers over their pants and were colored buttons with a poem on them. Each teacher of Junior High and all Junior High Students were also given a colored pin and when an initiated person wearing the same color one of the teachers or students was seen, the person getting initiated had to get down on their knees and read their poems. It was a day full of fun and laughter and at 3:30 more initiating was done.

TRANSPORTATION IN CANADA

Canada is a big land. The four and one half thousand square miles of land area that stretches from sea to sea require an immense transportation network in order for individual Canadians may have access to equal opportunity. In spite of that obvious fact, Canada has had to cope with either inadequate service or unfair price regulations for the duration of a hundred years.

For a decade now we have heard constant promises that the transportation system in Canada was about to come under a major review. When the Honourable Jean Marchand was Minister of Transport he was in the House in June of 1975 presents that promised a separation of Air Canada from the C.N.R. At the same time he spoke of a new transportation Act for Canada that would include a new parts policy as well as totally new considerations to the rail systems that service the provinces.

Most Western Canadians are still very much aware of the promises of the 1972 Western Economic Opportunities Conference and follow-up speech from the Thruse in 1974. The Government promised during the Election of 1974 that amendments to the freight rate legislation would be aimed to achieve a more balanced and general development. That is a message that would be welcomed to the landlocked parts of this vast land.

Moreover, as early as 1975 promises were made that there would be a change of policies so as to avoid the preferential treatment given to long-haul rail transport as opposed to the short-haul freight sector. Likewise in that same commitment Canadians were given hope that for the first time since Confederation that raw materials would be treated with a freight structure equal to that assessed to finished products. Such a change would make a vast economic improvement in Western Canada for a great deal of our economy is dependent upon the production of primary goods and raw materials.

More recently in 1975 the Honourable Jean Chretien in co-operation with the Honourable Oda Lang announced plans for improvement in transportation of grainhandling in West Coast Ports. These announcements came as the result of the Seaway and Hail Commission recommendations after a series of hearings across Western Canada. To this point in time the vast majority of commitments to improve transportation service and freight structures in Western Canada have remained but empty promises.

It has now been ten years since the Speech from the Throne, delivered October 1976, that the Federal Government is again committing itself to the improvement of transportation and raw materials. It is a good thing to see the Government for the first time in a long time again leading its attention to this serious matter. I also hope that on this occasion the promises will culminate with constructive legislation. If equal opportunity is to be afforded to all Canadians irrespective of their region of domicile, then it is of vital importance that we have an adequate and efficient transportation system to keep all Canadians in touch with each other.

South Hardisty News

Over seventy relations, neighbors and friends gathered at the Battle Bend School Saturday evening Oct. 9 to wish Roger Johnson and Teresa Gibbs well and to shower them with many lovely gifts.

Assisting Teresa and Roger opening their gifts were Mrs. Virginia Johnson and Mrs. Irma Matthews. Gifts were passed around for all to admire. The evening started with a short program of musical selection. The Hiltunen family played and sang. Denise White sang a song with Doris Fraser singing in the chorus.

Mrs. Ruth Tillman sang a number. Tom McCracken recited one of his famous poems. Three William Whitehead sang and played the guitar. A lovely snack was served by the ladies.

Sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. Cora Paul.

A birthday greeting to Miss Flo Barton

Flo, Flo, 0 where did you go they tell us the Lodge. Could this be so.

I remember the day. When you were spry and gay. And now you have gone. To another town say.

To add good-bye. To the kitchen range. For a table now set. By a younger range.

When your meals are over. And no dishes to wash. Just call on your neighbor And talk what not.

The Lodge will be. Some easier we know. To get your mail. Without shuffling that snow.

No cooking to do. Of floors to clean. You can no be so. So on, so serene.

YOUNGER LOOK FOR DRY SKIN!

Dry skin is an awful liar! It makes any woman look much older than her real age. When you rid your face of skin dryness and its discomforts, you immediately look younger than your birthday are even willing to admit. If your skin is really dry and itchy, and uncomfortable under make-up, take immediate steps to raise its moisture level and lubricate its surface effectively. Then, reap the rewards of a younger appearance. For un-failing results, COCREMA Dry Skin Creme actually disposes of dryness symptoms with two or three all-night applications, while you sleep. COCREMA contains the purest grade of select cocoa butter.

THIS MEETING IN

On Monday evening every week, the Sedgewick Town Chapter No. 42221 holds its weekly meeting. This is a chance to see its beginning early in February of this year. The new chapter has been active and includes thirty-nine active and enthusiastic members. Their members' age span is great as we now have some young members.

The weight loss for the month of August was 54 lbs. Queen of the month was Joyce B. For the month of September a record weight loss was achieved - 129 lbs. Carol G. was Queen of the month. The chapter members are thrilled with a weight loss of 488 lbs. since its inception, eight months ago.

Chapter members are highly selling tickets on an auction to be drawn for the evening of November 15th. At this meeting Florence S. will graduate from Tops to Kops (Keeping Out Punks Sensibly). This is a special occasion to which all chapter members aspire. Eleanor T. and Harriet W. are two members who have recently reached their goals and are now KKW (Kings in Waiting), for a period of thirteen weeks. After this waiting period they are eligible to enter Kops.

Nine chapters were awarded in September, to deserving members for significant weight losses.

Each member has estimated what she hopes to weigh by the last meeting before Christmas. A charm of her chapter is the reward for this achievement.

Three trips for kindergarten

The regular monthly meeting for the Sedgewick Kindergarten parents and teacher has been changed to the second Tuesday of every month.

The Kindergarten have got off to a real good start and a busy month is now behind them. They made their first trip during the month, the first one being to the Health Unit to be weighed and measured. This will be done at the end of the year so each child will have a record of how much they have grown.

Their second trip was to the South Bend Hutterite Colony and was reported to be a memorable occasion for the youngsters. On the way home they stopped at the Lorraine Bridge for a picnic.

On Friday, October 1st, the Kindergarten children were once again off for the morning, this time to the Assiniboine farm where they were very much impressed as each child was treated to a horseback ride. The occasion for this was Kelly Arnesen's birthday.

A Halloween party is planned for the children on Friday, October 25th. This should prove to be quite a party as the mothers as well as the children will be dressing up. Come on mothers get working on those costumes!!

Hardisty and District News

Lis Zuker, Marianne Thomson and Mildred Fraser attended the Harry Belafonte show in Edmonton and the show in Edmonton and the show in Edmonton. It was very much. Harry Belafonte was a very good friend of Martin Luther King Jr. and he was a great advocate of the peace movement in the U.S. and was assassinated at the age of 20. Your reporter has just finished reading about him by his wife and Harry Belafonte was always a friend to need.

David Blackwell and Pat Stenrud of Saskatoon spent Sunday with Dave's parents.

Ralph and Shirley Martin, Nolan and Bobby-Jo of Saskatoon spent Thanksgiving weekend with Shirley's parents, Keya and Freda Blackwell.

The relatives and a few others covered on the Blackwell to help get their building material off the ground and into the shape of a house, which was a very successful venture, considering the short holiday and the amount of work to be done.

It was also Grandson Nolan's 5th birthday complete with birthday cake and candles and two cousins to share it with.

Wally Seto's new dining room and lounge is getting away to a good start, with forms for the cement being ready so that it will soon be built for the pouring of the foundation.

We send our sympathy to Mrs. Cora Paulson and her family on the passing away of her husband Kris Paulson who had been a Killam Auxiliary patrol for a few years. Kris and family used to live in the Arnold school district and with daughter Laverne Whitehead close to town, they are all well known in this area.

Another tragic happening was the sudden passing away of Arnold Klager who was a love in the truck where it went out of control and landed in Bonnie Charr's field near the corner, Bonnie finding him on his way home from a meeting in town. Arnold was to have been married in another two weeks and so we all send our sympathy to his parents Emil and Norma Klager and family and also to his fiancée, Linda Hagen of Irma.

Your reporter and Glacie Prechter were busy attending the closing out sale of the glendens Hardware which appeared to be greatly overstocked for a town of that size.

Karen McKenzie of Calgary spent the Thanksgiving weekend with her parents the Mac Manus.

Ruth and Sam Moor visited in Saskatoon over the Thanksgiving weekend with Sam's sister and to help his sister and her husband celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

Sean and Mary Johnson and girls of Stettler spent Thanksgiving with Sean's mother, Mrs. Nelson Johnson and the Wayne Sisters went to Ervin Knudsen in Camrose, to be with Edna's sister and family.

We were glad to learn that it was Mrs. Dwight Miles of Sedgewick who was winner of a substantial sum at the Hardisty Arena Bingo. It would have been nice to have received the names of the winners of that Binge as so many people like to see the winners in the paper, as so many outsiders help to support these things.

Your reporter and her daughter went to command Marie Keith and others who have offered awards for the finding of the vandals who do these unnecessary deeds of vandalism. If more people would do the same it might help the communities involved a great deal.

Sympathy is also extended to the Canard Hagen family of Alliance on the passing away of Conrad last week. Sympathy to his wife Margaret and her Cameron brothers.

Interested for last week:

Tommy Seto is getting along very well with his electrical engineering course at N.A.I.T. Mrs. R.J. Harrison received a letter from Mr. and Mrs. Simpson of Westlock. He was principal there when Mrs. Harrison taught school. He is now retired and Mayor of Westlock and they are planning to spend part of the winter in Alaska. Mr. Simpson taught school in Hardisty before going to Westlock.

Your reporter is sure that the many people entertained by Wally Seto and family, to a lovely turkey dinner, enjoyed every bite. It was really lovely and was put on to celebrate the granting of his lounge license so that now plans for his lounge and dining room can now be building.

This new building will be a credit to the town and will be located on the corner across from the theatre.

Mrs. Annie Rigley of Westlock has been visiting with her sister Mrs. Nettie Johnston for awhile.

Also seen at the bingo last week were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Landals of Edmonton. They come down periodically to visit their daughters.

Don and Gwyneth (Perkins) House and two friends of Victoria visited with Harriet and sister and to help his sister and her husband celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary.

They had been as far East as Newfoundland and had visited their youngest boy in Ontario who does a lot of flying. The older boy is married and their daughter is going to University in Vancouver.

Gwyneth was very disappointed at not being able to stay longer in Hardisty but due to car trouble in Manitoba they were delayed considerably and her husband had to be back to work soon after arriving here. Gwyneth used to work in what is now The Toy Store, also the hotel, quite a few years ago now.

Mrs. Ellean Roud of Lloydminster was in Hardisty recently visiting various members of her family as most of her children are around Hardisty.

Mrs. and Mrs. Marv MacLachlan and two children of McPherson Lake, visited Harriet's parents Mr. and Mrs. Ken Blackwell over Thanksgiving.

Frank Matthews of Calgary spent the week after Thanksgiving with his brother Bill and parents, getting in a few good days of hunting.

Woman's Guild meet

St. Mark's Womens Guild met in the Parish Hall on Thursday evening. The dinner was led by Mrs. Viniford. Following Roll Call and reading of the minutes, the spiritual retreat was read and accepted. It was reported that the Altar cloths are selling well. Arrangements were made for serving coffee and doughnuts at Saturdays sale, and a time was set to decorate the church for the Harvest and Thanksgiving Service.

After the close of the meeting, lunch was served. As Mrs. Hearn is planning a trip to England, the members and friends will be providing her with a purse as a bon voyage gift, much to her surprise. The president, Mrs. B. Matthews, and we all joined in wishing our good friend a safe and enjoyable trip.

In the report of the dedication service at St. Mark's, we regret an important omission. During the service Mr. Ned Butcher, accompanied by his daughter-in-law Pauline, sang the very moving "How Great Thou Art". It is always a treat to hear this fine singer.

COME ALIVE...

The Infinite and finite

Our partial goodness calls for the existence of the perfect good. Our feeble strength calls for the omnipotent. Our humanness calls for the divine. My faith being stands out—indeed can only be known as finite—against the infinite which is revealed in my desires and thoughts. If the world and myself—in our world, a mere dot, we must confess that the infinite is present. Hence St. Paul could say: "Ever since the creation of the world God's invisible nature has been perceived in the things that have been made" (Rom. 1:20).

But no matter how clearly life and thought lead us to surmise an infinite Origin (and matter has vagueness), and no matter how effectively a profound philosophy can show that in all our thoughts and language there is a resonance of the infinite, at its deepest background, there is a fierce challenge to all our peaceful reflection. The challenge is the misery of the world. How can we harmonize all the sickness, disappointments and cruelty of this world with an infinitely good origin? We are not merely finite—which is a quality which does in fact call for the presence of the infinite we are also finished, failures. Our whole existence is marked by guilt and death. How can this be? How is it explained? The perfect being that we have conceived of is not perfect. It is not perfect reflection gives no answer to absurdity, pain and death. How are we to imagine an infinite who preserves in being all that is good and beautiful, and at the same time all that is hateful and repulsive?

Does it not seem absurd? An immeasurable longing, which is always brought up short by the wall of death and guilt? Perhaps the infinite will speak. Perhaps the Absolute will Jot us, explain himself, defend himself, against Job, against us. Perhaps he will show us the meaning of our grand and painful existence.

The word has gone out in the world that in Jesus of Nazareth the infinite has revealed himself. Jesus is the answer, more marvelous than man could have dreamed of. The Son of God himself is submerged in our misery. God himself suffers with us in the greatest act of love. God has so loved the world.

This is not an answer that makes the ultimate why and wherefore clear. The mystery of existence is not solved. But faith in Christ indicates the direction in which there is to be found.

Why then are there so many people seeking answers, by bible study, by church attendance, by seeking some knowledge from clergymen, who have attempted to equip themselves to answer these questions?

A clergyman is expected to preach the gospel, lead the faithful in worship, baptize, marry and bury. Surely this is not his or her only purpose. Let us together, through study and love draw nearer to the truth by constantly going to the bible for answers and a renewed faith in the only truth there shall ever be—Jesus Christ, the word of God made flesh, dwelling among us, not completely ignored and rejected by so many.

Let your thirst for the answers to the meaning of your existence be partially quenched. Come to church, bible class, etc. Do it Now!

Security. Income. And flexibility.

No wonder they're Canada's most popular investment.

For over 30 years Canada Savings Bonds have been the most popular investment in Canada. Literally millions of Canadians have used Canada Savings Bonds as a way to build a solid financial base. They're simple, straightforward and easy to understand. They're a great way to save. Here's why.

Security.

Canada Savings Bonds are secure because they're backed by all the resources of Canada.

Income.

They pay good income, an average annual interest to maturity in 1985 of 9.17%. Each $100 bond begins with $8.50 interest the first year and then pays $9.25 interest for each of the remaining 8 years.

Flexibility.

They're flexible, because you can use Canada Savings Bonds in various demonstrations, for cash or on instalments wherever you bank or invest. And they're callable anytime, at their full face value plus earned interest. This year, the purchase limit has been set at $35,000.

Two Kinds.

A. Fully registered bonds. These bonds are registered as to both principal and interest. The interest is sent to you automatically by cheque each year on November 1st. They are available in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000.

B. Coupon bonds. These bonds are registered as to principal and have annual interest coupons payable to bearer. They are available in denominations of $50, $100, $500, $1,000 and $5,000.

Keeping in touch

LABOR'S DAY OF PROTEST

October 10th, 1976. Labor's Day of Protest, did not see Joe Morris and associates gridding the Nation to see Prime Minister's office. The papers, but executives have dinner and watch the news. Less than one-half of the Canadian Labor Congress members slipped work. Railies across the country were poorly attended and largely ignored by the public. The government paid little attention to the rhetoric of the day. The 11th-century Day of Protest was a bit of a flop (and I am glad it was).

Labor leaders were right to insist that citizens have "not only the right to dissent but the duty to do so" but they were wrong to forget that any responsibility exercised right also implies an obligation to prevent harm to innocent third parties. In this case, the Nationalist, as the third party certainly did not have its interests protected. When it called a general strike, it showed it was angry with the Anti-Inflation Board. The CLC had really taken the attitude of "don't get mad; get even". Apparently, a large majority of Canadians feel the same way. An October Gallup Poll revealed that 67% of Canadian households claimed that the work stoppage was an irresponsible act. I found it heartening to note that even amongst unimpaired households, one-third felt that the Day of Protest/General Strike/Nationalist was a responsible notion.

Contrary to Joe Morris, the General Strike did not involve "the whole constitutional, moral and political question of the right of working people to petition Parliament" and neither was the "right to dissent" at issue. Canadian democracy has many legitimate channels of disagreement open that do not involve attempts to paralyze the country. Effective protest could have occurred without work stoppage. The Ontario Health Care workers, for instance, were black arm bands to demonstrate their disapproval. The CLC should have directed its energy toward more constructive action: it could have researched a into alternatives to wage and price controls; they could have encouraged public debate. It should have brought the pressure of reason to bear upon the Trudeau Government instead of the pressure of widespread power.

The instigators of the General Strike hoped to change things through a policy of arm-twisting. Ronald Lang, Director of Research and Legislation for the CLC admitted as much: "Labor's power to conduct a successful national strike is the kind of naked power which governments respect." What Mr. Lang does not realize, however, is that power politics is just as much an enemy of democracy as the unrepublican nature of the CLC rightly condemns. The proper route for change is the ballot box, not arm-twisting. This was recognized by the general public who, yanked through the Tantrum. This was recognized by NDP, which despite formal alliance with the CLC, wisely denounced the strike as a bad idea. Third, this was recognized by the more than 8 million workers in Canada whose respect for their contracts, for the public and for the integrity of the democratic process convinced them to stay on the job despite whatever disagreement they may have had with wage and price controls. My commendation goes out to those who helped make the strike a failure because its success would have set a dangerous precedent for Canada.

The thrust of the General Strike as power politics was in direct antagonism to the democratic functioning of Parliamentary government. Yet earlier this year, was it not Joe Morris who stated: "The Parliamentary system is very dear to us. We'd be the last to try and upset that?" In this instance it could hardly be said that the CLC's actions were keeping in touch with the CLC claims.

COPING WITH KIDS

Coping with Kids is a two-day Workshop that has been planned for Alliance and Sedgewick areas.

The method of presenting the course involved the leader introducing some theory and then having small group discussion. We also use films. We will be sharing with each other our parental frustrations, joys and methods that we have that work.

We will attempt to deal with defining behaviors of the child into those that are acceptable and those that are not acceptable. We will be talking about how these areas differ not only from family to family, but differ within each of us depending on how we are feeling, who else is present, and what the situation is. Acceptable behaviors are obviously no problem, but we will take a look at methods of encouraging the continuation and increase of these acceptable behaviors.

We will look at why praise and reward are not necessarily effective etc., sometimes the kid reacts badly when you least expect it.

We will look at two categories of unacceptable behaviors 1) those that get in the way of meeting our own needs, e.g., the kid's rock music is making your head pound and 2) those that "bug" us but do not really affect our meeting our needs. This last is a debatable category. There are a number of ways of dealing with unacceptable behavior. We will discuss these different methods and their appropriateness.

WORKSHOP DETAILS ARE:
AS FOLLOWS:
Alliance Area: November 22 & 23 (Tues. & Wed.) 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.
Sedgewick Area: November 23 & 24 (Thursday and Friday) 9:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

I am pleased to announce that I will be holding an office day in the New Forestry Provincial Building on Thursdays mornings from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. and in the afternoon by appointment only. (Phone Treasury Branch)

Ghosts of Great Britain

by Sandra Pope

So - you don't believe in ghosts? I didn't either, until I met Ann.

It was October 17, 1968. Our ship had docked in Liverpool that morning, and by nightfall all of the passengers - the older folk, the new-found friends, the shipboard romances were all gone.

I checked into a hotel about ten blocks from the Edmund Station in central London, and after writing postcards home, I slipped down into the damp streets and shut off the light. I lie there feeling strangely alone in a far off land, wondering what tomorrow would be like, when all of a sudden a large warm hand gripped my left arm tightly. I jerked up in bed sweeping my right hand down my left arm time and time again. I tried to reason with myself. Again the hand gripped my left arm. I jumped out of bed screaming and screaming as I ran to the door and flicked the light on. I sat and froze with fear, my eyes searching every corner of the room. There were no closet doors, no dark corners. Was it a ghost welcoming me to England?

I thought again about the ghostly warm hand while visiting my Aunt Elizabeth in Co. Antrim, a city in Scotland between the Firth of Tay and the Firth of Forth on the shore of the North Sea. I could find no warmth from the moist bitter cold air which flowed through my Aunt's stone two-story house on the left side of the pier. I watched the icy whitecaps splashing and clapping over the isolated docks as Aunt Elizabeth lit a fire in the stone fireplace in my bedroom. The large oak door caught on the carpet as she shoved and pushed it closed until the latch clicked into its socket. With her great frame she pulled 2 large rocking chairs along side the fireplace and we sat talking. I told her of my experience in England, and asked "Do you think it was a ghost?" Elizabeth smiled with amusement. "There are many ghosts in Great Britain. Do not be afraid of them dear," she said as she leaned forward and patted my hand. "They are all friendly and would do you no harm."

Her eyes glinted with a plea of acceptance. "Don't be afraid of the footsteps upstairs dear," she said. I was alarmed and curious. "What footsteps?" Then I heard them - soft footsteps walking back and forth. Our eyes were mesmerized on the ceiling of the flickering shadows of the bedroom. My Aunt's face, framed with white shimmering hair, gleamed with appreciation. "She's been there for almost a Century. Ever since that night when her lover was to return to her by ship. She still waits for him." There was a still silence in the room except for the footsteps. Elizabeth's eyes widened as she stared at the doorway. I turned quickly to her point of glance. The bedroom door opened steadily, gliding over the deep red carpet. Then it closed with ease and the latch clicked. I whispered "Was that a ghost?" Elizabeth chuckled "Indeed it was!"

Do you have ghosts in your house? Not long ago when that special item was broken, didn't everyone in your house deny breaking it? If the parents didn't break it, and the children didn't break it, then ——— WHOOOOOO DID!!!!!!

Talk it Over — with Gordon

Gordon Stromberg

My goal, this past week has been busy. Monday forenoon, four constituents and myself met with the Dept. of Energy and Natural Resources.

Tuesday morning in Camrose for a meeting at the County office and back to Edmonton for a session of the Assembly.

That evening again in Camrose for a reception hosted by Northern Utilities marking the 30th anniversary of the turning on of gas in the city of Camrose. Wednesday morning was taken up, along with a constituent, arguing with Ray Janzen, Chairman of the Workers' Compensation Board.

They met with the Dept. of Business Development and a local business firm pertaining to marketing their product in Alberta.

Thursday evening I drove down to Fortin to present a grant for $10,000 to the Buffalo Lake Development Project on behalf of the Min. of Natural Resources.

Friday morning I was in Dinning. All of the weekend I spent in the city at a P.C. policy seminar.

I was glad to get to the Buffalo Lake Development project goals. This project started over a year ago and is comprised of memberships of the towns and villages near and along Highway 11 from New Norway to Clara.

The project will be hiring a coordinator whose main job will be bringing those communities together and growing. There are 4 or 5 of these projects in the province and they have turned out exceptionally well. Now we have to twist Dinning's arm for another development project for Highway 11 from Banff east to Sedgewick.

In the Legislature I asked Mr. Gundy and Mr. Gundy to "insure" the light of the wild gas well on the weekend in the New Norway district, has the E.R.C.B. made any decision as to restricted development in and around sour gas fields in the Camrose constituency? Mr. Gundy: Mr. Speaker, I understand that an old well in the area as being reworked and, in the context of the work, there was a problem with some of the equipment and some gas started to escape from the well control development in northeast Calgary or Alberta or where feasible, allow wells or fields to produce at 100% capacity until the gas reserve is depleted.

I believe the answer to allowing development in an area where gas fields might be the cementing of the well sheet and directional drilling new wells from a mile or two distance away which would certainly solve the problem of development in northeast Calgary or Alberta or where feasible, allow wells or fields to produce at 100% capacity until the gas reserve is depleted.

Mr. Stromberg: Supplementary, Mr. Speaker, after the rather frightening experience on the weekend in that area, will the E.R.C.B. hold public hearings as to the cause of that blowout?

Mr. Gundy: Mr. Speaker, I haven't discussed the matter of hearings with the E.R.C.B. If it appears that it would be helpful to have hearings either to the people in the area or to the operator or to the board in the area, I would be sure they would do so.

End of Hansard.

I wonder what the attitude of the minister will be if he had a gas well located in his back yard that blew wild.

As I see it...

THE CRAFTSMAN

There's a man in our area who is talented and produces beautiful work. He is looking up, by his artwork at that nostalgic past. Every article is made with meticulous care, as every minute detail is delivered as close to the original design as humanly possible. Even the material he chooses for his replicas, is the wood with the easy workability and durability.

You have probably guessed the man is Pete McPherson and the artwork of the past, to which I refer, pertains to carvings, backboards, and transportation of the early days.

Pete builds miniature grain trucks, backboards, and many other models as well and is becoming reason throughout our community for his artwork.

Pete and his family are all artists in their own right, and also have been grown accustomed to their faces and don't considerably in any way.

Elephant Brand 46-0-0 is dry nitrogen fertilizer in its most concentrated form. It covers the same acreage with fewer tons. This means less handling, less labour and less wear and tear on your equipment.

46-0-0 is less corrosive than 24-0-0. Therefore, equipment maintenance and replacement costs are reduced.

46-0-0 is free flowing. This means fewer handling problems and more even application. Also, the nitrogen in 46-0-0 converts rapidly to the ammonium form and is held by the soil against leaching and run-off.

So don't pay a premium for your nitrogen fertilizer. Use Elephant Brand 46-0-0 and save time, labour and money.

11-55-0 is the same kind of fertilizer as 11-45-0. But pound for pound, it contains more plant food than 11-45-0. (11-55-0's sure to be rated.) Therefore, fewer tons are required to cover the same number of acres. Fewer tons mean less handling, less labour, less time filling your applicator.

Elephant Brand pioneered 11-55-0 and they've done everything possible to make their 11-55-0 the best.

An improved production process virtually eliminates dust which makes Elephant Brand 11-55-0 an easier handling product that flows smoothly through your equipment and provides even application. These are reasons enough to change to 1

CARDS OF THANKS
To a Christian, it doesn't mean as much as to non-Christians and accidents that come one way, such as the stable fire which started from a dog, a fire, a little neglect, a sudden wind, and also a change of wind direction. Some of us as Christians get a little slack with our walk with God and He is bringing some events to pass to jar us, to wake us up to the fact that we are serving a living God. The fire and damage could have been much worse and for that I am thankful. And now I would like to say thank you to each one who came out and helped in any way to put the fire out. A special thank you to the Volunteer Fire Brigade who came so quickly and efficiently to help me. I am so grateful. Thanks again. Walter R. Erickson 10-2c

There was magic in the air last Wednesday afternoon when the Flying Tigers assembled at the Lougheed School for their second meeting of the season. Capturing the undivided attention of some forty squirming kids, who have already put in a full day in the classrooms, presents a fair challenge; but a lively and dedicated group of students from the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute, Camrose, were quite equal to the occasion.

As the "Joyful Expression", they truly exemplified their title in both word and song. In their friendly and outgoing manner with the children. Undoubtedly, the highlight of the afternoon, for the boys and girls was the Quilt Brothers with their Bag of Magic Tricks, and featuring Joshua, the friendly puppet. The presentation of the Gospel can take on many and varied forms, and children are responsive little people. There was excitement, laughter and grateful enjoyment for both pupils and teachers of Flying Tigers throughout the whole hour, and the entire program was characterized by a clear Christian message. This, in both word and song, in their friendly and outgoing

LOUGHEED W.I. PAINTS LIBRARY

Eight members of the Lougheed W.I. were present for the Oct. 12th meeting which was held in the social room of St. Andrew's Church.

In the absence of the president and vice-president, the secretary Mrs. J. Johnson presided. Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved, and reports from the various committees received.

It was announced that a workshop on "Consumer Law" will be held in Camrose-Nov. 22nd.

A committee was appointed to arrange for the catering for Miss Janet Frazer's wedding reception on Oct. 23rd.

The possibility of the library being open on Thursdays as well as Saturdays beginning in November was mentioned. Also that each member will be asked to bring a book.

It was decided to do this alphabetically. Discussion re the painting of the exterior of the library building took place. Plans to be procured, and a "bee" to take place the following day.

"Handicrafts" will be the program for the November meeting with Miss M. Foreman in charge.

The meeting was adjourned and hostesses Mrs. Kay McLenzie and Kay Routledge served.

On Oct. 12, a group of women, armed with paint and brushes, gathered for a work-folding, surrounded the library building, and by nightfall it was looking very spruce and in new coat of white with blue trim: the W.I. colors. Even a dust storm and gale force winds that night and the following day, failed to diminish its brightness.

On Oct. 14th, Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer Dodds of Lac La Biche celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the Scandanavian Centre in Edmonton. Over 150 relatives and friends from Hardisty, Almar, Castor, Edmonton, Aldred, Lac La Biche, Irma and Vancouver, also Calgary attended the Ceremony.

After the banquet many musical numbers were heard from guests and nephews.

Presentations of beautiful gifts and scrolls including one from the Hon. Peter Lougheed were presented to the happy couple.

Music for the dance was supplied by friends from Amisk

There was magic in the air last Wednesday afternoon when the Flying Tigers assembled at the Lougheed School for their second meeting of the season. Capturing the undivided attention of some forty squirming kids, who have already put in a full day in the classrooms, presents a fair challenge; but a lively and dedicated group of students from the Canadian Lutheran Bible Institute, Camrose, were quite equal to the occasion.

As the "Joyful Expression", they truly exemplified their title in both word and song. In their friendly and outgoing manner with the children. Undoubtedly, the highlight of the afternoon, for the boys and girls was the Quilt Brothers with their Bag of Magic Tricks, and featuring Joshua, the friendly puppet. The presentation of the Gospel can take on many and varied forms, and children are responsive little people. There was excitement, laughter and grateful enjoyment for both pupils and teachers of Flying Tigers throughout the whole hour, and the entire program was characterized by a clear Christian message. This, in both word and song, in their friendly and outgoing

Those of you who watch "The Time of Your Life" or C.F.R.N. Edmonton will be interested to know that our friendly ex-U.G.G. elevator agent, Pete Gossard will be on this program, Sunday, November 14th.

Mrs. Josephine McClements is jumping with joy as she received a letter from C.F.W. Gossard that she qualified in the draw for this Golden Ladle contest and will know the result, in Nov. 5th.

We are happy to announce that our Congregational Pastors Al Rothbauer and his wife have found a place to call home in Hardisty. They will be living in the house formerly occupied by L.H. (Swanow) Russell.

By the U.C.W. church and key support last Friday, it would appear to have been a very successful evening. Our faithful participants from Castor, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wright were very much appreciated.

A most of family reunion was held at the home of Isabel Nelson last Sunday when her brother and his wife, Mrs. Bessie Collins, Mrs. Bessie Collins and his children Shannon and Darrel of Port Kaituma, Collins came to Perth.

On Oct. 12, a group of women, armed with paint and brushes, gathered for a work-folding, surrounded the library building, and by nightfall it was looking very spruce and in new coat of white with blue trim: the W.I. colors. Even a dust storm and gale force winds that night and the following day, failed to diminish its brightness.

Congratulations to our new members, Amalie Gossard and Don Allison both of Vancouver now. The Gossards first met Don when he was at Penhold and now he is a C.F.A.

He is also a part time commercial fisherman with a big new boat and quite a bit of luck. So the Hardisty Community sends their best wishes to Amalie and Don for many happy years together.

Hardisty Chamber Elects

The Hardisty and District Chamber of Commerce held their annual supper meeting on 27th of October 1976. Complimentary tickets were given to new residents and a good attendance was at hand to enjoy the meal at the Park Cafe. Harold Moody gave the grace before the meal was served. After dinner, the President Lou Gilks opened the meeting, welcoming all the new people to the Hardisty area.

Minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. The treasurer, Mrs. Reid, gave the financial report for the Chamber and this was adopted as read.

May Dendall gave a report on the brochures that had been printed this year, on the Hardisty and District. Some 2000 copies were given out with a large number of them having been distributed by the Battle River Tourist Association. He also advised that the Chamber had purchased a new Gentner and it is hoped that all club members interested in making tickets, advertising and helping to involve the community in what

Opposition reject money policies

Kevin Peterson

Conservative M.L.A.s are regularly invited to comment behind the scenes on government financing for rural utility installations in the consultation before the cabinet makes money available.

Only Tories are above the line, even though Mr. Clark's sample included a project in the Olds-Oldsby constituency and another in Gordon Taylor's independent Drumheller riding.

In a covering note, Mr. Harle asks Tories to "please let me know" before he requests cabinet approval for the plans.

"If you have observations regarding any one of them," he doesn't say what kind of comment he wants.

Mr. Clark warns that the procedure permits "financial gerrymandering" against areas that elect opposition M.L.A.s. Even in Tory ridings, sympathetic voters could be cut out of benefits with a few whippers in the right cars, he fears.

When the opposition leader raised the practice during the Legislature's question period, other ministers who administer loan and guarantee programs said they don't use Mr. Harle's technique.

Tory M.L.A.s and cabinet ministers aren't allowed advance peeks and comment on Alberta Opportunity Company or Agricultural Development Corporation deals, the House was told.

Mr. Clark found Mr. Harle's practice doubly ironic because the government appears likely to reject a suggestion of advance publication of all proposed grants which Provincial Auditor D.W. Rogers has made.

Provincial Treasurer Merv Leitch said procedures have to be flexible, the exact distribution of grant funds is unpredictable and sometimes speedy aid is essential. There can be little time for advance public notice.

The recommendation resulted from last spring's scandal and prosecutions over poor conduct of grants in the culture department. Mr. Clark accuses the government of over-accrualization and using a "double standard" with its "pre-publication" for government politicians but not for the public.

Sedgewick Terms Unlimited sponsored a Halloween Party for youngsters on Sunday evening, Oct. 24th. Only thirteen children came, but a good time was had by all, with ducking for apples and other games. Prizes were awarded for costumes in three age groups:

Pre-schoolers: Shelaene Sparrow, Mark Meer, and Stephanie Erickson; Grades 1 to 3 - Scott McConnell, Sherri Sparrow and Robert Hutton; Grades 4 and over - Vicki McMahon, Susy Harris and Darro Metz. Rev. Conrad and Nancy Keith judged the costumes.

Elephant Brand 46-0-0 is a dry nitrogen fertilizer in its most concentrated form. You cover the same acreage with fewer less. This means less handling, less labour and less wear and tear on your equipment.

46-0-0 is less corrosive than 31-0-0. Therefore, equipment maintenance and replacement costs are reduced.

46-0-0 is free flowing. This means fewer hauling problems and more even application. Also, the nitrogen in 46-0-0 converts rapidly to the ammonium form and is held by the soil against leaching and run-off.

So don't pay a premium for your nitrogen fertilizer. Use Elephant Brand 46-0-0 and save time, labour and money.

QUESTION: Further to my earlier question regarding navel bleeding in new born piglets, please elaborate on controlling navel infection. Wallace Davidson - Olton, Alberta.

ANSWER: Navel infection is probably the oldest disease of baby pigs. It is caused by bacteria invading the navel cord of the new-born. This invasion can possibly start in the uterus. Right now, on the way out into which the little pig is born. The causative agent is usually a strept, but it is possible that other bacteria or a mixture of them can produce the disease.

The infection seems to be blood borne soon after entering the body of the new born pig. It may travel to the heart and cause massive infarcts, or decide to affect the eye. The brain may be affected with a meningitis, but the most common areas affected are the joints. These include the hock, stiffls and shoulder joints. Some cases two, one or all of these systems can become infected.

The control of navel infection is just a simple matter of closing the door. Unfortunately it isn't always possible to close, and keep it closed. The disinfecting of the navel at birth or soon after with iodine or other drugs is a common practice. The problem is that the infection is already travelling through the umbilical cord before the drugs have been applied.

Several veterinarians recommended the use of antibiotics and iron injections. This is given as soon after birth as possible. The antibiotic of choice will depend on sensitivity testing and old fashioned trial and error method. Some use 1/2 cc at farrowing time to prevent navel ill, peritonitis and navel ruptures.

Your veterinarian is the best person best qualified to help you set up a system of control and treatment of navel infection.

SAMPLING OF FEED

My travels throughout the County have revealed a large amount of hay still out, and an abundance of straw gathered for use as feed. This could indicate that there may be a great deal of low quality hay and straw in the feed ration this winter. If this is the case, a feed analysis and a nutritionally balanced ration should be obtained.

1. Alberta agriculture's animal nutritionists, Jerome Martin, says there will be a much larger feed this year than usual because they meet the basic requirements of beef cow maintenance ration and hay that does not. If the information sheets that are included with the sampling kits are properly filled out, they include outlining the proposed ration, the staff who analyze the feed will be able to suggest appropriate supplements, when these are needed, or a combination of feeds that might be used to provide a balanced ration.

2. Although many people think of straw as just straw, there is a great deal of variation in its fibre content and its protein content. Some straw, particularly old and barley straw, is of very good quality and can be used as the basis of nutritious beef cow maintenance rations when supplemented with hay, grain or a protein supplement. In fact, a good quality straw contains as much protein as good hay. On the other hand, very poor quality straw would be better used for bedding than feed because of the cost involved in adequately supplementing it.

3. Chaff, either fed alone or in combination with straw, can also vary greatly in quality, depending upon the amount of grain and weed seeds it contains. In some cases it will be of such high quality that very little supplementation will be required.

LETTER BOX

Dear Ratepayers:
Having completed my two year term as school Trustee representing the town of Sedgewick, I feel a letter through the news media will reveal to the taxpayers that their concerns are in the hands of Hea-rley Llen. Councilor for this division. The County Act, as presented set out states the town representatives cannot exceed the rural representatives. We have seven councillors for the seven divisions in the County of Flitstaff, and ten towns, which means each year three town trustees must sit in the bank, so to speak. I still have the privilege of sitting in on meetings, with an voice and no vote. I feel fortunate that I was able to serve two years in a row, as one does not acquaint themselves with this type of work overnight.

I'd like to thank the ratepayers for their vote of confidence in electing me to this position, which I have found challenging and rewarding, though frustrating at times.

In order to have a good working system, we must all pull together, the school committee, employees and the public at large. The past year and a half have been doubly hard due the Anti Inflation guidelines were imposed; and our provincial government chose to cut education in all areas.
However, with election year getting closer, I'm sure we'll see many alterations in government spending. Let us hope that Peter gets back to "The oughts of our children," the future generation."

Services for Mrs. Lillian B. Wilson passed away on Oct. 18, 1976 at the Killam Auxiliary Hospital in her 83rd year.

Lillian Beatrice MacArthur was born at Drumbo, Ontario March 12, 1893. At the early age of twelve years she started her musical career by playing the organ at the country church, where her father was the choirman. By the age of seventeen she occasionally accompanied noted singers from Toronto and Detroit. She started her piano teaching career when she was eighteen.

In January of 1916 she married Moody H. Wilson and came to Sedgewick where she continued to teach piano lessons to many pupils until she was 81 years old.

Mrs. Wilson played the organ at the Sedgewick United Church for around fifty years.
She gave musicology of her time and talents to the church and community.

Mrs. Wilson was predeceased by a son Kenneth in 1921, and her husband Moody in 1941.
She leaves to mourn one son Tommy of Sedgewick, two daughters, Mrs. Ron Galletly (Margaret) of Camrose and Mrs. Ed Bradley (Hazel) of Edmonton, eleven grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

The funeral service was held Oct. 18 at the Sedgewick Un-

Mrs. Wilson

ited Church with Rev. Allan Richards officiating. The pallbearers were all grandsons.
Moody and Ray Wilson, Kenneth and Tommy Aldridge, Ian Bradley and Ian Galletly.
Interment was in the Sedgewick Cemetery with Joe and Joan in charge of arrangements.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank Dr. Meir and staff of the Killam Auxiliary Hospital for the care and kindness given to our Mother.
We would also like to express our appreciation to Joe & Joan, Rev. Richards, Margaret Simpson as organist, the choir, the many people that brought food to the house, the numerous people who sent sympathy cards and made mental donations. Your kindness will always be remembered.

ABOLISH THE SENATE????

During Private Members' Hour on October 28, the Honorable Member for Winnipeg North Centre, Stanley Knowles moved: "Whereas, I am a member of this Private Members' Bill aimed at abolishing the Senate of Canada, I listened to his comments with care in full concern about the operation of the Senate. After careful consideration of the Honorable Member's Private Motion, I am of the view that I must dissent from his position.

I would be quick to suggest that significant reforms ought to take place in the Senate; however, the Senate is the only federal institution that offers a degree of regional representation on Parliament Hill.

At the present time the House of Commons has 261 Members. Of these 261 people, there are more M.P.s from the cities of Montreal and Toronto than there are in the three Prairie Provinces and the two Territories. Likewise, either of those cities has more Members of Parliament than the entire Atlantic region.

It is my strong conviction that the Senate is not an institution to be abolished but rather one to be significantly reformed. If the Lighthill Report on Population Projections is valid, then 95% of all Canadians will live in five cities by the year 2000. That would mean that it threatens 95% of all Members of Parliament would come from five cities. Our census system embraces the principle of representation by population. It also means that 1/5 of our land area is dominated by the thinking of the other 4/5. Essentially, the triangle from Montreal to Toronto to Windsor has the power to make all the decisions in Canada.

From my perspective, I would like to see reforms in the Senate whereby each province would have the right to send three senators to the Senate. Three Senators would be elected by the public at large, another three would be appointed by the Provincial Governors. Moreover, I am convinced that the Senate would serve a more useful function if all members were elected at a federal election. This would also be the case if the Senate were to be elected by the people at large. I am currently the president of a group of men and women concerned in their retirement years. The fact of the matter is, however, some of the first attacks and reports that occur on Parliament Hill had been made by the Senate.

If we had a more regionally representative Senate, such as that in the United States, I think we would be better off.

Show well received

St. Mark's Annual Talent show held in the Elks Hall was a real success, with a very fine and varied program being presented to a crowded hall.

This year the competitors were divided into three groups according to age.

Rev. Conrad opened proceedings and introduced the M.C., Mr. Peter Gray and three very capable judges, Mr. Bert Jackson, Mr. Ken Guzman and Mr. Larry Hahn.

During the first intermission the crowd was delighted with presentation of songs by the Sweet Adelines of Camrose. This group, led by Mrs. Joyce Wilcox, were beautiful in blue and silver gowns and their happy faces and lovely singing provided a real treat.

Prize winners for the evening were:

1. Melody Makers, Hardisty (singing group)
2. Kerry Blister, Hardisty (piano solo)

3. Judy Watkins and Kerry Blister (singing)
4. Lilithstone Sisters, Alliance (singing)

5. Norma Porter and Kim Heek, Clark (dance number)
6. Brian DeKock, Hardisty (piano solo)

ADULT

1. Mildred Hunter, Highenden (recitation)

2. Anne Barletti, Betty Sanders and Tina Blumgren, Killam (singing group)

3. Wadstein Brothers, Brownfield (guitar & singing)

It is fine to see what talent there is in the district and it is hoped that future shows will uncover even more.

Noted writer to speak

The members of the Flagstaff Creative Writers are eagerly awaiting their next meeting when Mr. John Patrick Killam will be with them as their guest speaker. Mr. Killam is Director of Film and Literary Arts at the Department of Culture for Alberta. He is one of the very few Canadian Writers who has supported himself and later his family, entirely by his writing.

Only 18 when his first manuscript was published he is the author of many and varied writings. All interested folk are welcome to attend this meeting at Killam Public School on Monday, November 15th at 7:30 p.m.

Composes march

"I've written a song for all of you!" Myrtle Roggenbach announced at a Loughheed Rebekah Lodge meeting almost two years ago. "A song for us?" All we shared at one another bewildered, "Yes!" she answered. "Ode to a March." Ode to a March has taken the time to give us something of herself.

After hearing the March, the secretary sent the melody to the President of the Rebekah Assembly of Alberta, with the hope that it be shared with other Lodges. The President returned it with regrets that they had no means of publishing the March. We were disappointed.

Representatives of our Lodge who attended the 1975 Rebekah Assembly of Alberta availed with pride when Rebekah's all over North America marched with grace and zest to our Penny Drill March.

Various officials visiting our Lodge tried to persuade and encourage Myrtle to have her song copyrighted and printed. Myrtle said nothing, but quietly and secretly went about doing just that.

There is one important link

Congratulations from the Loughheed Rebekah Lodge, Her Pottery, and the entire community for your success Myrtle. Also, we wish to thank Myrtle's parents, Judith and Ted Erickson of Killam, who gave Myrtle the musical inspiration and encouragement necessary to make this gift possible. It will live on in Ode-fellow and Rebekah Lodges for many many years to come!

Fall session ends

Kevin Peterson MLA's effort for the winter after putting inmates of the jail to work, tightening supervision of welfare recipients and investing $12.5 million in health care, agriculture and energy projects.

The Legislature's 1976 work has ended with a desk-bumping endorsement of Premier Loughheed's defence of provincial constitutional rights, over a lone dissenting vote by NDP leader Grant Notley.

Initial commitments for the $1.5 billion Heritage Fund's Capital Projects Division and approval of the premier's proposed British North American Act amending formula preoccupied the fall sitting.

The house faces a crowded agenda when it assembles again late next February. A long-awaited rewrite of the P. 13 amendment will be proposed. Creation of an auditor-general and possibly legislation to end the wage freeze in land paid are also in the offing.

Mr. Loughheed is confronted by a winter of hard negotiations with Ottawa and other provinces over the constitution. All oppose his amending formula and many doubt the BNA Act can be patriated without agreement on one.

The house passed a resolution by Mr. Loughheed which pledges a fight against changes "which could allow any existing rights, proprietary interests or jurisdiction to be taken away" from provinces without their consent.

Meanwhile, the administrative board scored an easy success this fall with non-controversial Heritage Fund capital projects which will take less than a decade and $400 million to complete, after an initial $12.5 million start next year.

Minor bills increased the ceiling on small claims court cases to $1,000, allow school boards which will take less than a decade and $400 million to complete, after an initial $12.5 million start next year.

Remember

by Rev. K.A. Hodson
Do we remember the price paid to maintain our freedom? Some do. To them it means the days to combat, the lives given on foreign soil. To others it means remembering relations that went and stayed through giving their lives for those at home. To many of the younger generation the war babies and on - it is difficult to remember something before our own time. Yet we wish to thank and pay tribute to our armed forces who gave their life for our freedom.

It is also difficult to remember at all times the heavy price God paid to gain our freedom. He gave His Son, Jesus Christ, and on - it is difficult to remember something before our own time. Yet we wish to thank and pay tribute to our armed forces who gave their life for our freedom.

Where's it going to land?

by Betty Walsh

"Look, it's a Jerry!" bellowed a young school boy, pointing to the solitary aeroplane circling high above. My sister Jack had come to meet me and we were enjoying the walk home. We glanced up at the clear young voice reached us but could not see the wing and decided it must be "one of ours". The sky was the pale blue of a summer evening in our town on the south coast of England. It was early in World War II; the stores had just closed and the street was crowded with people, most of them on their way home from work.

Suddenly the anti-aircraft guns opened up and a solitary searchlight swept across the sky. Then the air raid siren started to blow and while that was still shrilling up and down the "pipa" went. The siren meant enemy planes in the vicinity, but that "pipa" sound meant just one thing. Get under cover fast!

What cover? There "didn't seem to be any so Jack and I ran to a wall and fell flat on our faces, arms curled around our heads. Not a moment too soon I thought, as the shrill whistling sound of descending bombs filled the now silent street.

The siren shrilled again; the "All Clear" this time. We resumed our walk home, none the worse for our experience. But sometimes even now, when the fire siren blazes out, for a moment I am back waiting for those bombs to land and hearing again: "Where's it going to land, Bet? where's it going to land?"

Livestock corner

QUESTION: We feed both heifers and steers in our operation. Last year we had many problems with the animals pushing their rectums out. The condition seems to be much worse with heifers, and they sometimes pushed their female organs out, also. What could be causing this condition and how could it be corrected?

Judy B. Stahl, Cattlemen-Illegends Colony

ANSWER: The condition you describe is known as prolapse of the rectum or vagina. It is also known as a blow-out. The problem could be caused by irritating feeds, which create a severe diarrhea and irritation to the rectum and cause animals to strain. There is some indication that, in brood cows, the tendency toward this condition might be inherited. Previous difficulty in calving will also cause the vagina to prolapse.

In steers, urinary calculus problems cause a prolapse of the rectum, due to the irritation of the urine stone in the bladder and ureters.

When artificial feeding became popular, the incidence of prolapse of the vagina and rectum was greatly increased. Prevention is the most important factor in the prolapse of the rectum and vagina. The diet should be carefully controlled to prevent scouring. Vitamin A levels should be maintained at a high level 20,000 to 40,000 I.U. per head daily.

Consult your local veterinarian in regards to this condition and he can give you recommendations as to prevention. Of course, he is best qualified to make the surgical correction when the condition exists.

Instructor from Provost

It's that time of year again. Sedgewick Figure Skating Club is organized and ready for the season ahead.

Registrations are being accepted this year by Mrs. Jack Sparrow, the new Treasurer of the Club. Classes are scheduled to commence November 15th for the Senior Skaters and November 22nd for the Junior skaters.

The skaters will skate on Saturdays, from 11:30 to 4:00 p.m., under the direction of Miss Jean Ganser of Provost. Miss Ganser has over 40 years of skating experience and many qualifications, such as her 5th Figure, Senior Skater Dances and her Bronze Free Style. This will be her first year with the Sedgewick Club.

Classes for the younger skaters will take place Mondays after school, that is 2:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. They will be under the direction of Miss Rena Ganser, a long-time skater with the Sedgewick Club.

The executive of the Sedgewick Club is comprised of: President - Anita Wayne Vice-Pres. - Jean Wallace Secretary - Pat Erickson Treasurer - Sue Sparrow

The club is planning a skate-athon in January to raise funds and the annual carnival came up for much discussion at the last meeting. Many feel that the carnival is too much work for the few people who volunteer for the various jobs. A further meeting will be called to decide on the carnival issue. The club will also investigate an "Easter Break" skating school.

The new carpet in St. John's Church is installed and looks very nice. The ladies of the church were instrumental in purchasing the rug, and Mr. Emil Thompson did a beautiful job of installing same. The rug was purchased by the A.C.W. and the Memorial Fund of St. John's.

At the regular meeting of the A.C.W., held November 2nd, the ladies also contributed a substantial sum of money to the church general fund.

Plans were made to hold their annual bazaar in November, and people were asked to volunteer in several ways. As well, a variety program is scheduled for mid November at which the ladies were asked to help.

N.D.P. plan new image for future

Kevlin Peterson
Alberta New Democrats are set to a running start for the next election with a high-budget but low-key campaign which they expect will cost more than $300,000 a year.

The party is out on a limb with the investment. But leaders bet a sustained drive to recruit support starting this fall can propel the NDP into second spot behind Peter Lougheed's Conservatives by 1979.

An intense organizing, advertising and policy development effort is being kicked off Nov. 14 to 20 with "NDP week in Alberta." A round of meetings, discussion sessions and celebrations.

Key NDP managers - party leader Grant Tinker, president Howard Leeson and secretary Ray Martin - have also unveiled a new, moderate appeal to voters who may be disenchanted with Tories but fear doctrinaire socialism.

The party has adopted a new slogan, which will be taping up around the province on red and blue bumper stickers, label badges and newspaper advertisements: "On the other hand . . . NDP."

The NDP has always had a solid organizational core but its radical image, owed at least partly to its opponents, has been a major factor in keeping its representation down to one seat in the 75-member Legislature.

With the new selling pitch, "we are trying to say Albertans that there is a rational, reasonable, sane alternative to the Conservatives," said Mr.

Leeson, a University of Alberta political science professor. Mr. Tinker was the province's last remaining of a "dying force" and he believes only the NDP has any chance of being a lasting competitor for the Tories.

He says the four-member Social Credit official opposition is just the last remnant of a "dying force" and he believes only the NDP has any chance of being a lasting competitor for the Tories.

The Tories have been quick to work over the summer and fall on an organizational campaign of their own. They will hold a convention this month which will be a test of their success.

New Democrats have already weathered the worst that Tories can inflict. After Mr. Lougheed's landslide victory last March 23 the NDP nearly collapsed in bankruptcy at discouraged members' last interest.

Mr. Martin, a former Calgary school teacher, turned the gloomy books around. Membership has passed 5,000 and he hopes it will double by the next election. He's budgeting more than $300,000 for the coming year.

The party has bought an old store in east Edmonton as headquarters building. Veteran organizers are being hired and staff is rapidly expanding. Leaders are embarking on an extensive series of meetings with all interest groups who will talk to New Democrats, including the business community.

Win awards

Congratulations to those who received awards at the University of Alberta recently. Brian L. Matthews of Daysland Alberta received an $500 award in Agriculture and Joseph Karber of Killam received a $100 award in the Faculty of Agriculture. Charlotte A. Landis of Strome received a $225 award in Nursing.

KILLAM C.U.W. MEETS

The Kees United C.W.U. met last night at the Killam Community Centre. Ruth Granger was in charge of the devotional which she opened with a poem entitled, "Praying Hands." The hymn, "O Master Let Me Walk With Thee" was sung followed by "Praise Him and a prayer.

Seven good will cards had been sent out and two welcome cards had been given to newcomers. The roll call was answered by a stamped Christmas card.

Shelia Child introduced several new ideas for making our meetings more meaningful for our church women. A skit was presented with several members helping.

The new officers were elected for the coming year. Pres. Doris Forster, Vice-Pres. Shelia Child, Sec. - Ruth Granger, Treas. - Lillian Forster, Catering Com. Laura Cotton, Card Com. Mrs. Hardwick, Press Reporter Doris Saunders, Nominations, Clara Forster and Adolphina Young.

Marion Wilson presented the Stewardship report. Sick and bereaved had been sent out, welcome given, lunches and meals had been served, used stamps, old greeting cards and good used clothing had been collected. The clothing will be packed on Nov. 14.

A Pot Luck supper was planned for the next meeting at 6:00 p.m. Dec. 9th. Bring your family for an evening of food, fellowship and fun.

Killam hosts basketball

Killam Public School hosted basketball games on Wednesday, November 10th.

The girls game was played first. Killam made the first score and it was made by Patricia Wallace of the Killam team. Foreburg won the game by 1 point, the score was 15-14. The boys game was played second and Killam was victorious at Foreburg by 19 points. The score was 20-11. Foreburg on Saturday, Nov. 6 had won the boys basketball trophy over Killam, so I'm sure Killam boys were really happy.

Killam participated in the Daysland Tournament recently. Results are elsewhere in this issue.

On Halloween, Killam Public School and Kindergarten went out for UNICEF and collected $192.30. Thanks to the residents of Killam and district.

At the Sedgewick Tournament on Nov. 12 the Killam boys basketball team brought home the Boys Basketball trophy.

Several folk from here attended the meeting of the Flagstaff Creative Writers in Killam on Monday evening and thoroughly enjoyed an evening with Mr. John Patrick Gilchrist, Director of Film and Literary Arts for the Province of Alberta.

COME ALIVE...

Rites have broken out in several Canadian prisons. The most serious riot of late has been in New Westminster, B.C. The rioting prisoners want more rights. They want to reduce the prison system to a punishment for crime committed.

Prisoners of this day get more privileges than in years back. They also get more privileges than in the days to come. The day is coming when as Jesus said in John 5:28-29 "all who are in the tomb shall hear his voice, and shall come forth: those who did the good deeds to a resurrection of life, those who committed evil deeds to a resurrection of judgement." This judgement includes as its maximum penalty eternal punishment in the lake of fire and brimstone.

Revelation 21:8. Many people guilty before God and man have never been caught on legal loopholes. The day is coming when all your deeds shall be known abroad. Justice will be fair and certain. There is the saving grace of the Merciful Father. But he who also must repent to be saved from the punishment for sin. John 3:16-18; 1 John 1:9; Acts 2:37-38. Just as useless to a proud sinner as is a set of car keys to one who refuses to open the car door.

You who refuse to repent will have punishment without privilege.

1. You will have no peace. Luke 16:25. There will be no good water, no comfort, no privacy in the lake of fire.
2. You will have no God there. Good is absent because God is absent in saving form. There will be no Bible, no Church, no Salvation Army, no missionaries, no Gospel singing, no help, no love, no saving prayer.
3. You will have no hope of salvation any longer. Now is the day of salvation. It is in your chance to accept God's statement that you are a sinner. This life is your chance to accept God's provision for your eternal destiny. After death it is too late. Hebrews 9:14. How shall we escape if we neglect so great salvation?
4. You will have no rest in the lake of fire. No sleep, no language, no television, no weekend

Decision is a sharp blade that cuts clean and straight indecision is dull and leaves ragged edges behind it.

Ritters Ramblings

by Flagstaff Creative Writers

IT'S TIME

by Glen Carley

When a radio station is silent for a few seconds while its transmitter pattern is being changed, they tell you about it first. They wouldn't dare just leave you alone with an unannounced moment of silence. You must be bombarded with a continuous flow of sound alternating between loud music and excited voices with split-second timing. You just must not let in the vacuum of an instant of silence.

Likewise, the TV (video) bursts from scene to commercial and back, the constant sound and video demanding your attention. It strains to hold your mind in its grasp without a moment's respite or release.

Newspapers grab at your snail-huge headlines and their photographs in an effort to submerge you in their pages. Somehow, you must not be allowed to get away.

Magazines assault you with their color and over-size pictures, browbeating you into submission to their verbal wares.

Why this demand on your attention regardless of the value of the contents?

Could you imagine a radio station maintaining silence or an identifying sound when it didn't really have anything to say?

Could you imagine a TV station leaving only an identification symbol — or less — on the screen when it really had nothing to show?

And what about a newspaper leaving some space when it didn't really have anything to tell in print?

What's wrong with a little silence and space? Are others afraid to leave us alone for a moment, fearful that if they lose our attention, they may not regain it? Or are we afraid to be alone a moment and face ourselves?

As a poet has said: "What is this life, if full of care. We have no time to stand and stare?"

Or as the greatest of all has said, "Come ye apart and rest awhile."

Must all of our time and attention be demanded? Must we feel that we must always give it?

Take some time. Be alone. Meet yourself. Don't feel that the center is always reaching for the call for attention. In fact, maybe you should stop reading this now.

And maybe I should stop writing.

If you think you're confused consider poor Columbus. He didn't know where he was going. When he got there, he didn't know where he was. And when he got back he didn't know where he'd been.

Microwave Ovens:

A Microwave Oven Cookbook by Madame Beasli has information about the principles of microwave cooking as well as a variety of recipes.

The book is published by Madame Beasli's Microwave Cookbook, published by McGraw-Hill, New York, N.Y., 1975. It retails for $19.95 and can be purchased in most bookstores. The following are some interesting points brought out in the book.

Uniform heating: Madame Beasli explains just why some problems in the microwave occur (e.g. hot spots). "Because microwaves are a type of radio wave, they have peaks and troughs. This results in (hot spots) and (cool spots) in the oven which gives uneven cooking. The stirrer fan has metal blades at an angle to deflect microwaves from wave guide into the cavity. As the stirrer turns, it rotates the wave pattern, and events out the cooking."

Cooking: If a food is fatty dense, such as meat, it will take longer to cook or defrost than a food that is more porous. For example, a frozen chop will take longer to cook than a frozen slice of bread.

This is another reason why foods are cooked one after another in a microwave and not simultaneously as with cooking with a regular range. The foods would cook at different rates so that some would be done, others not.

And most items require a standing time of a few seconds to a few minutes after being removed from the oven. Remember that microwaves are the outer sections of foods. The heat is then conducted inward, so the center is the last to heat. It is actually continues to cook after leaving the oven. The standing time is necessary in order that the food completely cooks.

Defrosting: Here are the principles behind what's happening during defrosting in the microwave.

"Defrosting is a slightly different process from regular cooking in the microwave oven. The intention is to thaw the food right through to the center, with no cooking taking place at the outside or around the edges.

To accomplish this the oven must be slowed down. Ice in food is more like glass to microwaves and they cannot energy poorly. Water, by contrast, absorbs readily.

As frozen food begins to absorb microwave energy, the layer around the outside of the food is thawed and can quickly raise temperatures where cooking begins. If the oven is turned off before this point is reached, the heat in the outer layer will flow inward, melting the ice as it goes. After a short time the oven can be turned on again to increase the quantity of heat in the food and thawed off again before cooking begins."

There will be Microwave Oven Demonstrations November 25-26 in Redwood, Forestburg, and Davidson. Watch this column for further details.

WARNING!

GAS FUMES KILL

FUMES CREATED BY BURNING NATURAL GAS, PROPANE GAS, COAL OR OTHER FUELS CAN CAUSE HEADACHES, VOMITING, STUPOR AND DEATH.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

ARE YOUR FUEL BURNING SYSTEMS PROPERLY VENTED?

- Are furnaces cleaned from corrosion vents or poor vent pipe connections?
- Are the vent pipes properly secured?
- Is there evidence of rust formation or soot on the burners, vent pipes or appliances?
- Watch for moisture or a black liquid dripping from vent pipes.
- Is the top of the chimney isolated free of obstructions? Check routinely during winter for snow or frost build up.
- Are you using a brick chimney where mortar or other debris may be blocking the vent pipe outlet? (Check with a hand mirror at the point-out casing.)
- Check that the vent pipe is not inserted so far into the chimney that the end is blocked.

APPLIANCES NEED AIR FOR COMBUSTION. VENTS CAN REVERSE AND SPILL DANGEROUS FUMES INTO YOUR HOME.

- Has your furnace been enclosed by building a fireplace room or laundry room without provision for an adequate air supply?
- Have repairs to a forced air furnace since the last inspection been done at closed and properly sealed?
- Exhaust fumes and appliances can create a lower air pressure in your home than the outside causing gas vents to reverse and spit dangerous fumes into your home when the house is tightly sealed. It may be necessary to open a window.

Lougheed W.I. meet

Mrs. H. Swanson invited the members of the Lougheed W.I. to her home for their meeting on Nov. 10, at which time members and three visitors were present.

The president, Mrs. W. Patterson chaired the meeting which opened with the W.I. creed and reading and adoption of the minutes. Financial reports from the treasurer, the book committee and cemetery committee were given showing a substantial amount in each. The library chairman read the schedule for members taking turns on duty at the library during the winter months.

Several places of correspondence were read, including 2 thousand notes from the Killam and Hardisty hospitals for installed toys which had been presented to each earlier in the fall. A letter from Mr. Olson, director of district no. 2 outlined plans for the workshop, and suggested that each member submit a design for their own name tag, and these would be judged at the workshop.

It was decided to bring forth the idea that the members in each local have the same design for purposes of identification at regional and conference meetings. It was announced the 4th banquet will be held Nov. 16th, and W.I. members are invited to attend.

Sadie McClements and Kay Roudledge were appointed as Killam 4-H beef club.

Bawling calves, hollering and running club members were all part of the scene on November 8th during the Killam Beef Club weigh-in.

The Killam, Camrose Auction Mart was a busy day for some time. The annual achievement and target of the 4-H year. The required weight for the steer calves was decided as between 400 pounds to 500 pounds. We agreed that the prices for the feed would be decided by the fathers when it comes time for them to be paid. Then the October meeting was adjourned.

At the November 8th meeting in the cafeteria at the Auction Mart we decided to have our Christmas party on December 12th, which is a Sunday at the residence of Mel and Myrna Mackley. The monthly meeting will come first in the afternoon. Just before the meeting the record books and membership cards were handed out. For the Christmas party we decided to draw names from a hat to present. The prize was decided at around $2. Reporter - Shannon Mackley

Also at this meeting the date for weigh-in was decided.

Keeping in touchEVENTS ON AND OFF*PARLIAMENT HILL

Since the House of Commons reconvened on October 12th my schedule has been busy but not too busy for my trip, along with three other members of Parliament, to the United Nations. On Saturday, October 16th I was favoured with the privilege of being the guest of the House of Commons for the High School Graduation and was pleased to meet, once again, with my friends in the eastern end of the constituency. Being well aware of the serious problems that constituents have in the east end of Battle River respecting radio and television communications I would want constituents to know the CTC and the CBC to know their program of upgrading airwave communication and have a promise that such initiatives will be forthcoming by the spring of 1977.

October 22nd was a most eventful evening in that nearly eight hundred citizens gathered at the Stettler Auction Mart to hear a brief forum of concerned Canadians. Feature speakers for the evening were Don Hobbins of the Canadian Cattlemen Association; Bert Hargrave of the P. Conservative Party; and the Minister of Agriculture, the Hon. J. R. Macdonald. The evening of that evening a petition has been circulated throughout much of the four western provinces. When all of the citizens of that province intend to table this petition to the House of Commons in order to give a visible demonstration to the Minister of Agriculture respecting the feelings of many western cattle raisers in regard to the problems associated with the current depressed beef prices.

On the evening of Wednesday November 3rd I was the guest speaker to a political youth group in the city of Montreal and hosted a question and answer period. On Saturday, November 6th I was in Edmonton for a series of television tapings and then left the next day to commence my six day study tour of the United Nations. I have already made arrangements to spend considerable time in the offices of the Food and Agricultural Organization Department in collecting relevant data relating to matters that I am intending to raise in the House of Commons.

On Monday November 14th Lincoln Alexander, as Chairman, and myself, as Vice-Chairman, met to discuss our national tour as critics of Manpower, the Unemployment Insurance Commission, and the Welfare Programs. A constant investigation on the needs of the senior citizens. Various groups of our senior citizens in differing parts and cultures of the country have been alerted of our intentions and are preparing briefs to present to us. Our tour is essentially a listening tour and in addition, to try to ascertain ways for improving the financial lot of senior citizens. One of the major objectives is to discover methods whereby senior citizens may assume a role of more active participation and have an increased involvement in our Canadian way of life. In essence we are attempting to collect ideas that would assist in developing a policy that would aid senior citizens in retaining a high self-esteem in relation to their participation in Canadian life.

I am very strongly committed to the belief that the advance of the technological age, the change in family structures across the past generation, and the rapid change in cultural values has given us just cause to determine new ways whereby the senior citizens can once again keep in touch with the excellent nation they have so unashamedly helped to build.

Talk It Over — with Gordon

During my term of office I have usually had a good working relationship with members of the Cabinet. I have sometimes found that I can get faster and better service to a constituent or constituency by going through a Deputy than through a Minister. And the other day two members of the Dept. of Environment visited my office requesting my opinion and co-operation of the Wildlife Program. I all started last summer due to the lack of rain. It seems that there is an oil field somewhere east of Forestburg that had a permit from the EMB to remove water from Little River for field injection and that Petroleum Company faced with the prospect of no water, through the Dept. of Environment asked Alberta Power at Forestburg cooperation in re-lining about 2 feet of water from their reservoir.

Everything looked good up to this point but it didn't rain this fall as everybody planned. It would be a couple of weeks ago, Alberta Power through the Dept. of Environment voicing concern that they might not have enough water to see them through the winter. Well the Environment people were concerned and rightfully so that if they did not supply the necessary water to Alberta Power to raise their Reservoir and if water was again needed down stream, they might not get any co-operation from Alberta Power, and personally I wouldn't blame A.P. if this was the case. So orders went out to open the gates at the Gwynne Reservoir to their full capacity and let the waters roll. Again everything looking okay. But after a week and no significant increase in water flow through the Dried Meat Lake weir, further checking revealed that there was something like 18 Beaver Dams between Dried Meat Lake and Gwynne holding the water back and of course the beaver were busy raising their dams to take care of the increased waterflow.

Environment, now faced with the prospect of a freeze-up happening anyway on Bat-

BATTLE RIVER MULTI
Calves were run on and off the scale on November 12th when the Battle River Multi-Club held their 1976 Weigh-in. The day started off with calves being weighed at the Russ Gibson home. At noon, dinner was served at Barnes and then the tour continued. Twenty-eight calves were weighed in all and the calves were all looking good. The tour finished with lunch at the Harold Spady home.

the River had to convince the Dept. of Wildlife of necessity of blasting their heavier dams. To speed things up, a helicopter was used to transport men and dynamite to the job but then it was learned that that permission had to be obtained from the Federal Department of Transportation in Ottawa for the moving of explosives by aircraft and getting that kind of permission doesn't happen overnight. And if that wasn't enough, the contractor has started construction on the new highway at Gwynne was in a serious bind because of the water coming out of the Gwynne Reservoir.

So the two worried gentlemen from Environment came to me, asked what would be my reaction if they removed some of the stop logs from the weir after I came down from the ceiling and the dust had settled. I pointed out to them that when the farmers and ranchers along the B.R. run out of water last summer, the Environment wasn't in any great hurry to do anything about it. Furthermore it was not for me to say yes or no but they should get the advice of both the County of Camrose and the City of Camrose. After all they had a financial stake in the Dried Meat Lake Weir. Anyway I finally agreed that one stop log could be removed from the weir but it had to be replaced as soon as possible and no trawled quarantine that enough water would be released to keep the lake at its former level.

As for the past weeks activities, I attended the Remembrance Day Services at Daysland and also with Ardell at the Alberta Hotelmans Assoc. East in Alberta meeting and banquet in Camrose and the Canadian Pioneer Management Limited Dinner also in Camrose. Two days at my office with the Dept. of Social Development in Camrose in regard to the needs of children with learning disabilities and discussions with P.A.S. over the need of home care services.

Goodwill club news

On November 18th the club meeting was held at Elita Huse's with seven members and one visitor in attendance. The minutes of the previous meeting were read by our Sec-Treas, they were adopted by Christine and seconded by Mary Albrecht.

It was discussed and then decided that we would serve lunch at Laurie Ashton's wedding Dec. 4th in Sedgewick.

We also arranged to have a shower for Laurie in Bellshill Hall Nov. 21st at 2:00 p.m. sharp. Everyone welcome.

Correspondence was then read - a receipt and letter of appreciation was received from USC Canada for our 11th donation. A letter and Card of "Thanks" was read from Mrs. Zimmerman and a Card of Thanks and appreciation from Mrs. Elita Huse.

The next meeting to be at Mrs. Helen O'Reilly's home on December 18th. Christine to be co-hostess. The roll call to bring any kind of Christmas tree decorations for our Christmas tree, our Christmas Party to be held at Bellshill Hall December 18th. At this meeting we are to bring our Christmas gift exchange. Marlene won the raffle and Yvonne was the Lucky Tree Cup gift.

Christie had a contest "Calorie Counting". Mary Rombough won this with the most correct answers. "After Eight" (Peppermint Patties), and Marlene had the lowest score so received an apple.

Mary Albrecht adjourned the meeting followed by hall an hour of visiting and a lovely lunch served by Elita Huse and assisted by Marlene as co-hostess. Marlene brought the most delicate, delightful, scrumptious cake you ever did see. Four ballerina dancing girls (made out of cake) in the delicate colored gowns and crowns surrounding a luscious gold Candy Cane cake. It really was something to see. So nice to have talented ladies in our club.

Also at our lunch and coffee we had the pleasure of having a gentleman, his wife called him "milly".

Hardisty and District News

It is nice to learn that Linda Downie is now employed with the Day Care Centre in this town and enjoying her work very much.

Mrs. Joe Keet has had a lovely visit from her sister Mrs. Ballely of Wilfred recently.

Your reporter was shocked and saddened by the terrible tragedy at Delburne. Had seen Mrs. Lyster at Clair in the summer and she had mentioned her daughter who was shot by her husband, was a teacher at the Composite school in Camrose and Irene Lyster herself had taught school at Delburne for some years past, and has been a widow for the last two years. Sympathy is sincerely extended to her and her sons on this terrible happening.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Manure have returned from a well deserved trip to Vancouver and other places. Spent a couple of nights in Calgary and when they called on Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moody, they learned the sad news of the passing away of Carmen Carman in early last week. Carmen was a well known-in-law and so the whole community will be saddened by this message and sympathy is sent to Colleen and boys as well as Harry and Esther.

A letter received from Delyn Cox, B. Vincent's saying she would love to be in Har-disty to enjoy our cooler weather as it is unusually hot in the Valley at this time of year. So hot that the heat is almost unbearable. Asks for new and cozy sweaters for us, we could we can't find, as we have beautiful weather here yet, so now, the wait is on as she gets the paper.

The Strang Lodge held their last meeting of the year at the home of Erna Mathews. Virginia Johnson made the lovely marble Brulee cake for several of us with birthdays in November and December.

The Christmas party will be on Dec. 12th and no more meetings till February as Pearl Hinley and her sister are leaving for Australia before too long and Pearl is expected to give a good account of herself on her trip, to the Strang Lodge on her arrival back in February.

Weekend visitors at the Dick Erickson home included Irene Schmitz and Claver of Calgary and Mr. and Mrs. Joyce Johnson and boys, Judy Schmitz and Dave Semchuk, all of Edmonton.

Mrs. Helen Taitson, Mrs. Mary Simon and Mrs. Ardith Gould arrived home on Monday night from Prince George where, along with Mrs. Maude Sparrow of Red Deer, they competed in Molsons Tournament of Champions Bungalow.

Mr. Ed Simon was along as the driver, I hear that they had a wonderful time and saw some of the top curlers, so thought it all worth while even if they didn't make it to the prize.

Sorry to hear Mrs. Helen Webb is back in hospital, at this time.
At the Sealers Citizens Card Party on Wednesday afternoon and evening last week on Main Street there were six tables of whist players and a couple of pool players. Prizes for the highest score went to Mrs. Richards and Mr. Steve Pottinger while consolation prizes were awarded Mrs. T. Cookson and Mr. Bill Russell.

A car load of ladies from Killam were welcome guests. A special cake in honor of Mr. Steve Pottinger's 60th birthday was enjoyed after the meal.
Get well wishes to Mrs. J.L. Mairhead in Killam Hospital and Mrs. Pat Zwick in hospital in Edmonton.

Happy to hear Rev. Bob Campbell is home from the Aberdeen Hospital in Edmonton.
Mr. and Mrs. Irving Bergman spent the weekend in Calgary visiting with son Larry and family.

Also in Calgary for the weekend were Mrs. Belva Whitehead and Mr. and Mrs. Pat Harris who visited with Mr. and Mrs. Brian Rumbough and children.

Lorna Shaw flew to Port Smith, NWT where she has a position as a social worker supervisor with the Territorial Government in the department of Health and Social Development. She will be working with abused children and their parents.

Mr. Cliff Pope was in Regina attending a mechanics school last week.

Volunteers graduate

The graduation of the 1976 Volunteers at the Hardisty Hospital was held at the Catholic Church Hall on November 14 at 8:00 p.m.
The girls in the program are Tammy Anderson, Dorinda Farrance, Carol Karl, Lana Sakabe, Carol Morrison, Laura Manning, Hone Crane, Loreta Manning, Mary DeKock, Agnes DeKock, and Nadine Thompson (credits).
Mrs. Zavers, the instructor, gave a resume on the Volunteer program: what it included and how it started.
Mr. George Matthews congratulated the girls and also gave some details on the progress of the new hospital. The government has received the functional plan and the Hospital Planning Board is waiting for their reaction on it.
President Hillary Gray extended her congratulations to the girls for their success.
Lunch was supplied after the graduation by the Hospital Kitchen Staff.

Friends, Albertans, Constituents

I write, not to bore you, but to tell of my thoughts re political maneuvering and the decline of government by representation.

The noble emperor and his "now" government decreed that electoral boundaries should be reviewed, rightly so, and a state of noblemen were empowered. Now, it came to pass The Commission reviewed the performance and turned thumbs up on two and down on one. Not once, not twice, but three times did The Commission ask for peasant participation and as they said "in areas where significant changes are proposed", i.e. public hearing held in Calgary, Edmonton and Viking. Does this seem ambitious? No, I say to you, when none of the three hearings were held in the constituency of Sedgewick-Coronation which is scheduled to be deleted.

Our statesman Loughed has repeatedly promised to revitalize the rural areas (which seem to extend only ten miles east of Camrose and Stettler). We believed and grievously shall we answer for it. Even now his ministers come to us, sometimes like whirling-winged chariots of old, and offer tokens such as grants, Senior Citizen Homes, etc. Like in Roman times, even the common need appealing.

The foregoing is a take-off on what can be called the greatest political intrigue in history and my apologies to Wm. Shakespeare. But I feel the elimination if this provincial constituency runs a similar parallel.

The Electoral Boundaries Commission looked at the province and felt that Edmonton and Calgary should have more representation, which is good. But problems arose when smaller rural constituencies had fewer people than before and this left three constituencies open to be eliminated. One of the most logical to be eliminated was held by a very vocal opposition member. No, that wouldn't do, perhaps the other? It was represented by a cabinet minister... leaving the only wise thing to do politically... get rid of our eastern constituency, Sedgewick-Coronation.

After all, if you look at this area closely, the government have all but forgotten us anyway. Where else in the province do you find such a geographic location with no resident judge, game warden, driver testing. Also, by percentage of population, we lack other provincial services and buildings. A good example is our lack of a provincial park in this constituency and roads that lead up to the area but stop there.

It would seem to me that by keeping this constituency intact, it would add only one more seat to the legislature, or less than 2% increase. Compare that with the projected growth of the provincial civil service at 25% by the 1980s. I would prefer government by elected representation than by bureaucrats.

One may say "why all the fuss and bother now, why not at the public meetings that were held?" The answer to that is easy, in the fact that the "powers that be" did hold meetings at the outer edges of the area. One does not test the temperature of a boiling pot at the outside edge. I conclude that they did not want people participation, a strange attitude for a government who promised a more open and people-orientated administration.

Well, here we are, stuck on our reservation like the first people who roamed this portion of the province. A fitting end for the pioneers, men who still live in the towns from Killam to Hughenden and Castor to Consort.

The Sedgewick Kindergarten children have really been busy this last month, with what one party and then another. The Halloween Party on October 29th started the ball rolling when the Kindergarten children as well as some mothers dressed up in costumes. They had a tour of the Lodge and the school which was enjoyed by all. After their tour they were joined by the rest of the mothers in the Kindergarten Room where they bobbed for apples and played a few games. The children then passed out ghosts (which they had made themselves) to each mother. This ended a most enjoyable time.

On November 12 the Kindergarten had a "Pleasure Days Tea", the theme based on the Pleasure Days. This was for the Grandmothers of the Kindergarten Children. Each child had sent their grandmother an invitation and as the grandmothers arrived they were presented with a corsage. The we ones had made themselves. A most enjoyable time was had and from what I hear, I think it is safe to say the grandmothers had as good a time as did the grandchildren. To complete the day each grandmother was proudly handed a gift wrapped package which contained a hat and to set their tea pot on. These gifts were also made by the children themselves and were very special. A comment heard from the grandmothers was the wonderful way in which their teacher, Mrs. Polga had handled them. Made the grandmothers feel that their "precious dumplings" were in good hands.

On Thursday, November 25 there is to be a special meeting with two guest speakers from the Parks and Recreation in attendance. They will be showing slides and be talking about Creative Playgrounds. It is hoped that the fathers as well as the mothers will attend this very important meeting. The regular business meeting will get underway at 7:30 p.m. sharp with the guest speakers to take over at 8:00 p.m. This will take place at the Lutheran Church in the Kindergarten Room. Please plan to attend. See you all there!

Daysland council meet

The regular Council meeting of the Town of Daysland was held on Tuesday, November 23 at 8:00 p.m. in the Town Office. Present were Councilors: Danberg, Henry, Stiller, Davidson, Larson and Tanager, Mayor Lissack presided.

The Fire Chief, Mr. Bob Houshara was present to discuss various matters with the Council. He reported that our fire fighting equipment is in good shape, as items are needed, he requested that consideration be given to installing new steering in the newer Fire Engine as it was very difficult to maneuver. This is already being looked in to by Councilors Davidson and was regarded as a good idea. The Fire Dept. has a full complement of members and turn out to fires has always been adequate this year. There is a problem with other people and traffic in general gathering around the Fire Hall and fire sites, especially in the country. This often makes it difficult for the Fire Engine to move as freely and as quickly as it should without damage to cars and interested bystanders. It was thought that some traffic control training for Firemen would be useful. People are requested to keep well away from the Fire Hall when the Fire Sire goes.

Councillor Houshara reported that the P.E.S. Director for Pictou County started work in the County Office in Sedgewick on Nov. 1st. He is at present gathering information and getting to know the people and problems of the area, interested citizens, with his help are trying to form a Social Club for unmarried, widowed and divorced people and their children. A gathering to discuss such a Club will be held in the Daysland Community Hall on Monday, November 29th at 8:00 p.m.

The Daysland and District Recreation Board requested the Town to send a letter to each organization in Town asking if they would be in favor of a Homecoming Banquet to celebrate Daysland's Seventieth Birthday next year. Council agreed this was a good idea.

Alberta Transportation sent information about "Facility" signs which would be placed along main highways. The cost to the Town would be approximately $100 per sign and it was decided to request that two signs should be available to us. These would show that such things as gasoline, motel and restaurant were available here.

The Traffic By-Law for the Town was reviewed and it was amended to read "Trucks over 40 lbs may not drive or park on Main Street between 26th and 51st Ave."

Several Councilors had been Special Constables for Halloween and after their report it was clear that this is an unpopular and often unpleasant job. Perhaps in the future Council may ask for help in this task from community minded parents.

People installing sewer and water lines to new buildings are reminded that these pipes must be officially inspected by the Town Foreman before they are covered by earth.

"Here's how to keep your fireplace cozy - and safe."

Ron Gibbons, Northwestern's Residential Marketing Representative, has these words of advice for wood-burning fireplace users.

"When using your fireplace, please remember that an extra supply of fresh air is essential. Otherwise, there's a possibility of depleting the supply of air to your gas appliances — the air they need for proper combustion and venting. You can ensure a sufficient supply of air and avoid the possibility of a hazardous situation by:

1. Opening a window when using the fireplace.
2. Closing the fireplace damper when the fireplace is not in use. You'll prevent loss of heat up the chimney and conserve energy.

For more information on home heating safety, pick up our free pamphlet, 'Take Time For Home Heating Safety', at your nearby gas company office."

Adolph-Edwards wed

The Full Gospel Church in Veteran was the scene of a quiet wedding on Saturday, September 18 when Doris Edwards of Veteran and Henry Adolph of Killam were united in marriage.

Attending the bridal couple were Edith and Dick Brewer of Edmonton, eldest daughter and son-in-law of the bride. Usher was Ben Elderby, the brides son-in-law. Rev. Allan Buchanan officiated at the double ring ceremony while Mrs. Buchanan was the ring bearer.

The bride was charming in a floor-length gown of salmon pink silver brocade double knit, complemented by a pearl necklace and a corsage of white carnations, pink roses and baby's breath. Mrs. Brewer's gown was of pale blue flowered silk knit. Her matching corsage was of peach lined carnations and orange roses.

During the signing of the register Mrs. Judy Freeman of Edmonton the bride's eldest granddaughter sang "A Wedding Prayer".

Following the wedding a reception for 50 guests was held at the Veterans Community Hall. Mr. Gerald Edwards of Medicine Hat, the bride's eldest son, was Master of Ceremonies. The toast to the bride was proposed by her youngest son, Ron Edwards of Westlock.

A program of sacred music was supplied by members of both the bride's and groom's family. Potted bromeliads, chrysanthemums were sent for the occasion by Leonard Edwards, son of the bride, and son Ken Edwards provided the wedding cake.

Out of town guests attended from Westlock, Calgary, Edmonton, Medicine Hat, Red Deer and Oyen.

Following a short trip to Banff the couple have taken up residence in Killam.

Arthur C. Bunney (right), retiring past president of the Alberta School Trustees Association, was honored by his fellow trustees at the annual convention of the Alberta School Trustees Association in Edmonton last week, with the presentation of an Honorary Life Membership in the organization. The presentation, at the annual banquet of the association, was made by ASTA President Dr. Audrey Griffiths.

Each year, at the annual convention, the Alberta School Trustees Association honors, with an award and a gold watch, a first year teacher in Alberta schools whose dedication, capability and human qualities have brought forth her her associations. This is known as the Edwin Parr Teacher Award.

The award this year was won by Miss Jerry-Lynn Duns, who had been nominated by the County of Mountain View. Miss Duns is now married and teaching at Hardisty.

Mrs. Burden is shown receiving the award and the gold watch from ASTA President Dr. Audrey Griffiths. Bystander is ASTA Past President Art Bonney of the County of Flagstaff. In whose jurisdiction Mrs. Burden is now teaching, nomination by her board and

New lottery winners can not be found

The final draw of the $250,000 Western Canada Lottery was held in Edmonton, October 26. At that time, right major prizes winning numbers worth from $25,000 to $250,000 were generated.

As of November 15th, all major prizes but the two $250,000 prizes had been claimed. This means that somewhere, some place, there are two quarter millionaires who may not be aware of their good fortune.

Lottery officials are puzzled over the fact that holders of the two quarter million dollar prize winning tickets — numbers 711297 and 155652 have not come forward to claim their prize. Because of the draw system employed by the Western Canada Lottery, it is a fact that these prize winning tickets were definitely sold to the public.

It is the first time in history of the Western Canada Lottery that the two quarter million dollar prizes have not been claimed within ten days of the draw date.

The two $250,000 prize winning numbers along with the other six, were drawn on the 27th TV lottery network on the evening of October 26th. They have also been extensively advertised in daily and weekly newspapers throughout Western Canada and on the electronic media.

Holders of the two $250,000 winning tickets have one year in which to claim their prize. In this case until November 1, 1977. If, at that time they are unclaimed, the money will be returned to the public in the form of bonus prizes in the lottery format that may be in effect at that time, as it is an established principle that any unclaimed prize fund will not benefit the lottery organization.

It is very interesting to note that the two $250,000 prizes were sold in the same area as the $250,000 prize which was claimed on November 1, 1977. If, at that time they are unclaimed, the money will be returned to the public in the form of bonus prizes in the lottery format that may be in effect at that time, as it is an established principle that any unclaimed prize fund will not benefit the lottery organization.

Question: I am having difficulties with new cattle consuming the commercial medicated Feedlot Starter Pellets. I've had good success in the past with these pellets, a good number of the cattle in the feedlot will not consume the pellets this fall. . . .

Answer: There are numerous reasons and problems associated with new cattle reluctant to consume medicated feedlot pellets. Digestive disorders and a slight depression in appetite in newly-arrived cattle in the feedlot have been problems for a number of years. Any disease or condition that alters rumen function is detrimental to the normal flora present and this in turn may delay the return of the normal of the sick animal.

Cattle recovering from such disorders as indigestion, impaction, gastritis or other conditions which have required administration of sulfonamides or other drugs may show anoxia (lack of appetite) from rumen dysfunction. The following list may pinpoint your current problem of getting the cattle to consume the medicated Feedlot Starter Pellets:

1. The sudden change in the type of feed, for example, from grass to pellets or grain, silage and/or hay and a protein supplement.

2. Too rapid pushing of grain concentrates.

3. Too much protein.

4. Not enough roughage.

5. Unpalatable feed.

6. Too much good quality hay or grass silage.

7. Digestive disorders caused by infections.

8. In connection with Feedlot Starter Pellets, Sulfonamide antibiotic, there is an adjustment in the rumen microflora to the antibiotic. This may cause a slight depression in rumen function and reduce the appetite for 24 to 36 hours after the initial feeding. Sufferers also may be noticed. Usually after the 36 or 48 hours the appetite should be restored to normal.

9. Because the cattle are not "bank broke" the feeder should use his past experience in getting the animals to eat conditioning pellets and grain.

Spreading some of the pellets in the grass and having a small amount of salt spread over the feed in the bunk or self-feeder. This has helped on numerous occasions.

FACTS ABOUT MICROWAVES
By Diane Bourne, D.H.E.

The microwave oven is a completely new and different way of cooking food. It can cook many foods faster and easier, but don't expect it to replace your other appliances or the conventional range.

Microwaves are absorbed by food because it contains moisture. When the microwaves are absorbed they cause the liquid or moisture molecules in the food to vibrate at a fantastic rate. It is the friction between the moisture molecules that produces the heat inside the food.

It will be a demonstration of the food and then the heat is conducted through the rest of the food in the same way as conventional cooking. Microwave food appears as though it's "baking itself".

Microwaves pass through non-conductive glass, plastic and plastic, therefore, a wide variety of cooking utensils can be used in the microwave oven. Such utensils usually stay cool to the touch, however, if the food is heated to a very hot temperature, the heat will transfer to the food making it hot.

Here's a brief description of the different ways you can dress your windows.

Microwaves pass through non-conductive glass, plastic and plastic, therefore, a wide variety of cooking utensils can be used in the microwave oven. Such utensils usually stay cool to the touch, however, if the food is heated to a very hot temperature, the heat will transfer to the food making it hot.

the sun. A separate thing is another possibility.

2. Bonus shade: There are many applications where such a shade is the perfect answer. For a kitchen window is one possibility. Here, shading of the shade is avoided yet a blackout is obtained by lowering the shade. A shade may also have possibilities in a bay window. Matching valances can add extra flare to the originality of this treatment.

3. Pencil Pleats: This shade is made from a prepared heading; you draw the strings. It looks lively in velvet and is very suitable for a stationary shade.

4. Raffete: This treatment is again a prepared heading with draw strings. The heading of the shade has a gathered appearance - a little different from a bedroom or sheer which has an overdrap.

5. Cartridge Pleat: When a fabric is in itself a work of art and the design must be appreciated, the cartridge pleat fits the bill. This pleat is at a maximum 2 1/2" and is then stuffed with cotton.

This list is not exclusive. There are also Austrian shades, fabric roller shades, fabric panels on panel track, Beaufort or Springcrest, swags, valances, and woven woodens.

Arm yourself, against the Flu.

(Get your Flu shot.)

The flu which could threaten Albertans this winter is commonly known as 'Swine' flu. This does not mean you can get it from pigs or eating pork...rather, it seems that pigs can suffer much like humans, from a similar strain. The flu is caused by a new type of virus, and a lot of people are unprotected against it.

Most people have experienced the miserable discomforts that come with winter flu...coughing, soreness, nausea and depression. These disabilities are not too serious, but the disease can be accompanied by a viral pneumonia which could prove serious.

A provincial immunization program to protect Albertans against the flu will be started as vaccine supplies become available.

Your local health authority will be making announcements in your area.

The program is directed to those most likely to be affected severely by a bout of the flu. It is also aimed at those workers who must keep essential services operating. The program will begin soon, with immunization of the chronically ill; this will be followed by immunization of all other eligible groups.

If you belong in one of the categories listed, then you should receive the vaccine.

4-H advisory council meets

The 4-H Advisory Council met on November 5 at the Mayfield Inn Educational Centre in conjunction with the Provincial 4-H Leaders Conference. Old business which was discussed was: Truck and Tractor Rally; Provincial 4-H Barbecue Beef Seminar. The above events had good response from members, leaders and the general public.

The new business discussed centered around activities for our 60th Anniversary celebration. The main discussion centered around a 4-H Centre for Alberta. This is a project which the 4-H members and leaders have been urging the Alberta 4-H Advisory Council and the 4-H Branch to establish. The Centre, as proposed would provide a facility and natural land areas necessary to accommodate the educational recreational and social activities of the 4-H program. The need is great because the Program Staff are encountering increasing problems in securing facilities that will adequately house the number of participants; can be looked at as a reasonable cost; are available at an appropriate time; do not severely restrict the type of program which has been designed by the staff in response to the needs of the 4-H young people.

What are we looking for: approximately 1/4 section of undeveloped land; preferably with lake access, good tree cover and a diversity of wildlife and recreation; within 100 miles of Edmonton or Calgary with good access roads.

a facility containing the following: be constructed in a suitable location on the site; accommodation for 200 people; cafeteria and kitchen to serve 200.

approximately ten small meeting rooms accommodating 20 persons each; large assembly and conference area.

office space; staff accommodation and dining; recreation and game area; storage space and first aid room; designed for wheelchair access.

It has been recommended that the Alberta 4-H Advisory Council attempt to acquire or acquire the private land holding of 143 acres on Battle Lake. This site has many good advantages and is ideal.

Also to celebrate the 60th Anniversary it was suggested to encourage club fairs in

Read the directions - before you proceed

by Donna L. Martin

This morning, for the hundredth time, I found myself tugging frantically to pull open a heavy, official-looking glass door, bearing an even more official looking sign proclaiming "PUSH!" But not to worry. For, with indispensible certainty, I know that within a few moments another unsuspecting person will approach that same door from the other side, and will push with all his strength in blind defiance of the sign which pleads, "PULL!"

A similar situation arises whenever my husband seeks to do me a favour of making my breakfast. Finding the cupboard still he manages to unearth the pancake flour, and mistakenly ignoring the step-by-step directions on the package, augmented by scrumptiously explicit pictures, he tells helplessly to his drowsy wife, luxuriating for a final few minutes beneath the blankets, "Hey, how do you make this stuff? Do I need any milk? What will I cook them in?"

And there was the Christmas morning when my young nephew eagerly tore away the cherry red foil and chocolate Santa Claus to discover a shiny ten-car electric train. Barely had he opened the box when his father pounced upon the myriad tiny pieces of track and other equipment, and, heedless of the plump little instructions booklet, launched an hour's struggle to assemble the complex little machine, aided only by his own sometimes questionable ingenuity, oblivious to his son's cautioning protests.

How many cracker carions have you seen where the carefully designed "just pull and suck in" flap lies undisturbed while the bottom of the box, which plastically instructs, "Open other end," has been torn into limp, useless strips?

Perhaps these scenes are indicative of human impatience or human carelessness, or maybe even of human illiteracy. Or perhaps they are reminders that natural curiosity really isn't dead after all. Perhaps the childlike urge for discovery and exploration has not been totally blunted by the rigours of education and the habit and conformity which accompany growing up. Why take time to read the directions when we can experience first hand the fun - and frustration - of discovering for ourselves the how and why of the way things work.

Today manufacturers, academics and the so-called "experts" delight in striving to make even such relatively straightforward acts as opening large glass doors into major operations, necessitating detailed instructions. Even if the brand new electric train must be sent off for repairs before making its maiden voyage across the basement floor and the cracker box is so mutilated that the crackers must be stored in the cookie jar, let us not be too hasty in our intention to send them off to someone else's guidelines and "learn to do by doing."

local parades and also the wearing of 4-H T-shirts. The 4-H Branch is also looking into a Family Exchange Trip perhaps to Finland this summer. More information on this will be available later.

There will be another Leader's seminar to be held in mid February, at Cochrane. The Advisory Council would like your comments on such an undertaking. Please feel free to write Mrs. Carol Arnesen, Sedgewick or Mrs. Verena Probst, Longbeek, your Advisory Council Members.

Remembrance Day services held at Lougheed

The Remembrance Day Services were held in the Lougheed Hall with Pastor Ray Nelberg of the Lutheran Parish of the Lougheed and the Anglican parish of the Lougheed. The parade included the Veterans, Auxiliary and the Girl Scouts, and their leaders, Sherry Mayne, to the Cresthill. The ladies of the Auxiliary served coffee, cakes and cookies to everyone in the hall.

Appetites were whetted by a happy, lilting song sung with Pauline Boucher at the piano. At 1:30 members and their guests, numbering about fifty sat down to a scrumptious meal prepared by the Auxiliary. The toast to the Queen was proposed by President Jack Butcher. Gratitude from the Village was expressed by Deputy Mayor Mrs. Roberta Riddick. Appreciation was expressed by President, Hazel Swanson of the Auxiliary. Thos. Barton, W. Coonson, W. Greys and Thos. Greys. Guests for the afternoon were Arnie Gilroy and his wife Mildred of Bawell, M.L.A. Gordon Stremberg and Lee Haden of the Bawell Legion.

Zone Commander Arnie Gilroy presented past Zone Commander Thos. Barton with Service Medal from Zone 3; a certificate of Service to W. Greys; A 30 year Veterans pin to W. Coonson and a 30 year Veterans pin was awarded to Fred Rogers. Mrs. Margaret Deamus accepted the pin on behalf of our senior Veterans. Margaret graciously donated the Legion on behalf of Mr. Rogers. Past President pins were presented to Mr. G. Kirkman and Mr. A. Rassel.

Three lovely birthday cakes were made and decorated by the Auxiliary.

Hardisty and District News

I must admit that there are times when I feel that getting the news rounded up for another week is quite a chore. I had sent a lovely letter to Mrs. W. Vanderwardt, McCreedy thanking me so much and others too, for the news from the Lougheed and the Hardisty and District News.

Yesterday we watched the big crane unload the steel beams for Wally's new lounge so now it will likely shape up quite quickly.

If anyone reading this would know the address of the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Jack Lewis of Edmonton, would it be kind of you to find out the late Mrs. Daphne (Shag) Lewis at 79 Grandview Street, S.E. Alberta please? Someone I have mentioned knew as she married someone from there, name not known by your reporter.

Every week it seems there is a sadness to record and this time we are all so shocked and saddened by the sudden passing away of Gary Bell, on his way from Three Hills to Deerbrook, in a lone car accident. Gary had just been made Manager of the Gas Company when he had worked for some time and was in the process of moving from Deerbrook to Three Hills. He leaves his wife, Merville, his parents, the Irving Bells, and their family, also grandparents, Percy and Merville.

Hardisty and District News

On Friday night, Nov. 12th, Hardisty experienced victory once again as members of the boys and girls Basketball Teams defeated the boys and girls teams from Sedgewick.

The girls won by a large majority with the final score being 44-14. This win has enabled the girls to qualify for the finals which will be held at the latter date. The boys final score was much closer in the end with them winning 21 to 18.

Progress is really being made on the Drop-In Centre. The new part should be shingled by now.

HARDISTY SCHOOL NEWS

On Nov. 19, Hardisty School took time out of regular class activities to discover and recall the meaning of Remembrance Day. Members of the Royal Canadian Legion No. 88 were there to lead the students in finding the meaning of Remembrance Day and why we celebrate it. Rev. Conrad was present to give the presentation to the Elementary students as to what this special day has given us - the freedom and independence we all enjoy now. His presentation also provided opportunity for student involvement as he had had the Elementary students reconstruct a "Vanders Field" with the poppies they previously brought from Conrad Barile Matthews as they entered the year.

The Junior High students received a slightly different presentation in the form of a film titled, "Total War". This film gave a very concise but complete summary of the causes and effects of W.W. II. and it appeared to have a great impact on the students. Both teachers and students alike, "Thank Rev. Conrad and Conrad Barile Matthews for their time and consideration in helping us to better understand just what has been done for us."

The November meeting was called to order at the Hospital in the evening at 8:00 p.m. by Hilary Gray.

The members decided to purchase a pole lamp for the parking lot for patients who wish to read in the evening, and an electric ramp for male patients.

A donation of $25. was sent to the International Alliance of Hospital Auxiliaries.

A very kind donation was received from the now defunct recreation board (Joule and Mrs. Pedlar, Mable and Herb Redman and others).

Key Manning was elected as the new recorder on the retirement of Liz Sinker.

It was decided that our Christmas meeting would be followed by a Christmas Party. There will be a gift exchange of $2.00. The December meeting will be in the Caribou Club hall on Dec. 8 at 8 p.m.

Pres. Hilary Gray reported from Mr. Matthews that Hardisty Hospital will have an administrators who will reside in the hospital building with commencing on Dec. 1st, 1978.

The President then thanked all of the Auxiliary Members for their help at the "Bargain Bazaar". She also thanked everyone for the donated prizes, saying it played a major part in success of the bazaar.

Doris Yekish and Erna Matthews have been delegated to attend the Hospital Auxiliaries Convention in April.

The meeting was adjourned and hosts was served.

Services for A. Huse

Arne Huse was born in St.
ange, Norway, April 28, 1881 and at an early age, he came to Canada with his parents and brother, Per. Another brother, Einar, was born in Alberta.
They settled first in the Greta district and in 1932, they moved to their new farm in the 75-agust district. Arne started his education at the Greta school and later attended Olds Agricultural College, where he graduated in 1927.

In 1942, he was married to Ella Remick and to this marriage three children were born.
He was always active in community life: an ardent ball player in early days and received many hours enjoyment while playing the saxophone.
His kind and gentle disposition earned him to all who knew him. He was Past Master of Alliance Lodge AP & AM.
He leaves to mourn his loss, his loving wife, Ella, one daughter, Muriel Ann Brownridge of Edmonton and two sons, James Edward of Ponoka and Alfred.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and gratitude to the Galtland Ambulance Service, to the members of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, who so kindly gave the use of their church for the service; to Rev. George Butler for his comforting message and prayers; to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Anderson for their gift of music to all the pallbearers and to Mr. Sharp and Hobbs's
Funeral Home.

Special thanks to all our friends for their understanding and concern which helped to ease our sorrow; for the beautiful flowers brought to the home; the food and visits; the many cards with personal messages of sympathy and the memorials given in memory of Arne to the various funds, churches and cemeteries. Special thanks to the Greta Goodwill Club and others for serving lunch.
Your kindness and thoughtfulness, during the loss of our loved one, is deeply appreciated.

Protect yourself

The Health Unit has received the first limited supply of swine flu vaccine.
This supply has been distributed from the allo doctors serving the County of Flagstaff for those people over age 20 with chronic illness (people suffering from heart, lung or kidney disease or diabetes).
These people are most likely to be affected severely by a bout of the flu and so have priority to receive the vaccine.
If you fall in this category, see your doctor for your swine flu shot.
As other shipments of vaccine are supplied to us, other eligible groups will be immunized by the Health Unit, and following that, clinics will be held for the general public, age 20 to 50 and those age 65
and over.
There are precautions:
The possibility of allergic reaction does exist. The following precautions should be noted.

People with a known allergy egg or chicken should receive the vaccine only under medical supervision.
People with a fever should delay getting immunized until the fever is gone.
People who have received another type of vaccine within the past 11 days should consult a physician before taking the flu vaccine.
Children and young adults under 20 years of age are in low priority group, as they may have a severe reaction to the vaccine and yet receive little protection from it.
Continue to watch in this paper and on posters in your town for further information regarding clinics to be held where more swine flu vaccine is made available to us.

LONG TIME BUS DRIVER
Mr. Jack McLeod, who drives for Canadian Coachways (Alberta), has been presented with a Sterling Silver Ring with Ruby by our District Manager, B. Vip, at Edmonton, Alberta in recognition of driving without an accident for 15 years without an accident.
This achievement represents $15,000 accident free miles, which is equivalent to thirty-nine safe trips around the world.

CORRECTION —
In last week's paper it was incorrectly reported that a donation was received by the Hardisty Hospital. The donation should have read —
"A donation was received from the new defence administration club."
Apologies are extended to the active and Executive Board in Hardisty.

Top aide leaves government

The Lougheed government will lose one of its most independent advisers at the end of the year when Harold Mil-lican leaves out a career that began with the 1971 election of the Conservatives.
Known as Peter Lougheed's closest personal friend and currently deputy minister of intergovernmental affairs, Mr.
Millican will take over as executive secretary of Canadian Petroleum Association Jan. 1.
In his more than five years of government employment,
Mr. Millican has established a unique reputation — he not only is one of the few people who openly and often speaks his mind but also has a track record of being listened to by the premier.

His independence is typified by the fact he holds, and always has, a Liberal party membership card. He brands federal Tories "feudalistic" and says he looked up with the Lougheed Conservatives because they offer the best social conscience in the province.
But his ties go back further than that. Harold Millican was an original member of the Lougheed group of four — schoolboys in Calgary who kept close over the years and eventually came to run the province.

Owners form association

During the summer of 1976 gas drilling activity in the East Central District showed a marked increase. It was at this time farmers began to realize that as usual when two parties using the same land for two different purposes, problems usually occur. With this in mind, a meeting was arranged by Ulfmark, to be held in the Lutheran Church basement in Sedgewick on Nov. 14th at five p.m. It was at this meeting where a list of discussion took place, and the nucleus of the "East Central" Land Holders Protective Association was formed. Another meeting will be held shortly after the new year which will be well advertised in advance of that meeting night. To prepare to set up this meeting a temporary board of directors was set up namely Rod Jacobsen as President, John Bahken as Vice-President, Leonard Berg as Secretary-Treasurer and directors Eber Walte, Norm Nicholson and Orville Foster.

The areas of concern that we will be dealing with are:
1. To promote a better working arrangement between the gas developers and the landowners.
2. To work and devise changes in drilling and target area regulations that are more compatible with modern farming practices.
3. To develop operating policies with the operators of natural resource compatible to farming practices.
4. To set a suggested minimum payment for all well site damages, lease rentals, service roads and crop damage.
5. To work toward minimum surface damage.
6. And to keep the landholders of the area well informed on current developments vital to their individual farm interests

R. PETERSON & SON, KILLAM

I can not pray

In a large slumber on her course over the scene, one of the engineers lay in his bunk in great suffering, his death apparently drawing near. One of his mates came to his bunk one day, and in his frank manner he said: "Well, Bill, you seem to suffer a lot — how is it with you?"

"Yes," replied the sick man, "but, O Tom, the suffering of my body is nothing to that of my mind! I'm dying, Mate, and I'm going to hell. Oh, Tom, do pray for me!"

Tom stopped short, for that was a new thing asked of him. Thus as his mate again pressed the same request he said, "I can't, Bill. I don't know how."

The dying man again pressed his request; then suddenly Tom recalled a text which as a boy he had learned at the Sunday School. These were the words:

"The blood of Jesus Christ His Son, cleanse us from all sin."

So, falling on his knees, Tom exclaimed: "O Lord, here are two dreadful sinners; do, Lord, save my mate and me! Thy blood is enough for us both. Then they went together; and, though unexpressed in words, the Lord who sees the contrite spirit, who understands the grief or groan of the heart too full or stable to speak, heard the cry of true repentance, and there and then spoke grace to the troubled soul of the dying man.

Shortly after this, Bill, the engineer, passed away in perfect peace, in the quiet and full assurance that, "The blood of Jesus Christ (God's) has cleansed us from all sin." Yes, dear reader, the precious blood of Jesus, shed on Calvary for sinners, does the most that any man can do for the sinner who repents and believes. It atoned for the sins of the sinner on the cross; it atoned for the sins of Bill, the engineer; it atoned for mine, and will for yours if you but turn to Jesus. Thus as his mate again pressed the same request he said, "I can't, Bill. I don't know how."

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Monte Keith
Editor - Community Press
Sedgewick, Alberta

How very fitting that my first letter to the editor should be written, not to one of the big city newspapers, but to our very own Community Press. I have been a subscriber for many years, and I would like to commend you, most highly, for your excellent Editorial, which appeared in the first page of the November 21 issue of your paper. I have of this date, sent a copy of your editorial along with a letter of my own to Premier Peter Lougheed. I would urge every constituent in Sedgewick - Coroner to do likewise. Perhaps we may get an amendment to this legislation, which would add more seats to the legislature, and enable us to keep our constituency. Let us all speak out and show how much we care.

Sincerely,
Rene Marie Thompson

EDITOR:
I am writing to various newspapers across Canada in the hopes of making contact with members of the Ship's Company who sailed in the Canadian Navy frigate H.M.C.S. "CAP-DE-MARINE" during the years 1945-1946.

It has been over 30 years since we sailed our "so long" and went our separate ways and just maybe there are some who have taken up residence in this area. I hope to re-establish old friendships by means of a new letter and if possible, organize a reunion in 1977.

Courses well received

The adult courses offered by Flagstaff Further Education Council continue to fill the needs of people in this area.

The meat cutting course in Redegwick in early November was well received by fourteen students. In Dayland a Ceramics workshop on firing and glazing registered nine people with instructor Mrs. Thelma Klitschy. A weekend workshop in early November on curling was well received by twenty five sports minded people at Dayland. First Aid in Loughheed has been well received by eleven students while Christmas Crafts has fourteen enrolled at Loughheed and at Hardisty fifteen are registered. Alliances, Foresburg and Killam are active in the field of Further Education at the present time, though I do not have any figures to state.

I am happy to report that the Further Education Council will offer courses in the ten towns in the county of Flagstaff in the New Year. Mrs. Claude Fuller of Galahad, a new volunteer contact, is busy setting up courses for that area, while Joyce Steiger of Straine, another new volunteer contact, happily reports a successful afternoon workshop on "Blue Jean Techniques" drew seventeen participants. Joyce has plans for other courses in the new year, (watch for brochure). These two volunteer contacts have caused me great anxiety, since I feel I'm doing a poor job if there's no action in the Adult Education area. So far, I've been unable to get a contact for the Heiler area, so have spent some time on setting up a "Cake Decorating" course, an introductory I hope, to more courses this fall. However, this can only happen if a volunteer contact is found for that area.

The contacts covering the remaining seven communities are busy setting up courses and searching for the needs of their area. Hopefully, one of the new year courses in the December 15th issues of Community Press and Enterprise will be able to pick up on the new year, (watch for brochure) and register early. Courses must be cancelled if we fail to have eight adults registered. Due to lack of reserve personnel some courses must be cancelled. The needs of our area, however, I feel free to get in touch with your contact or myself, and express the needs as you see them.

QUESTION: Many cow/calf operators have been inquiring about best cost winning ration for their beef cows due to late in March and April. Since it is almost impossible to answer all the specific inquiries, trust this will generally answer all of the inquiries.

ANSWER: Energy is the primary problem most of our cow/calf operators are facing. Under best conditions a cow can lose 100 lbs. of live weight in order to get the reproductive tract. Since it is almost impossible to answer all the specific inquiries, trust this will generally answer all of the inquiries.

Assuming that they are getting a good feed of greenfeed or medium quality hay, I would recommend feeding 12 lbs. per day of a 20% protein cube and 2 1/2 lbs. of grain. The amount of grain fed will depend largely on climatic conditions. As an alternative, one can also feed 25% Liquid Supplement free-choice in a lick tank. It is possible to govern the cow's daily consumption to 2-3 lbs. plus several pounds of grain and roughage. Liquid supplement has several ingredients that are superior due to the fact these ingredients are incorporated into the supplement in a soluble form. The form of phosphorus used is almost 100% biologically available to the animal. Vitamins A, D, E, K are all added into the supplement in a soluble form plus several essential trace minerals.

Whatever program is chosen, make sure the energy and protein are adequate, plus an abundance of phosphorus and the vitamins A, D, E, K and trace minerals mentioned previously.

Hunting season again

by Violet M. Copeland

The first blue and white canyons of the past my deer. Hunting season again, which means no more deer grazing on our lawn. At this time of year I pay annual homage to the incomparable sense of humor of a government who sells a hunting license to the farmer who has fed the deer all year round. He then pays the same fee as the city-dweller who has never contributed a blade of grass to their support. Then said farmer hitting up his overall and spends varying amounts of time in the ciddle, rounding up at least one deer through gates some happy hunter left open. Work to repair the fences where somebody cut the wires or broke a post off to facilitate a quick takeoff into yet another field that is next on his agenda. If he finds any time to hunt after feeding the quarry, paying for the privilege, and sending the damage, he is a fortunate man.

His wife will also find the deerhunting season a source of irritation. Accustomed to peace and quiet, she will now be roused by racing motors, merry shouts, and the squeal of tires long before the dawn each morning, her favorite dreams punctuated with blasts of gunfire. Bursts of traffic at any hour render her quiet lane unsafe for children or animals. Short, sharp explosions, at brief intervals are a fragile reminder of casualties in former hunting seasons: the beautiful registered better, shot mysteriously a month before calving, meant to be the nucleus of a fabulous herd; young Tommy River, the local football hero, stepping proudly into the family car for his first hunting trip with dad and his older brother ... the last time he was to travel on his own feet. The old story ... a brother crawling through the fence with a gun he was sure wasn't loaded, an explosion, and Tommy a cripple for life. No more football for Tommy! Then there was that awful drowning, down south where Carl Jensen took a shortcut across the lake after a deer.

THE UNITED NATIONS

There are a number of significant differences between New York City and Russell. By contrast, all of the people of my home town can congregate at one time in the community hall whereas in the downtown core of New York, if all the people were to attempt to leave the high-rise buildings at one time, there would not be enough space in the streets, sidewalks and alleys to allow the huddling to be completed. Moreover, when one recognizes that there are more people in the World Trade Center Building than in the constituency of Battle River, then he is also sharply aware of the stark differences in lifestyles. Knowing that there are 23 million people crammed into one metropolitan area of southern New York and northern New Jersey, I could not help but sense a feeling of pride for the isolation, food producers of the prairies and the Central American plains who feed all of these people and more, three times a day, and still maintain a surplus for export. That's efficiency.

The United Nations is a very different political arena from Canada's Parliament. The obvious striking distinction that signals the nature of the world community is the fact that the Caucasians are the minority race. It was a new and enriching experience for me to be planted in the midst of brown, black and yellow skinned people, thrilled by the hope that these people collectively had the potential for achieving a new world order based on peace, fair trade, and international development.

Compared to the Parliament of Canada the General Assembly and its committee is a tranquillized forum of speeches read without modulation from prewritten scripts. The politics of the United Nations seldom surfaces in the Assembly hall but rather is actively pursued in the lounges, dining rooms and the numerous hall-way concaves. These places were filled with the international faces of mankind clustered together in deep discussion. It was common to see small groups of people of many colours and dress huddled around a small coffee table bartering over the language of a proposed United Nations Report. The talks were numerous and intense but once concluded the speakers delivered in the assembly hall as the foregone conclusion as is the vote of the respective nations.

Voicing is also an activity with a unique difference from Parliament. In Parliament you must take either an affirmative or a negative position respecting a bill. You are either for or against a stated piece of legislation. In the United Nations you have the third option, the vote of abstention. To abstain generally implies that a nation concurs with the principles of the recommendation but takes exception to one or more of its clauses relating to implementation.

Finally, the United Nations is not a legislative body. That is, it does not pass laws that have an international method of enforcement. The U.N. is rather an institution for study and recommendation. While that limitation deprives us, at present, of a true world order, it does extend the opportunity for open and frank discussion and an enriched hope for the overall health in touch of all mankind.

Killam pioneer passes

Kenneth Samuel Gibb, 79 year resident of Killam, died, passed away suddenly November 18, 1976 at the age of 72 years. Mr. Gibb was the second son of Wm. and Ann Gibb, born December 8, 1902 in Gravelly, Iowa. He moved to Killam with his parents in 1904 and received his education in the Bachelor, Willow Hall, and Killam schools.

Taking over the family farm, after the death of his father in 1918, he continued to raise Black Angus cattle until his death. Killamman Angus breeding stock was well known, having been sold to buyers across Canada as well as the U.S., China and the Argentine. Last fall four head were purchased by Scottish breeders; so completing a circle which Wm. Gibb started in 1921 when the basic herd was purchased in Scotland and established on the farm south west of Killam.

Ken served on the Board of Directors of the Canadian Aberdeen Angus Association and was a lifetime member of the Alberta Aberdeen Angus Association and the Central Alberta Angus Association. Along with interested local farmers and cattlemen he was instrumental in the formation of the local A.H. Red Club in 1946, an organization he continued to support. He was also ways available to aid other community organizations in their efforts. He is survived by his wife Helen, one daughter Mrs. Phyllis Erickson and one son, Bill all of Killam. As well as seven grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Mrs. Florence Hennessey of Evansburg, Alta. He was predeceased by his older brother Marlon in April, 1951. Funeral services were held in the Catholic Church on Nov. 20, 1976 at 10:00 a.m. Conducting the service, Pastor, Edward Erickson, Allan Fosses, Les Fosses, Eugene George and Russell Grant. Interment was in the Killam Cemetery with Fee and Sons in charge of arrangements.

Talk It Over — with Gordon

Anyone driving Highway 13 east of Camrose to Damsland and beyond has probably noticed that sometime last summer the CPR had removed old telegraph line and left the poles lying on the ground. But all of these telegraph poles are extended on an average from three to six feet over the north ditch of Highway 13 or extended anywhere from three to ten feet off the CPR right of way. It doesn't take much imagination to realize what would happen if a car was forced to take the north ditch of Highway 13 with those poles sticking out at windshield height.

Two ladies, one from Hawill and one from Kelsey contacted me of this very real and highly dangerous situation. I in turn contacted the Mtn. of Transportation and as of last Friday, Dec. 1st, they ordered the CPR to remove these poles from the right-of-way of Highway 13 immediately.

Still on the high ground of the people's railroads, the farm machine dealers at Forestburg informed me that the CNR leading platform in their town has been condemned for the last twenty years. And consequently there has been no loading off that platform for a good number of years. One dealership handles approximately 12 carloads of machinery per year which has to be unloaded 51 miles away at Camrose. According to my information, over the years the CNR have been asked if they would only supply an earth ramp but they have flatly refused to offer any co-operation whatsoever. Again, after contacting Doc Harner, the following memo was received from his office, dated December 1st, 1976: "I have contacted Canadian National regarding the situation in Forestburg. Following some discussion and research into the traffic potential the Canadian National Railway has agreed to rebuild a loading ramp at Forestburg. Construction will begin early in 1977."

Otherwise things have been fairly quiet in the constituency. Over the past two weeks I've spent a fair amount of time in Edmonton. There was a delegation from the Camrose-Kinmen to the City. We took in the annual Amalgamated Oyster supper held by the Kinmen Foundation of Alberta, Camrose Chapter.

On the 20th officially cut the ribbon at Ed Hoffman and Sons new business in Hawill. By the way, Hawill has had 11 new homes built last year. Invited to the Christmas dinner in Camrose of the directors of the Dadds-Round Hill Protective Society, speaker at the Dayland High School Social Studies Class where I was asked to speak on the Free Enterprise system. Arranged and sat in on a meeting with the Farmers Advocate and a number of farmers from Sturgeon over the forthcoming Public Utilities Board hearing in Camrose in regard to Super Gas application for rate increase.

Was at the annual meeting of the Dadds-Round Hill Protective Society where the Min. of Agriculture Marvin Ross was guest speaker. Another get together with the Farmers Advocate and land owners who are getting a rough deal on surface rights from a petroleum company. A long session with the chairman and members of the Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission on the need and ways to get full time ADAC workers in Camrose. Also sat in for a short time at the Rural Gas Co-op meeting in Edmonton. Brought greetings from government to the annual Kinsmen Ladies Night in Camrose. Last Friday evening the annual meeting of the P.C. Association of Camrose. And took Ardelt out for supper for her wedding anniversary.

Awards night held for Battle River Multi-club

On November 22nd, at the Recreation Centre, everyone's business was popping after they had finished eating at the Pot Luck Supper, which started off the Battle River Multi-Club Awards Night. Also on the agenda there was a speech given by Wayne Barnes at Conservation Camp and a speech by Karen Kuefler on CLC Week. Concerned about finances

Kevin Peterson

Principal Auditor D.W. Rogers probably produced the best explanation of the Loughheed government's new policy of budgetary restraint when he published the 1975-76 public account recently.

The government's spending soared by more than twice the rate of growth in its revenues last year. Operating expenses mounted by 28.8 per cent to $2.26 billion; while income from all sources rose by a modest 13.4 per cent to $2.3 billion compared to 1974-75.

The cost of provincial programs excluding contributions to the Heritage Fund, reached $1.97 for every man, woman and child in Alberta, or more than double the price tag in 1971.

Only oil and natural gas production saved taxpayers from shouldering heavy, extra burdens of government expansion. The depletion resources supplied $2.2 per cent of all treasury revenue.

The province still managed to finish the fiscal year last March 31 with a $667-million budgetary surplus, after capital spending of $107 million brought total expenditure to $2.5 billion.

But the impact of the Heritage Fund on future budgeting for normal annual expenses does not show in the accounts. Its money is not available for ordinary spending on schools, hospitals, roads or other routine operations.

In his last budget, Provincial Treasurer Merv Leitch estimated that the province's 1975-76 revenue for the fund so it could open this year with $1.5 billion. Another $600 million deposit is expected during 1975-76.

As a result, the province is not in a position to spend more than before but less for regular services. This year, growth of spending for education, health and local government was restricted to 11 per cent. Next year, the ceiling will drop to 10 per cent.

Restraint has been partly attributed to attempts to combat inflation. Mr. Rogers notes that the rising cost of living has an "appreciable and measurable impact on the government's own expenditures."

Mr. Leitch has also explained creation of the fund by pointing to the government's excess dependence on depletion resources to pay for services and claiming "an overwhelming need to save."

Opposition leader Bob Clark charged that the accounts show the Loughheed administration has made a mockery of the provincial budgeting process. Conservatives averred the expenditure program which the Legislature approved for them by $185 million, Mr. Clark said, was the record in the accounts.

Meanwhile, the Social Credit leader charged that the province is undermining the province's wealth, boosting the public debt, and promoting "runaway bureaucracy."

Total revenue has increased $1.5 billion since 1973 but the treasury's net surplus has risen only $25 million. In the same period, loan guarantees have climbed 32 per cent and administrative costs 19 per cent, the opposition leader warned.

Got the time, Vern?

Longtime Calgary Power employee, Vernon Booth, marks his 25th anniversary with the Alberta-based utility this year.

Mr. Booth joined Calgary Power Ltd. at Larocbe in November of 1951 as a district manager's helper. In January he was transferred to a crew at Lethbridge for special months. He returned to district work in the community of Altis serving as assistant district manager for 10 years. He was also the assistant manager in the communities of Taber and Red Deer.

In 1953 Mr. Booth was appointed district manager of Calgary Power's Sedgewick district office.

He and his wife, Marie, have five children: Laverne, 22, at Edmonton; Laurie, 20; Brenda, 16; Stephen, 15; and Maureen, 13, all at home.

An active member of his community, Mr. Booth has served on Town Council for the past five years. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

This fall he received an inscribed watch and was inducted into Calgary Power's Quarter Century Club at the company's annual 25-Year Club dinner-dance in Calgary.

Christmas card time

By Ruth Presock
Christmas card time again, and as usual I am suffering the same complaint, that of having enough time to sit down and gather my thoughts, in order to write them.

I have three methods that I can employ. One is the "Joe and Mary's" method. I sign my usual scrawl, usually the head of the housewife first, enclose the card in an envelope, write the address, stick on a five cent stamp and it's ready for mailing.

In the writing of the message, enclosing in the envelope; the sticking on of stamps and the piling in readiness for mailing — this repetition gets to me.

At this point I feel stuck up, fagged out, and fed up!

My signature by this time looks strained and illegible and the fellow at the other end is lucky if he can read it!

This second method I've named the "Dear John" type. I buy the cards that have lots of space on them, so I can highlight all performance.

arrows and laurels, to my heart's content, until the whole card forward and back is covered with little writings, and two or three P.S.'s. This completing my card history, one hundred times, for the whole 12 months.

I enclose card in envelope, stamp the envelope with "ten cents" seal and pile for mailing. After this season I have a case of writer's cramp, mental fatigue, and this year it could be bankruptcy!

The third method is the middle road, the "cute quip" type. At the bottom of the card I write my scrawl, the head of the household first, and casually add: "Greetings! Hope you're much more cheerful this Christmas." "Bery I didn't see you when I called" or "Come see me sometime" — then again, the enclosing in the envelope, the addressing, sealing, sticking on of the stamp and piling in readiness for mailing.

This method is nearly as bad, now as I feel like, but terribly expensive for what you get — so I prefer to take the "three method", and write a few "Dear John's" a few "Joe and Mary's" and a few "cute quips".

This way my filing system

Hobby club

On the evening of Wednesday, November 17th the Amalgamated Hobbyists or Flagstaff met at the Sedgewick United Church Hall. There were 28 present.

The business meeting was chaired by Mrs. H. Simpson. The Secretary reported on the Alberta Art Foundations Exhibition at the Jubilee Auditorium in Edmonton on Nov. 16th which she attended.

Following the business meeting Mrs. Simpson introduced Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Garfield from Tellico who had a display of their lapidary work on view. The guest speakers for the evening was Miss Diane Bourne, the Home Economist who gave a most entertaining and informative talk on various subjects ranging from the services available through the Home Economist — cutting food costs and helpful recipes — also ideas for Christmas parcel wrapping. Miss Bourne also brought a few samples of recipes, favorites of her own which bore the old saying "the proof of the pudding is in the eating". They were delicious!

Lunch and the usual social hour were much enjoyed by all.

The next Hobby Club meeting will be on Wednesday, December 15th in the Sedgewick United Church Hall at 8:00 p.m.

The choral group under the leadership of Mrs. K. Roudge will be joining us for part of the evening and a general social program is planned.

HOW TO KEEP FRUIT CAKE MOIST?

Fruit cake is an item on most menus at Christmas time. The question is often raised . . . "How do you keep fruit cake moist while it is ripening or if it has been stored for some time?"

During the ripening period, wrap the cake in cheese cloth and dipped fruit juice, wine or brandy. Wrap in full and store in an air tight container. Moisture the cloth or pour the liquid over the cake two or three times during the aging period.

If you have a cake in storage and it has become very dry, place it over hot water in a closed container. Heat some grapes, plums, or orange juice, taking care not to let it boil. When the cake is hot, add the hot juice drop by drop onto the cake until it will not absorb anymore.

GREEN ACRES

Gina Werner, D.A.

December 31st becomes a double deadline:

(1) Producers who rejoin the Program before December 31 do so without penalty and are able to pay levies on their 1976 grain sales. This is important because payments under the Program are made to the individual producer in proportion to the levies he paid over the past three years. Thus the payment of 1976 levies is important should there be stabilization payments covering the 1975, 1976 or 1977 calendar years.

(2) The act permits levies to be paid by a producer only if that producer is registered as a participant on January 1st of that year. In other words, any producer who had previously opted out and did not rejoin the Program by January 1, 1977 cannot make levies. However, if January 1, 1978. Therefore, if a payout was made for 1976 or 1977, those producers would not share in that payout. Furthermore, if they rejoin the Program after January 1, 1977 they would receive substantially lower stabilization payouts if made for 1978 and 1979.

The December 31st deadline is very important in view of current conditions with regard to rising cash costs of production, lower grain prices and tight delivery quotas.

He went on to explain that

November meetings of Chapter of TOPS Inc., Selgewick concluded with 12 members participating in weekly "weight loss." A total of 46.75 pounds was shed during this month.

Queen of the month was Ramona K. King of the month was Randall F.

Of special interest this month to TOPS members was the graduation of a member to KOPS (Lifting Off Pounds Neatly). Florence S. was honored by the local chapter on this occasion. A diploma from headquarters and a long stemmed rose, gift of the local chapter, were presented by President Mary Ann L. An evening of fun marked the event. Some hilarious moments resulted from a few games directed by Carol G. and Judy R. Lunch, tastily arranged by Nelly M., was enjoyed by all.

A gratifying sum was realized from the sale of tickets on the Afghan generously donated by Rhuanne C. The lucky winner was Harriet Wilson.

Gordon B. has achieved her goal and joins two other KIW's (KOPS in Waiting). Twenty-two charms have been awarded to members for noteworthy weight losses during the month.

We are now anticipating our final December meeting to see how many charms will be awarded to members whose weight losses have corresponded with their predictions (made in October!). See you lighter!

QUESTION: This specific question has been asked by numerous cattleman from time to time. Therefore, will endeavor to provide an adequate answer regarding allergic to antibiotics to many that have disrupted this problem at the feed mill.

ANSWER: Like humans, beef cattle sometimes exhibit allergies to antibiotic drugs. During the last several years, I have personally witnessed several severe cases of an allergic reaction to penicillin and streptomycin.

In one instance, 12 heifers were involved at a farm in New Sarepta area. The owner was giving them blacking vaccine along with two antibiotics. When he had injected about half the animals, he noticed that some were already breathing hard. They had swollen eye lids and were salivating. He phoned me in Camrose, I took a wild guess that it was probably allergy to the injections. Purchased some epinephrine locally and delivered at top speed to the farm. On arriving with the epinephrine the owner immediately administered treatment to the 12 head injected, although he lost two head due to indiscriminate use of drugs, he certainly found out how the animals react to overdose of drugs. In tracing the history, the owner raised the calves on his own farm. Soon after birth, the calves were plagued with scours and calf influenza.

Fortunately the local veterinarian was only 18 minutes away at a neighbors farm. He administered the antihistone intravenously to the worst cases and intramuscularly to the less severe. Twenty five of the 48 head were treated and all survived.

These histories emphasize the importance of avoiding indiscriminate use of drugs. Allergic reactions to antibiotics often occur in humans, and many doctors will insist that their patients remain in the clinic for at least 30 minutes after receiving an injection. It is advisable to inject from 15 to 15 head, then waiting for 15 to 20 minutes to observe them for any allergic reactions when mass treating a group of cattle, especially calves. The person that is administering the antibiotic must be careful to read the labels, and to be sure the products are administered properly.

Certainly, feeders are better equipped today than ever before to combat sickness of all kinds, with the array of animal health products on the market. Used properly, these products will return dividends to your operation. By the same token, promiscuous use of these products can steal away your profits. In closing, every cattle feeder should have a few bottles of epinephrine handy in case of an emergency. It is effective and cheap. And just might save you a few animals before your veterinarian arrives.

Our annual turkey dinner

The great day was here, the fall turkey dinner, Harlebury U.C.W. again proved a winner. The ladies were primed and ready to serve — The turkeys and pickles and sauce with great verve. The turkey was hot, and the speeds were still mashed. Then the doors opened wide, and the hordes all poured through. And the fall turkey dinner was started anew. "Battle Stations" called out, and the ladies began, Up and down past the tables and benches they ran. Trays held up high, and both hands well filled. The mouths soon were stuffed; the voices were stifled. And stacks of warm buns, and pounds of fresh butter went pouring down gullets with nary a flutter. "More speeds here!" "more carrots," "more jelly," they'd call. And the ladies went rushing around through the hall. "Mince pie, or pumpkin or apple for yum?" "A little of each." How fat stomachs grew! And the feet of the ladies were starting to pain. And their cores and their bunions were aching again. Thousands of cups of coffee and tea. Were poured down the throats like the tides of the sea. Then the hall was quiet, and empty and dim. And the poor washers looked lonely and grim. But the stacks of plates, and platters and bowls. Were scrubbed up, and stacked like tall telephone poles. And the fair ladies' hands were raw, rough, and red. And each thought with longing of getting to bed. But they finished the job, and left with good cheer. No more turkey dinners till this time next year!

Whitehead - Randall exchange vows

Saturday, September 18th, 1976 at 4:30 p.m. in the Sedgewick United Church a lovely double ring ceremony took place, uniting in marriage Esther Bernice Randall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Randlehead, son of Mrs. Beva Whitehead and the late Bert Whitehead of Sedgewick.

Rev. Kenneth Scarrow of Lacombe performed the wedding with solemn Mr. Harry Anderson singing "The Wedding Prayer" and "O Promise Me". He was accompanied by Mrs. Harry Anderson at the organ.

Given in marriage by her parents the bride looked radiant in a full skirted floor-length gown of polyester tulle. Her long lace-trimmed veil formed into a train she carried a bouquet of pink and red carnations roses embedded in baby's breath.

Laurie Booth, niece of the bride was the Matron of Honor Elaine Stevens. Le Anna Arbockle, and Laurie Harris were the bridesmaids and all are from Sedgewick. They were groomed in floor length blue nylon gowns featuring short butterfly sleeves and white nylon picture hats. They carried bouquets of pink and blue mums and white daisies surrounded by blue baby's breath.

The best man was Doug Hampshire of Killam and groomsmen were Mike Whitehead, and Wayne Swanson from Sedgewick and Kyle Bergel of Killam.

Ushers were Bill Randall, brother of the bride, and Tim Whitehead, brother of the groom.

For the reception at Sedgewick Community Hall the bride's mother received wearing a pink floor length gown with matching cape with accessories of black and flowers of pink orchid and pink carnations.

The bridegroom's mother was in a two piece blue and white floor length gown and flowers of blue orchid and white carnations.

The reception seated 180 guests. Master of ceremonies was Dale Whitehead, brother of the groom. Mr. Benny Linklater, brother-in-law of the bride gave the toast to the bride to which the groom shyly responded. Doug Hampshire proposed a toast to the bridesmaids.

An Open House and Dance followed in the Sedgewick Community Hall.

For a honeymoon to Jasper and Banff the bride and groom were watching in pant suits with brown flowered skirts and brown accessories.

"Now's the time for a change-to save you some change."

Fred Russell, Northwestern's Superintendent of Customer Service passes along these tips on furnace filters and how you can save money and increase your heating efficiency.

Forced-air heating system filters are designed to trap dust and lint from the air. When they become clogged, the flow of air is restricted, reducing heating efficiency, thus costing you money.

If your furnace filter is of the disposable glass fibre type, it should be cleaned monthly and replaced at least twice a year. Permanent type filters should be cleaned and oiled according to your furnace maintenance guide. If in doubt, check with your furnace contractor, particularly before the onslaught of winter.

Besides checking your filter, be sure your furnace motor and fan bearings are lubricated according to manufacturer's instructions. Registers should be cleaned of dust and other objects. Furniture and rugs should not obstruct hot and cold air registers.

Get all the heat you pay for this winter by paying a little attention to your heating system now.

Development of both petrochemicals and agricultural processing - keys in the administration's "diversification" strategy - hinge on securing foreign markets and the U.S. is thought to offer the best opportunities.

The practice may be taking a tight deadline for assuring sales. Petrochemicals are scheduled to go into production in 1978 and tariff deals take a notoriously long time to reach.

Mr. Dowling confirmed that a closely-guarded 1977 U.S. trade report which NDP leader Grant Nulley unearthed recommended supplying the business with cut-price natural gas feedstocks to keep production costs down.

The minister conceded that current agreements with the major firms, Dow, Dome, Alberta Gas Ekiyole and Alberta Gas Trunk, don't rate out renewed demands for subsidies. But he said no promises have been made, and that none should be necessary in future because good markets are possible without aid.

Mr. Dowling said federal industry Minister Jean Chretien has given "substantial agreement" to try lowering barriers against Alberta Products at General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade talks.

Initial agreement was reached with Canada's ambassador to the 80 national Geneva negotiations, Rodney Grey, in three days of meeting with officials in Alberta a few weeks earlier, Mr. Dowling said.

Sen. Jackson emerged from a recent meeting here with the premier awarding Mr. Lougheed "high marks" for his efforts, saying "acts talk" and predicting "real progress".

High U.S. tariffs against Canadian petrochemicals are a "glaring example" of discrimination duties levied by both countries, said the Washington state democratic chairman of the Senate inter-affairs committee.

He held the hopes of direct talks on top of the Geneva negotiations next year, rating the "bilateral" discussions as valuable and promising to recommend closer ties with Canada to president-elect Jimmy Carter.

Sen. Jackson was returning a visit Mr. Lougheed paid him during a 14-day U.S. trip last June. The premier trying to convince both the U.S. and Canadian federal governments to launch new bilateral talks because Alberta interests may take only a back seat at the massive Geneva negotiations.

The senator said the U.S. and Canada have rigidly some commodities with "Chesebrough" that should be lowered. His conclusion with the premier were billed as exploratory and neither side would recommend "binding" was said to be likely.

Legislature report

The provincial government's prospects of finding profitable markets abroad for Alberta's infant petrochemical industry are showing signs of improvement.

Ontario has at long last promised to go to bat for Alberta's development plans which have been on the drawing boards for several years.

Premier Peter Lougheed appears to have recruited a powerful outside ally - U.S. Senator Henry Jackson - for his drive to lower barriers against sales south of the border.

Development of both petrochemicals and agricultural processing - keys in the administration's "diversification" strategy - hinge on securing foreign markets and the U.S. is thought to offer the best opportunities.

The practice may be taking a tight deadline for assuring sales. Petrochemicals are scheduled to go into production in 1978 and tariff deals take a notoriously long time to reach.

Mr. Dowling confirmed that a closely-guarded 1977 U.S. trade report which NDP leader Grant Nulley unearthed recommended supplying the business with cut-price natural gas feedstocks to keep production costs down.

The minister conceded that current agreements with the major firms, Dow, Dome, Alberta Gas Ekiyole and Alberta Gas Trunk, don't rate out renewed demands for subsidies. But he said no promises have been made, and that none should be necessary in future because good markets are possible without aid.

Mr. Dowling said federal industry Minister Jean Chretien has given "substantial agreement" to try lowering barriers against Alberta Products at General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade talks.

Initial agreement was reached with Canada's ambassador to the 80 national Geneva negotiations, Rodney Grey, in three days of meeting with officials in Alberta a few weeks earlier, Mr. Dowling said.

Missionary at meeting

by Donna L. Martin
A number of people gathered at St. John's Anglican Church on the evening of December 12th to hear Miss Patricia Fowler, a missionary nurse, making in eastern Nepal, describe her work and experiences there.

Miss Fowler, who hails from Strome, Alberta, showed a number of interesting slides which she had taken in Nepal, and skillfully answered a number of questions put in her by the audience. Pat, whose mission is sponsored by the Presbyterian Church, stressed that it can be very difficult to introduce Christianity in a land where Hinduism is so strong a part of the people's religion and culture. Her comfortably sedentary listeners were fascinated to learn that the method of transportation through the mountains of Nepal was by mule.

Following Pat's presentation, coffee and cookies were served by the ladies of the church. As some of the A.C.W. members in the parish hall.

On Christmas Eve, December 24th at 11:30 p.m., a very special Christmas service will be held at St. John's Anglican Church in Sedgewick. The Nativity of Our Lord Jesus Christ will be celebrated with Holy Communion. An ecumenical choir, under the direction of Mrs. Ken Bartlett, will be in attendance.

Club Reports

HAZELWOOD GOODFELL CLUB - LOUGHEED
Our Christmas supper was held on the third of December. The weatherman couldn't have been more cooperative if we paid him. These gals sure know how to please the people. Such a display of lovely things to eat that one took and others were forgotten and plates heaped high.

And as much talent, the children all did very well. Even the little ones that don't talk yet got right up there and sang along with the rest. Their mouths were going even though we didn't hear the words they used.

And dear old Santa sure does weather the years well, getting younger all the time, always has says and candy for the small ones. Also lots of candy and oranges for the grown ups.

Killam beef club celebrates Thirty enjoyable years

"Learn to do by doing" has to be the most practical aspect of training today's youth. Can you tell me? What better resource do we have in this country than our youth? We get so involved with our everyday activities it's as easy to let our families grow away from us.

But, on the other hand, a very fulfilling and enriching experience for parent and child to work together. We may fall together but don't forget Mom and Dad have probably been through this before. Experience is the best teacher. Nothing ventured, nothing gained as the saying goes.

Learning to feed a steer or better is just one small part of belonging to a 4-H Beef Club. Activities such as public speaking, demonstrations, camp seminars, rallies, banquets and tours, 4-H exchanges and award trips are benefits enjoyed by members at district, regional, provincial and national levels.

Expressing themselves, learning to conduct business meetings, the manner in which they can think on their feet are identifying marks of 4-H members.

Winning seems to be a big factor in our modern day society but what is a winner? Anyone who can say they have earnestly tried is a winner. This is where the word "achievement" comes in, achieving the best that each individual can do and this is prominent in the 4-H system.

Alberta 4-H celebrates its 60th Anniversary in 1977 but the Killam 4-H Beef Club celebrated 30 years since it was first organized. In 1946 the Killam Beef Club started under the leadership of Mr. Syd Walker of Killam with the assistance of W. M. Mole, D.A. at the time.

The adult committee at that time consisted of Mr. Ken Gibb (recently deceased) of Killam, Mr. Dave Anderson of Killam and Mr. Frank Wilson presently of Brighton, Ontario. These men have remained active supporters of 4-H all through the years.

After moving the sale each year to different towns in the Municipality the sale dropped possibly due to cattle prices. 4-H came into the picture and Mr. Doug Wilson was chosen as leader when it re-organized in 1951.

Mr. Larry Williams D.A. in Sedgewick at that time was a staunch supporter of 4-H and still is in his locale of Camrose.

Due to the fact I may miss someone I won't risk naming the following leaders in the years to come, and I'm sure there were many connected that contributed in many ways. For this we say Thank You. Thankyou for putting your trust in the Youth of the years past, present and future.

Sedgewick and District News

Mrs. Mary Ann Lewis is honor of her father, Neil D. Lewis. Many happy returns.

Mrs. Jean Wallace and Mrs. Janet James went to Edmonton on the bus on Tuesday morning, Christmas shopping. I presume.

Only a small group were present at the Anglican Church at 7:30 pm on Sunday to hear Miss Patricia Foster of Strone who is home on furlough from Nepal. Miss Foster, who is a nurse missionary, showed slides and talked about them, then answered questions. Coffee and fellowship followed her interesting presentation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Johnson of Edmonton visited some friends in the district on Sat.

Mrs. Donna Martin and daughter Margaret spent a few days in Edmonton last week with Donna's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Edey. They returned home on Friday.

After all this time I don't know if this qualifies as news but I'd like to express an extremely belated welcome to our community to Mr. and Mrs. K. Affolder and daughters. Mr. Affolder is Curriculum Consultant for the County. The Affolders are residing on Mrs. Nora Bergsheim's farm, north of Lougheed.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Martin and Owen of Freshford were weekend guests at the home of their son and his family, the Greg Martins. They came on an errand of giving and receiving. Well, it's that time of year.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Johnson attended the funeral of Mr. Jason Graham in Strone on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Red Culbert were weekend visitors to Buck Lake where Margaret's brothers Ted, Lawson and Doug live.

The Social Dance Class wound up their seasons with a coffee party on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Rob Clark took Mrs. Jessie Clark to Edmonton on Saturday. He on Sunday and she was able to attend the Diamond Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Campbell which was held in Highlands United Church. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell lived in Sedgewick for many years and I'm sure the community adds its congratulations and best wishes to those they received.

I hear Sedgewick fared very well at the Turkey Bingo at Lougheed on Monday. Mrs. Beale Bergum and Mrs. Darlene Clark each won a turkey, as did Mrs. Wilma Mikkelson. But Rhonda Mikkelson won 2, so the Mikkelson household is well supplied with turkeys this year!

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ross, Keny and Kimberley arrived at the Jack Stevens' home on Thursday night from Lake in Germany. Mr. and Mrs. Ross (nee Judy Stevens) and children will be here for a month. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ross. Congratulations to the birth of a son on Dec. 3. Grandma Kobner is in Calgary babysitting her other two grandsons.

Star of Glorious Beauty

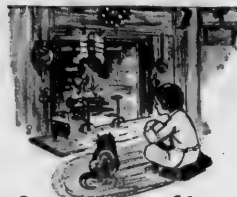

"We Three Kings of Orient are . . . bearing gifts we travel afar." Guided by a star most bright, the Magi came upon the Christ Child. Bearing precious treasures of gold, frankincense, and myrrh they paid homage to the Infant. Christmas continues to bring starry excitement, enchantment to young and old . . . a feeling of brotherhood. It is the time when people of the world are brought together with their gifts of praise. May this Yule be a blessing for all. Come, let us adore Him.

HARDISTY — ALBERTA

Once again its that season of the year when our thoughts turn to Jesus — the infant. That child born under exceptional circumstances and destined to shake the foundation of the Universe. Never before or since has a birth caused such a shattering commotion as did the birth of Jesus.

Born to a sin-sick world. Born in a lowly stable because the world could find no room for him. Born God incarnate, so that mankind would have one last opportunity to learn that the love of the Creator God surpasses all our finite understanding. Born to teach, preach, work miracles, speak parables of truth which the world could not understand and in misunderstanding, not accept. So to remove this rebel who spoke only of love for one another and peace on earth, we crucified him.

Look at our world today. Are we ready for such a miracle? Are we fit to celebrate such a birth? Are we living any where near the expectations of what our Lord taught us? Is this Christmas we celebrate a traditional farce? Has the birth of Christ and significance in the celebration of the new materialistic Xmas? The Birth of Jesus, the death of Jesus, the resurrection of Jesus are facts which can no longer be denied because there are scientific facts to prove it all happened. Still many stand ready to deny him, while still decorating the family home, giving of gifts, Christmas parties, Christmas Carols, exchanging of the greeting "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year."

It truly is a miraculous time of the year if we allow our hearts to open to its true meaning.

To all people everywhere I greet you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. May you and yours have a Merry Christmas (the true hope for the world) Mass (the service of worship of that Christ) and a peaceful by Glen Werner, D.A.

Cow-calf grant deadline

GREENACHES

The deadline for receiving applications for the cow-calf grant is December 31, 1976. Anyone who qualifies must make application by that date.

On December 7th, the Minister of Agriculture, Mr. Moore announced the following changes in the program.

1. Taxable income will be defined as follows:

— the amount reported as taxable income for the latest tax year ending before September 1, 1976 or — the average of the amounts reported as taxable income for the TWO taxation years immediately preceding September 1, 1976.

Also where an operator due to personal health reasons, fire or disease of animals, was forced to dispose of his cow herd, after January 1, 1976, but before September 1, 1976 there may be chance he is still eligible.

Generally then, if you qualify: taxable income less than $8,000 and 11 or more cows, bring your taxable income figure, number of cows, and social insurance number with you and remember — DEADLINE IS DECEMBER 31, 1976.

CAREFUL SHOPPING

Don't be in such a hurry to do your shopping. You may be able to save money and avoid disappointment by taking more time.

Shop only at reliable stores. Don't be blinded by bargains — they're not always good buys. Shop and compare prices, even if you're ordering from catalogs. Prices are extremely different for the same item.

RITERS RAMBLINGS

Amusing and educational

"This toy is amusing and educational, your child will love it." The announcer's voice seemed on but my mind took off back to the toys of my childhood in England. Blocks, dolls, puzzles, games, books, sweaters and many others. But strangely enough the toy, if it could be called that, remembered most clearly and with most affection consisted of a chair and a long wide plank of wood.

I suppose there must have been a time when they first appeared in our garden but it seems to me that they'd always been there. And all the time we could play outside this log and plank were the chief plaything of my younger sisters and myself.

Put the board across the log and we had a saw. The girl was often sent by my mother, "Let me down" as the result of one of my sisters left me high in the air. And if I attempted to edge towards the middle they'd both jump off and I'd come down faster and harder than I liked. Yet I always felt for their practice. "We won't do it again, let's rest."

Thinking of the saw, we'd pull the plank off the log and suddenly it became a raft. We'd been shipwrecked! We pulled Jack on board, she'd be hanging on to the log and had nearly drowned. So we applied artificial respiration. No "kiss of life" then but we got her breathing alright. No land in sight, no food and nothing to paddle with. So we all died very dramatically, unless my mother's "Dinner time, girls" saved us.

If you propped the plank carefully against one fence you could walk up it and look over into Crownwell Road and make faces at those mean kids who lived there. Up against another fence you could reach over and pick Dr. Dick's orange blossoms. At the third fence, if your reach was long enough, Mrs. Went would have one less apple on her tree. These were frowned on by mother and getting caught meant an hour indoors.

Then this miraculous plank became a boat complete with provisions (mud pies, cabbage leaves and elder berries). We went all over the world that way, new and did some wonderful things.

On hot days the plank, with the end propped up, became a slide. Even if you did pick up a splinter in a certain part of your anatomy, the thrill of the splash as you hit the tub of water was worth any minor pain.

At times the log came late to its own. It was a good place to sit and talk or eat or read. But not for long. It was much more exciting to be shipwrecked than to read about it.

"Amusing and educational and your child will love it." Maybe. But will he remember it as fondly as I do that log and plank of long ago. I wonder?

OUR OWN SPIRIT

Each year as the Christmas season approaches we think back of our own childhood Christmas and remember the innocent, uncomplicated joy we felt and how eagerly we awaited the great day. Now, as adults, we still look forward to Christmas with anticipation but with a deeper feeling as a brief period of peace and serenity — a promise of love and good will that perhaps will someday prevail in a world that is now filled with violence and chaos. It is a joyous season to be shared with family and friends and we celebrate around a beautiful table set with our finest china and silver. The most memorable part of Christmas, however, may well be the part we cannot see or touch, the spirit of love and perpetual hope we all have.

God is Love

by R. Chappell

"God is love" is one of the most tremendous proclamations of the Bible. "God is love" is the great declaration of the Christmas Gospel. It is the Christmas gospel that gives the early Christians the power to declare, "We have known and loved the love that God has for us" (1 John 4:19). To know God's love is to know the love that God has for us. The New Testament is a book of love. It is a book of love that gives the Christian the power to declare, "We have known and loved the love that God has for us" (1 John 4:19).

The measure of love is how much it gives, and the measure of the love of God is the gift of His only Son to be made man, and to die for sin, and to give us the power to love. The measure of love is how much it gives, and the measure of the love of God is the gift of His only Son to be made man, and to die for sin, and to give us the power to love. The measure of love is how much it gives, and the measure of the love of God is the gift of His only Son to be made man, and to die for sin, and to give us the power to love.

So many people miss the point of God's love. They say, "God is love," but they do not know what it means. They do not know that God's love is not just a feeling, but a power. It is a power that gives us the power to love. It is a power that gives us the power to love. It is a power that gives us the power to love.

But later than now, later than this, things will all change. They will all change. They will all change. They will all change. They will all change. They will all change. They will all change. They will all change.

Greetings from Management and Staff Of

KILLAM — ALBERTA

Wouldn't it be nice if you could put the Christmas Spirit into jars during the Christmas season, as you do with your jams, jellies and vegetables during the fall season? Put into jars the Christmas Spirit of Love, Peace and Goodwill toward men, to be opened every month or maybe more often, whenever needed. The world sure needs it and so does our part of the world, our community, yes, even our homes.

Do you know that the spirit of Christmas could be dispensed every day of the year? Yes, it could be given out wherever we are, whenever we do, whatever the circumstances. Yes, it could if we would just see that Christmas, just just a day, a season to be lived with some thoughts and joys for themselves, for man, even those not as blessed as we are, but that Christmas is remembering the birth of Jesus Christ who came down from Heaven's glory to become the Emmanuel, meaning "God with us."

No, this birthday of Jesus Christ is not a sentimental to be enjoyed just one day, and then to be forgotten till the next Christmas Season rolls around.

We know this, Jesus Christ is real. And to have this continual spirit of peace, love, and goodwill life has to be accepted by faith and to be served with all your heart, mind and soul every day of your life. For yes, only then, you may be able to give out and not only this season but from day to day love, care, understanding, peace and goodwill to all throughout the year.

I wish you a blessed, wonderful, and above all a Christ-filled Christmas and pray that the true spirit of Christmas be in you, so that everyday of your life flows around you in peace and experience, that you have found that Jesus Christ is the answer.

During the Christmas season the world celebrates the Babe in the manger. They may even become somewhat sentimental about the infant who their spirit is not very different from the ancient pagans who persecuted love... made him a wiser boy full of himself. His arrows troubled even hearts and found their passions. It is he who did not touch their moral nature. He could not do so, for he represented a conception of God that pictures God as being above the lowest human standards.

God who revealed His love in the Bible of Bethlehem, gave us a meaning far different from the spiritual picture of the pagans. Beyond the manger lay the cross. God's humanity came for a lost world was revealed at Calgary. The Babe was born of a virgin (Luke 1:26-31) the conception was of the Holy Ghost (Matt. 1:20) and grew up with its shadows over him. Never did Jesus please himself, but would always doing good until the time came for Him to give His life on Calvary.

Remember that there are some three hundred prophecies in the Old Testament of Jesus, and recorded as fulfilled in the New Testament. Many are about Jesus and His birth. Also please remember the first one about Jesus in Genesis 22:12. "And I will put enmity between thy seed and her seed; and it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel." Many today have missed this as a mystery, and to do so is to strike at the very foundation of the gospel. David said in Psalm 110: "If the foundation be destroyed, what can the righteous do?" The manger can be a very dangerous thing to me. If we let it make us forget the present state of Christ as He is about to return, not as a babe, but in power and great glory. We are not made ready for that day by contemplating a manger. We must live in repentance for sin, and accept Jesus as our personal Saviour. The Babe of Bethlehem is the one who died for our sins, and who lives again as our Saviour and Lord. The message of Christmas is not just a Babe but about the eternal Son of God, who left His glory, humbled himself to take his place with us in true human life, and then took our place to receive the cup of God's wrath in our stead on Calvary. The message is the story of the love of God that brought us deliverance from the slavery of sin, and gives us the privileges of sonship in God's own family, and then to receive us into eternal glory.

Christmas has meaning, not merely because of the manger; but because of the cross and the resurrection and it will have new meaning to you as you accept Him as your personal Saviour.

We would like to extend the warmest greetings to each one and may the Lord Jesus live in your heart.

Appreciation of the Christmas season

The Christmas season is again come to visit man in every walk of life. In every level of society, in every stratum of this season is rejoiced throughout the land. Christmas with its trees and lights and bells, the gifts and parties, joys and sorrows and reunions all bespeak the time which commemorates the birth of Jesus Christ. Tradition would have it that Jesus was born on Christmas day. Without a sure date for this event, that has moved the hearts of men as no other, let us remember whose birthday we celebrate.

The Bible speaks so clearly of a Child in a manger, born in Bethlehem in a stable, born in a stable for there was no room in the inn for Christ. Angels sang a message of great moment "Glory to God in the highest And peace on earth, good will to men" shepherds were told "Unto you is born King of the Jews" Matt 2:2. They followed a bright and shining star to Bethlehem and a stable. A few shepherds and wise men came to worship at the feet of Jesus, the Divine Son of God. He took upon Himself human form in order to rescue man from His state of sin. That which was perfect and above all had come in order to die for you and I. Where else knew? None, neither were any interested. They preferred to wallow in sin, the realm of sin and vice, the realm of the devil. The poor struggled to live. The rich struggled to gain more riches. Still Christ came, a King born to rule and to judge those who knew Him not.

Today the pagantry of Christmas overwhelms the event it commemorates. In the celebrations display all thought of Christ is lost. What if He should return this season as promised in John 14? Who would be prepared to receive Him as King?

Christ is coming again very soon. Not His first but His second coming should be uppermost in our minds. Would we today be told "We'll do them good and faithful servant. Matt 25:21.

Christ spoke of these very days when the apostles ask Him "What shall be the sign of thy coming?" Matt 24:3. Christ then spoke of wars, famine, earthquake, death and destruction. He said watch out for false prophets, of abounding iniquity, of deceit and fraud. Also He spoke of the gospel being preached to all the world. In our day these signs are fulfilled. Pollution in politics, pollution of the waters, pollution of the atmosphere, the trampling weakness of the world's economy all cry out of the approaching King of Heaven. For the first time in history man holds in his grimy hand the power to destroy himself. The Bible speaks of this in Rev. 11:18 "And shall destroy them which destroy the earth". Yes friends, not Christ first but his second coming but his second appearing on earth's stage should be foremost in our minds.

Christ came as a babe and gave us salvation. He is returning to see and gather together the fruits of His labour. Have you been wise enough to receive His Kingly gift?

There is no greater joy, "this price which passes all understanding", when we take Christ as our Saviour and our King. Wise men searched for the Holy Baby because the scriptures told them when and where. Angels sang the news to those who could not read or write. Today scripture still bears its faithful message. You can find it in Matt. 24, John 11 Luke 21. A last message to a doomed world is given in Rev. 11. An urgent message, depicted by Angels flying in the mist of Heaven, is given to man. It calls for the deepest soul preparation on the part of man.

The good news is you need not lose your life but gain eternal life. Christ came to seek and save the lost, the door of mercy still stands open. The catch is that it must soon close. Are you ready for that fatal day?

Jesus said when you see all these things taking place then "look up for your redemption draw near. The choice is yours, praise God you only need to ask to receive the gift of life. May your Christmas season be one of joy and gladness and brightness in our coming blessed hope."

1 Peter 1:8

MAY THE MEANING OF CHRISTMAS BE DEEPER ITS FAITH STRONGER ITS HOPES BRIGHTER AS IT COMES TO ALL OF YOU THIS YEAR.

The Sisters and Staff of The Hospital Complex - Killam

The morning after the night before

by Stuart M. Abel
Church of the Nazarene

"Fear not for behold I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people." Luke 2:10.

It is hardly appropriate to use such a title for a Christmas write-up, for it brings to mind what we sometimes call, the "muddled side of life" - the bleary eyes, the means and groans, and the "I wish I were dead" expressions. But I would like to give, "the morning after the night before," a new and wholesome twist and apply it to our glorious Christmas morning which we celebrate each Christmas season.

In a very real sense all was night, all was darkness, all was despair until that first Christmas morning. Except for promises uttered by God's prophets nothing factual had transpired.

answered to change the hopeless state of mankind. But now, on the morning of that day, which we call "the first day of Christmas", promises became facts, darkness gave way to light, night had disappeared, "the light that lighteneth every man that cometh into the world" had arrived, "the Daypring from on high had visited us," the "Sun of righteousness had risen with healing in his wings." The one who promised to be "The Day, the Truth, and the Life" had arrived. Truly it was a glorious morning after the long, long night of centuries gone by. How happy we should be, we, who live in full light and the factual knowledge of not only the birth, but the life, the redemptive death and too the verifying resurrection of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Let us all rejoice in our glorious Saviour this Festive Season and give Him the praise. He is worthy of it.

Solo club formed

At a meeting of interested single people in the Daysland Hall on Dec. 8, a steering committee was elected to take the preliminary steps toward forming a solo club for the county of Playfair. Eligible for membership are single persons who are divorced, widows, widowers, bachelors, spinners or persons who are separated (legally or by mutual consent) for a period of three months. Married couples who have been members may finish their year of membership. Also eligible are the children of single parents, for whom there will be organized suitable activities such as skating parties from time to time.

This club is for the whole Playfair County and is assisted by PSE (Preventive Social Services). The Preventive Social Services representative Richard Cohen will help in clarifying problems and purposes. The Daysland Hall has been reserved for the first social evening of the club, to be held on Feb. 12. Any additional information can be obtained by phoning Richard Cohen at 261-2153. It is hoped that the second social evening can be held at the same place in Playfair County.

Carol festival pleases many

The Killam Carol Festival, which is getting to be a tradition in Sedgewick, took place on Sunday evening December 19th in the Community Hall.

First on the programme was the Seventh Day Adventist Band who played "La, How a Rose E'er Blooming" and the joyful "We Tell It On The Mountains". Mrs. Betty Walsh then gave a reading "Crisis Woman's Christmas", which was written by Mrs. Benita Pradrich of Killam.

A large group of our younger citizens, the Sedgewick Brownies, entertained with three songs, "Here Comes Santa Claus", "Away In A Manger" and a spirited version of "Jingle Bells". They were assisted with the singing by four Girl Guides.

The Seventh Day Adventist Band accompanied the audience in some carol singing, led by M.C. Mrs. Dianne McClelland. Then the Choir of the Seventh Day Adventists favored the crowd with two lovely selections, "This Time of Year" and "Gloria Be To God".

Mrs. Mary Klugger played "Star of the East" and "Silent Night" on her accordion. Miss Sandra Danielson and Miss Kathy Keith sang a Medley of Christmas songs and "Do You Hear What I Hear". Kathy also played her guitar. Miss Linda Hebert sang "The Christmas Story" and "Jolly Old St. Nicholas", accompanying herself on the piano.

God Save the Queen concluded the programme which was shorter than usual due to a couple of cancellations. But the quality of the entertainment was as good as ever and it is to be hoped that the Carol Festival will continue.

Love Came Down...

At 7:30 p.m. at the Sedgewick Community Hall on Tuesday, December 21st the Christmas "Love Came Down In the Choir" was presented by a Choral Group under the direction of Mrs. Kay Routledge.

This group, consisting of about 20 men and women, gave us the Christmas story in words and music. It was indeed a beautiful presentation, given with great joy and expression and it greatly moved many present.

Mrs. Routledge, who plays the piano as well as directs the group, has welcomed these people together into a superb choir and it is to be congratulated. As indeed are all of the

We accidently found our fire engine at the school corner one morning and so watched it being filled from the fire hydrant. We have had a trip to North Gate Shopping Centre to see Santa, in his beautiful castle and then across the street to Ronald McDonalds, where the children were treated royally, not only to hamburgers, but also to a visit to the kitchen, with a cook describing everything to them. Mr. Doug Kest drove the bus and told us he had enjoyed the trip and sing song.

Our Halloween Party was great fun, and now we are planning a Christmas Party. This will be on December 31st one o'clock and each child may bring his mother and father.

There have been two parent meetings, one on October 13th when 15 parents attended. After some discussion it was decided that one of the mothers, supervising at noon would be to help during the afternoon. Thankyou mothers. This has been most helpful. The second meeting was held on November 1st. Only a few attended but many things were discussed. Mrs. Reed and Mrs. Verchinsky plan to attend the workshop in Camrose on December 31st. Also a meeting is being held in Daysland on January 1st. When Alfie Rich from Red Deer (our Kindergarten supervisor) will be here. All parents of present Kindergarten children plus parents of next years Kindergarten children are urged to attend. This on January 7th at 9:00 p.m.

The president of the parents group this year is Mrs. Shirley Schneider, the secretary Mrs. Alice Adams, the historians Mrs. Rose Marie Scheeler.

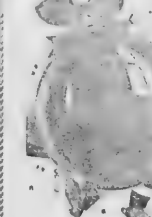

Mrs. Dave Makarowski of Daysland and Mrs. Ron Makarowski of Hay Lakes have recently returned from Ontario where they visited Mrs. Dave Makarowski's daughter Rosemary and family. While there they took in the Royal Winter Fair in Toronto and were in Niagara Falls and Long Point. They also visited friends at Washington who are tobacco farmers and took them on a tour of Macdonalds Tobacco Company.

Your Daysland news reporter Emily Lill wishes one and all a Very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year, also a big thank you to all friends, for giving me news each week.

THOUGHTFUL GIFT

An ideal present for a couple who are moving away — an album filled with pictures of the home, the friends and the activities they are leaving. Daysland council meeting report

Extracts from Council Meeting

The regular meeting of the town of Daysland was held on Tuesday, December 14th. Present were Mayor Lissack, Councillors Damborg, Hensley, Stahler, Davidson, Larson and Tarsinger. Constable Al Burns was present to discuss larceny and was being paid. It was his opinion that the Special Constables presence had been of great value despite their feeling in the contrary. Daysland had suffered little damage in comparison with other towns in the county. He hoped that next year special constables would be appointed earlier in order that a workshop would be held for them by the local RCMP.

Alberta Culture sent a letter and questionnaire about Heritage Day. They reminded Council that the first Monday in August has been proclaimed Alta. Heritage Day and wish to know Council's opinion on the celebration of Heritage Day. Council are in favour of celebrating Heritage Day, perhaps a regional approach would be the answer. This information will be passed to the Recreation Board for their comments.

The annual inspection of the town office management and procedures was carried out recently by the department of Municipal Affairs. Their report has been received by Mayor and Lissack and states again that the business of Daysland Town Office is conducted in a very satisfactory manner. The minutes of the P.C.A. board meeting were read and noted. Councillor Hensley reported that the solo club had been formed for the whole county and would meet and hold various functions in different towns during the coming year. The Daysland Lions Club requested permission from the council to hold their meetings in the community hall. Council have no objection to this idea provided that the proper agreements are drawn up. More details will be available later.

HOW TO SAVE ENERGY AND MONEY BY THROWING OUT LESS

Each one of us discards an average of 4 pounds of garbage a day — 1,500 pounds a year. That's energy we're throwing away!

By avoiding unnecessary products, and reusing and recycling the rest of them, we can save a tremendous amount of energy for Canada. And money for ourselves.

The Garbage Book shows you how to reduce your garbage. It's new and free. Separate chapters deal with packaging, consumer products, food waste, yard waste, composting and setting up a recycling program in your community.

Services held for Garry Bell

Garry Kevin Bell of Irma passed away Monday, November 15th, 1976 as a result of a motor vehicle accident near Drumheller, Alberta at the age of 31 years.

Funeral services were held Saturday, November 20th, 1976 at 2:00 p.m. in the Irma School Auditorium with the Rev. Gordon Wilson officiating. Hymns sung were "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Yesterday, Today, Forever".

Palmer was born Douglas Bacon, David Holm, Fred Vescarelli, Luigi Vescarelli, Tyler James, Norman Kostrop. Interment was in the Irma Cemetery.

Garry was born January 31, 1945 at Killam, Alberta, the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. I. Bell. He grew up on the farm in Irma district and attended school there, where he took active part and was a friend to all.

Age Old Hopes Peace On Earth

Christmas means more than the annual celebration of a day or a season. It is a universal symbol of the generosity of the human spirit. There is in all creeds throughout the world an anniversary on which reverence is paid to a certain "something".

Whether it be the teachings of Confucius or Mohammed or Buddha or Moses or Jesus, we find in all religions an age-old concept embracing these commandments: "Thou shalt not kill. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself."

The Christmas season affords an occasion and an opportunity for us to reach out to our fellow man across the world and to speak the words that have lasted through centuries but have a new meaning now. We can remind each other at Christmas time that sacrifice is not obsolete and that brotherly love is the cardinal precept for human behavior.

He will be sadly missed by all that knew him.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our heartfelt thanks and deep appreciation to relatives and friends, neighbors for kindness and sympathy extended to us in the sad loss of our beloved husband, son, brother and grandson, "Garry".

Special thanks to all for their understanding and concern which helped to ease our sorrow. For beautiful flowers to our homes, food, help and the many cards with messages of sympathy and messages of condolence in memory of Garry to various Churches, Libraries, Hospitals etc. Thanks to friends C.W.M. and W.L. for lunch service. Your kindness and thoughtfulness during the loss of our loved one will always be remembered. Mostell, Irving and Doreen Bell, Darcy, Beverly and Valerie and Grandparents, "Powells and Bells" 19-19.

Merry Christmas

JUST PLAIN BAD BUSINESS

Recently the government of Canada introduced a grain stabilization plan that has brought a mixture of responses from farmers across the prairies. What concerns many farmers is their obligation to pay into the plan while at the same time negotiating there is no assurance of assistance for individual crop failure. A payout is made only when the region of the Canadian Wheat Board area suffers a crop loss. Many farmers who realize that they could be halted out of crop, or frozen out and yet not collect are now relieving a great deal of trepidation about the program.

On December 14th, however, I was in the Committee on Miscellaneous Estimates only to learn another shocking truth in respect to the Grain Stabilization Program. As farmers are well aware they, if they participate in the program, will be required to pay a 2 per cent of their crop value into the Grain Stabilization Fund. They were also under the impression that the government would be contributing 1 per cent, or double the value of the farmers' contribution, into a fund "IN TRUST" that would be paid back when and where there is a major crop disaster across a major area of the wheat board region. I was alarmed to learn, when questioning the Minister, the Honorable Mr. Andrus, to find out that in fact the government is not setting aside any funds whatsoever in regard to the grain stabilization legislation. What it is doing instead is simply making a commitment to make a payment to the farmer should a broad scale disaster occur. By the end of the fiscal year, March 31, 1977, the government has provided to this account $5 million dollars. In truth, however, no money will have been contributed to any fund "IN TRUST". I am sure that this pattern of doing business must raise considerable concern amongst farmers since obviously it is a most unbusinesslike way of conducting the program. One could easily envisage what would happen if we went for a decade with no wide-spread disasters and then went through a succession of years such as the 1920's in which a future government would have to, by legislation, make pay-outs for monies that have not been set

Help with the Christmas tree

by Marge Boutin

There. The last ball was hung and the last strand of tinsel on. I stepped back and gazed at our knickknacks. My husband had meticulously attached the tree lights while my job had been handling the delicate glass balls and other ornaments that now glittered on the branches. Our two-year-old daughter had labored at hanging the tinsel as evidenced by the lower branches being deluged by a silver blanket. The tree looked well. It did look nice... but.

I turned to my husband and said, "Don't you think it looks a bit bare. We should buy a few more balls to fill up the empty spots."

"Oh, I don't think so," he replied. "It's just that we have a bigger tree this year than last year. It looks alright."

It certainly did look more than alright in our daughter who gazed entranced at the balls and stars and tinsel. Little as she realized that another pair of eyes belonging to our five-month old kitten, were also captivated by the tree.

On December 20, 1976, I illam and the surrounding district enjoyed a 'rare treat' in hearing a well prepared and well presented choral Christmas Concert, presented by the Plagstaff Community Choir, under the able direction of Mr. R.P. Regehr of Killam, and accompanied by Mrs. R. Potter of Loughred.

The newly organized club hopes to continue and is seeking a greater number of dedicated and interested recruits for their Easter production.

The quality of music tack-by the choir for their Christmas presentation was challenging and well performed, and if this is indicative of things to come, the residents in the Flagstaff area may well look forward to future high quality choral music performances.

The choir expects to reassemble on January 17th, 1968.

New building valued at $700,000 has taken place in Daysland during the past year. So great has been the demand for lots that little is available to offer prospective buyers at the moment.

However, plans are now underway to develop approximately seventy (70) lots in two subdivisions. One near the Catholic Church and Hospital and along the edge of the Golf Course and one to the west of Westside Manors south of 51st Avenue, this latter one being for Mobile and Modular Homes.

The land is being developed under the supervision of Servold and Podmore Engineering of Edmonton and servicing will commence as soon as weather permits in the spring. We hope these lots will be available to option at the same time.

Daysland's business community has also made rapid strides. New businesses opened this year include Pauley's Confectionary, Sears, Daysland Tire Centre, Solar Realty, Shriver's Fabrics and Fashions, Dolenz Variety Mart, Blatz's Steak House & Lounge and the Lorlon Motel. In these days of dwindling population and uncertain futures for many small towns it is pleasing to see Daysland growing.

Riters Ramblings

We walked in beauty too

(But how we suffered, first!)
"Beauty is but skin deep," my grandmother would say accusingly, when we girls hung our trusty curlers from upside down over the orange lamp flame, preparatory to coaxing our straight locks into entrancing ringlets. For the top of the projected ringlet was reached, and the stout knot secured. The whole thing looked like a crown of glory. It mattered little which method was used: the unhappy victim tossed and turned on her rock-bound pillow till morning anyway. Then, it is proverbially, no rest for the wicked, still less for a girl with rag curls in her hair. Only the thought of those irresistible coisier curls enabled us to endure the nightly tortures.

Nevertheless we persevered in our self-torture, and presently curls of aluminum and rubber arrived to supplement our efforts. They were no softer to sleep on, but valiantly we bore with them. The rubber ones actually escaped from their slots in the night, leaving us with forty-seven curls and one straight, spiky clump, usually in front. The aluminum curlers fell apart under pressure, and getting tangled in one's dreams became a universally recognized omen.

Then came permanents, which meant that one afternoon of ghastly headache, hot, heavy curls tearing at your hair-roots, and a number of dollars, would earn you more than the more of glamour! Girls today don't know how fortunate they are! Mind you, we predeceasors, walked in beauty also—but oh, how we suffered to achieve it!

LOUGHEED 4-H

December 21st the Loughheed Homemakers held their Christmas Party. Right after school some of the mothers picked us up and took us to Sedgewick where we went bowling. We had three games and then went to Mrs. Veronica Probst's home. We ate supper then played a few games and exchanged gifts. After that we had a lot of fun on the club house pull. On behalf of the club members we would like to thank Janet Niehaus for helping us, and Mrs. Veronica Probst for letting us use her house. Reporter - Martyna Wylie It's Coming!

"Heat loss? Stop it cold! (and save money too)."

Fred Marlett, Northwestern's Utilization Engineer, offers these hints to help make your winter a bit warmer, and your fuel bills a bit smaller.

■ Set your humidifier to provide the proper humidity during the winter months. You'll not only feel more comfortable, it could save you fuel. If you have no humidifier, check with your heating contractor about a furnace mounted model, or invest in a room-size humidifier.

■ If you heat your garage, install adequate insulation and close off the attic area. Do not heat the garage when not in use.

■ Make sure the insulation in your house is adequate. This is determined by the size, slope, materials and other factors in your home, which experts can sum up in what they call the "R value", or heat-holding ability of the house. We recommend a value of "R21" for unseasoned winter walls and summer ceilings. If you're certain about insulation, have an expert check it.

■ Set your thermostat at the lowest possible comfort level for your family. You should adjust your thermostat when you're asleep, when you're away from home, and when you're not at home. Adjusting your thermostat upward doesn't increase the heat, it just costs you extra money.

■ Check the weather stripping in doors and windows. This is especially important if you live in an older home. Add storm windows and doors where necessary. Avoid drafts, but do not make your home "airtight" by plugging up the specially designed air inlets. Gas appliances, like you, need fresh air.

■ If you have a fireplace, keep the damper closed when the fireplace is not in use. Shut off heating ducts to unused rooms, recreation rooms and basements if not used regularly, and close the doors. Draw drapes at night to retain heat, and open during the day to let the sun help warm the house.

Pick up our free pamphlet, "Waste Watcher's Guide To Energy", and other heat-and-money saving ideas, at your nearby gas company office.

CARDS OF THANKS
We wish to thank all the people who left their homes on Boxing Day to help us people our "loves of belongings." It would have taken us the better part of 70 to have done it alone. A special thanks to Dr. Doney, Dale B. Hobbs and Dr. Lene and the two "Noms" for getting our belongings and us safely to Slave Lake and for "settling us in." Also to Sherry and Dorothy for making order out of total disorder in the mess left behind. Although we were overwhelmed by the kindness of all you people we might have known you'd be there to help us over the years you've been there whenever we needed you. Thank you for being the kind of friends that only a few of us are lucky enough to have.
Dale and Sylvia

I wish to express my thanks to Dr. Cabill, nurses, and staff of Hardisty General Hospital for their kindness and the good care given me while a patient there. Thank you also, to those who sent fruit and to those who took time to visit me.
Ralph Manning

We wish to thank all the people of Alliance for their concern and good wishes for our future. You've made it very difficult to leave but we have remained as aware as what wonderful people Alliance is made up of. A special thanks to all those who took time out from their busy Christmas schedule to give us such a memorable farewell party. Thank you for the lovely luncheon and for the gifts. We'll be back in 14 days. But most of all, thank you for the memories. They will be such a precious part of our future.
Dale, Sylvia, Shana and Shawa

The Plaintiff Community Choir wish to express their sincere gratitude to their director, Dr. R.P. Regier, and their accompanist, Mrs. Ruth Potter for their diligent and patient work in preparation of their Christmas concert. The choir also wishes to thank all those who helped make the public performance a success, the people who helped provide and set up practice and performance facilities, furnishings, instruments, staging lights, etc. the people who helped prepare printed programs and organize the ushering; the people who took part in the program itself; and finally all of you who in some way, financial or otherwise, supported us. Encouraged and helped us in whatever way. Thank you everyone.

Enjoy school concerts

The Hardisty Christmas School concert was held in the gym on December 22nd and was a very successful one. The concert began with the pupils singing "O Canada" in French and then in English.

The first number was by the Hardisty Kindergarten, a color action song and very well done by the little ones.

Some of the numbers had taken a lot of ingenuity in the making of costumes and equipment.

The presentation of awards was an exciting moment too. Mrs. Grace Kelly on behalf of the Sunshine Club presented a grade 6 award to Wyatt Bitter for a large "E" for effort through the year.

For Grade seven "B" for effort award went to May Soto, presented by Mrs. Grace Kelly. Congratulations to these two pupils and to the Sunshine Club for encouraging their efforts with cheer.

The Grade 8 awards were presented by Mrs. Linda Draver on behalf of the Ladies Auxiliary Branch of the Royal Canadian Legion. 1st to Sharon Cressy and 2nd to Tamal Anderson.

The Grade 9 awards were presented by Mrs. Mary Reber on behalf of the O.R.P.P. The first two tied and were Karva Fraser and Brian de Kock. The second award was also a tie with Shelley Dion and Chastel Doudard.

County P.S.S. asks for participation

The Preventive Social Service program was established in November, 1976 through the efforts of several individuals and groups. Richard Collins, who became the new Director of the program, and an office was established in Sedgewick. The goal of the Preventive Social Service program is to enhance the quality of life for individuals and communities in the Flanagan area. Both existing and potential problems within what is referred to as the human services sector will be dealt with. P.S.S. is now and will continue to be involved in assisting individuals and communities in developing services for people.

P.S.S. has already assisted a group of county residents to form a sole club, has met with groups who wish to initiate other projects, and has begun to develop a course to train and assist local leaders. Most recently, P.S.S. has joined forces with the Alberta East Central Health Unit at Sedgewick to hire a researcher (Jim Wright) to study what human services are available to the people of this area, as well as the services which are unavailable.

The study was undertaken because many people and organizations, including the Sedgewick health unit, felt that there are individuals and communities that need or want human services which are not being provided at present, or are not easily available. Participation Essential

This study requires the assistance of county residents, to determine exactly what individuals or groups might require in the way of services. Public

By MARY KATLUA

Cosmetic science has extracted a skin beauty substance from the lean of a tropical plant that works wonders by making rough, lined face and eye clapped hands look years younger. Use it tonight and you should see vast improvement in the morning. Many small lines around the eyes and mouthing already have disappeared and wrinkles you have given up as hopeless should start to vanish in a few days. But that isn't all. That discouraging weather-darkened old-age skin tone fades away. But don't take my word for it... use this exciting substance yourself for 7 days... satisfaction is guaranteed or your money is refunded. If the topical skin extract that works wonders for wrinkles and lines. It's called Cosmex Day Skin Creme.

The second phase, to be completed May 77, will see Automatic Member Identification (ANI) equipment added. With this equipment, customers who have individual lines will have their telephone number registered automatically when they make a direct dialed (DDD) long distance call. DDD calls on multi-party lines will continue to have an operator come on the line to register the calling party's number for billing purposes.

Based on the current growth pattern, these additions are expected to keep after Sedgewick's telephone service requirements until the early 1980's.

Extras from January Council Meeting:

The regular meeting was held on January 11th, 1977, presented were Counsellors Dam-berger, Ramsey, Sather, Danielson, Larson and Tarnagor.
Mayor Linsack presided.

Mr. George Cramton was presented in discuss School and Hospital Board matters. He advised that Wilfred West had been appointed Administrator to Daysland and Hardisty Hospitals and at the moment was residing in Hardisty.

The School Board was engaged in negotiating as was usual for this time of year. The County of Beaver has now become added to the Elk Island division.

Mr. Cramton informed Council that the number of teachers in Daysland school should remain stable for the remainder of this school year. Unfortunately there would only be three teachers for eight grades in Galashat yet this was the best school building in the County.

The street light out to the highway had now been installed, the overhead wiring is a temporary measure until approving.

Councillor Ramsey had attended a dinner hosted by Calgary Power for local officials and had found it most interesting. The Dadds-Kelly Power

Plant had been discussed and it was thought that the site would be needed in about 15 years.

The President of Calgary Power stated that many people feel power rates would be cheaper if the utility was publicly owned. This would only be so if power rates were subsidized by other public funds.
Ontario Hydro, which is publicly owned and in financial difficulties was given as an example of this system.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR:
Dear Sir,
Enclosed is M.O. for $1.50 for the renewal of my subscription.

I look forward to receiving the Press each week and follow with interest the news and activities of the Community especially that of Killam.

I was able to attend Killam's Home Coming Week last Aug.

and had an exciting time meeting so many friends and school chums of 1912-13. The town has progressed with the times and the residents did a wonderful job of entertaining their visitors. We therefore have very pleasant memories of our visit.

Sincerely,
Dorothy Mearnshead

Club report losses

The Sedgewick Chapter of TOPS Inc. ended 1976 on a happy note and in very proud of the several hundred pounds of the weight shed by its members in the months from February to December.

At a meeting recently several members made clothes which had fit perfectly at one time. A good deal of fun resulted from the soggy, loose fitting garments after months of participating in TOPS.

Queen of the Month was Helen L. She also had the distinct honor of being Queen of the week for each of the successive weeks in December.

Congratulations to three new KOPS members. Eleanor T. Harriet W. and Gordon B. have all achieved their weight goals. They will continue to participate as KOPS (Keeping Pounds Off Sustainably).

A charm of her choice has been awarded to each of seven members who had exercised with interest and especially at Christmas (time) and weighed what they, in October had predicted for themselves at the end of December. Helen L. Elaine K. Eleanor T. Paddy O. Molly A. Harriet W. and Gordon B. were those in this very exclusive category. Congratulations to you all for such dedication to your cause!

We are mindful of two of our members. Joyce B. and Thelma T. who are away enjoying the sunny south for a while. Thelma is attending TOPS while she winters at Phoenix, Arizona.

The ladies, teens and pre-teen members of TOPS are pleased to have two gentlemen join our chapter. It is a sincere welcome to others who are interested in this type of self-improvement.

Tom McCracken dies

Thomas McCracken went to be with the Lord he loved, on Thursday, December 26th, 1976, in the Royal Alexandra Hospital, Edmonton following a lengthy illness.

Tom was born May 29, 1900 at Newton, Stewart, Scotland and came with his parents to Canada at the age of 3 months.

He lived at Riverview, Alberta until 1911 when the family moved to the Carl Olson homestead (where Russ now lives). He attended school at Dry Creek until 1923 when due to his fathers falling health, he left to do the farming.

On June 23, 1933 he was united in marriage to Ethel Cameron of Sedgewick.

They continued to live on the family farm until 1964 when they moved to Alliance, Alberta. He cherished many happy memories as his wife Ethel of Alliance, his son Ross of Hardisty, his daughter Donna of Sedgewick; and his grandchildren, Brenda and Dwayne McCracken, Lela, Larry, Lenora and Berni Polge. One brother John of Wetview, B.C.; 3 sisters: Sarah, Mrs. Clyde Varner of Spokane, Washington; Elizabeth, Mrs. Joe, Hillock of Mannville, Alberta.

Tom was well known as a Fallers Burn's dealer for 19 years; as a community poet and for his quiet testimony to his faith in Christ.

Funeral services were held on January 2, 1977 at the Fairfield Baptist Church with Rev. I. Bellas officiating, assisted by Rev. Stuart Abel of Church of Nazarene, Sedgewick. Soloist Harry Anderson sang "Beyond the Sunset".

Interment followed in family plot at Battle Road Cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS
To our many friends and neighbors we extend our heartfelt thanks for every kindness shown for your visits to hospital and home, for flowers, donations and cards of sympathy.

To the Drs. and Nurses and Staff at Gahnsad Hospital and the Royal Alex. for all the loving care shown Tom. A special thanks to the men who dug the grave and the ladies who served lunch at the school.

CALGARY SEED FAIR AND HAY SHOW CANCELLED
The Calgary Seed Fair and Hay Show, scheduled to take place early in March, has been cancelled for this year.

Lack of interest on the part of the exhibitors, and lack of attendance on the part of the public, during the last few years are the reasons given for its cancellation. However, those in charge of organizing the seed fair and hay show hope to bring it back next year under a new format.

The monthly meeting of the Daysland 4-H Beef Club was held in the Catholic Church basement on January 4th at 8:00 p.m. Seventeen members were present.

Annette Brander called the meeting to order with Jarret Gable leading the pledge. The minutes and treasurer's report were given and adopted.

New business included the upcoming call tour to be held in the early spring.

Interest in attending the Ice Capades wasn't very good so the motion was dropped.

Another motion of taking a trip to Edmonton and touring a packing plant was discussed, but motion was agreed on.

A baggery party was brought up and again nothing for the first meeting of the year with 23 members present. A two minute silence was held for a departed member.

 The meeting opened with the Sec. report, followed by the Treasurer's Annual Report, which was very gratifying. The president presented all bills and a motion was passed that all bills be paid. Quite a few items were brought up for discussion. The nomination committee brought in their slate of officers for 1977. All officers dent, Ann Johnson. Our new President is Dot Johnson.

Richard Colson, P.S.S. Director had forwarded his Director's Report for 1977. Consulting it was done briefly on the morning the council was trying to approve the report.

Mrs. Cranley gave a report on the one day Planning Session she had attended in Camrose. It had been most interesting and she had met planning. She also had been expected to give about the first stage of the plan.
 She said she had no objection to the plan. If there was no objection to the plan, she would be left on the one remaining people that we have a problem in considering and to leave a message.

A problem arising out of the resolution on the plan was that of who should pay the fees if the dog was not found. It was felt that the Poundkeeper should be responsible and he will be instructed to leave the collection of the money in the Town.

It has been noted that various businesses were not cleaning the snow from their sidewalks. They will be sent a reminder that the Town has a by-law to this effect and some arrangement should be made if they are not resident in Town.

Hardisty and District News

Wayne Holinger is the new manager at the Revelstoke Lumber at Hardisty. Wayne came by way of Vermilion where he was employed at Revelstoke there.

Here to Mr. and Mrs. John Bonnett of Edmonston (Martha North) a baby boy, Jarrett John, a grandson for Harold and Ken North.

A number of relatives had a delicious turkey supper at the Perry. Several hours on Friday night, to help Perry celebrate another birthday.

The youngest ones attending were the little Madden boys from Drumheller who are staying with their grandparents Marie and Paul Madden.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Madden of Drumheller and Dr. and Mrs. Cahill of Hardisty are together on a Caribbean Cruise.

In the meantime, Dr. Cahill's brother from Ireland is looking after the practice here.

Thelma Fisher's daughter, Goldie arrived from Edmonston on Thursday to help her mother pack and get moved into Hardisty Parkland Manor.

Her daughter-in-law Mrs. Denise Fisher also helped.

Pearl Reeve too was moved into the Manor on Friday by her two brothers, with Dorcas Stuart helping with the packing.

George Whitlock has moved in also, so no more stays for George. Roy Van Alstine is also there.

Mrs. Gladys Hobbs of Car has been waiting patiently too.

Loughed WI meet

Mrs. J. Johnson welcomed the members and one visitor to the January meeting of the Loughed WI, at the home of Mrs. H. Probst. After repeating the Club Women's Creed, the minutes of the December meeting, and an executive meeting were read and approved.

The minutes of the executive meeting outlined the projects planned for the year's meetings, financial and committee reports were given, and a resolution was passed.

It is noteworthy was the announcement that several copies of the W.I. book "Vardas Vardas" in and around Loughed have been sold - since Christmas.

A letter was read from the Loughed Town Council stating that the use of the town office, at present used for the W.I. library, would be required as of Feb. 1. It was left in the hands of Mrs. P. Frost to the committee for a suitable relocation.

A card of good wishes was signed by all to be sent to Mrs. Wm. Paterson at present undergoing surgery in the University Hospital.

Mrs. P. Frost, convener of Citizenship and Education, read an article on cancer entitled "An inspiring thought" in the fall call. Each member also to submit a design for a name tag.

Had call for this meeting was "an inspiring thought" or "words of wisdom" read by each member, some of which were soon put to good use.

MERNA 4th CLUB

The third monthly meeting of the Merna 4th club was held on the evening of January 18th at the Merna Church.

The meeting was called to order by our new president, Mike Doody, who called upon Leona Butler to lead the pledge. The secretary, Heather Parsons then called the roll with each member going up and getting their membership card where his name was said.

A motion was made that we have another skating and tubing party coming at there was a large amount of food left over from our Christmas Party. After a brief discussion it was decided that we wouldn't have another party, and the food would be kept and used at our club when we plan to have.

It was also brought up that we buy a wedding gift for Dick and Sharon Hays. Everyone felt that this was a nice idea and the matter was left up to Deb Quist who was also picked as our club's regional representative.

Next manuals and record keeping books were handed out to each member by Terry Leslie who gave an explanation on each.

After the meeting was adjourned everyone enjoyed coffee and cookies.

Services at Breton for Annie Rigby

On November 28, 1976 Mrs. Annie Rigby passed away at Breton at the age of 74. Mrs. Rigby was born in St. Asaph, Northumberland, England on June 11th, 1902. Mrs. Rigby came to Canada in June, 1927 and settled in the Hardisty, Lougheed area.

On April 3, 1929 she was married to Leslie Rigby, and they resided on what is now the Bill Chase place for some time. Doreen and Stanley were born while they lived there, later moving to the Lougheed area.

In 1945 they moved to Millie where they resided beside No. 2 Highway.

Later they moved to Winfield where they resided until 1974. After her husband's death, Annie moved to Breton where she resided until her passing.

One of her dreams was to see the Butchart Gardens in Victoria and this was realized in the summer of 1976 when she and her sister Mrs. Nettie Johanson went on a fun tour.

She was also a staunch Legion member and very interested in the Lougheed News.

Mrs. Rigby is survived by one son Stanley of Winfield, four daughters, Doreen Slapnick of Valleyview, Kathleen Meloney of Edmonton, Elsie Marks of Breton, Hilda Frieson of Wrentham, 18 grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren, two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Johanson of Hardisty and Mrs. Evelyn Grace of Maple Ridge, B.C. and one brother Wilfred Renshaw in England, also numerous nieces and nephews. Annie was predeceased by her husband Leslie in 1974, her mother, Stanley her brother in Canada, her father and four brothers, Arthur, Sam, Robey and Vin Renshaw.

Rev. G. Winchester conducted the funeral services on Monday, November 29th, 1976 at 2:00 p.m. at the Westhill Protestant church in Winfield. Interment was at Mount Clare Cemetery in Winfield. Baker Funeral Chapel Ltd. was in charge of the arrangements.

Then on November 29th a memorial service was held in St. Mark's church at Hardisty for the late Mrs. Rigby with Rev. I. Conrad taking the service.

Many friends from Sedgewick and Lougheed attended. A new collection plate will be donated to St. Mark's church in memory of Mrs. Rigby.

CARD OF THANKS
I wish to thank my friends and those of my late sister Annie for attending the memorial service and for all donations received in her memory.

Mrs. Nettie Johanson

The beast built to eat acres, not fuel.

This new Allis-Chalmers 7200 4-wheel drive tractor has a healthy appetite for big acreage - hillsides or flatland, row crops or small-grain farming, irrigated or dryland ranches.

Yet every acre of the way, this big beast saves you fuel money. Thanks to a 22-hp six cylinder diesel engine designed with turbocharger, intercooler, opposing intake-exhaust manifolds and counter-balanced crankshaft - features that add up to draft horse performance with small pony appetite.

Here's 20 forward speeds with a shift-on-the-go Power Director transmission. Draft sensitive 3-point hitch with Quick Hitch. Fully integrated 1,600 rpm PTO. Big 74.9 gpm hydraulic system.

Plus full 30 degree articulation for turns in a tight 17 ft. radius - center oscillation so implements can snake over bumps, ripples, follow dips easily.

Come in. Step up into the 7200's Acousta cab. Discover how quiet, comfortable and easy it is to put this powerful beast through its mumble paces. Ask for a last-drive now!

Give me grace. Dear Lord, to listen to others describe their aches and pains in numbers and laterally, and the pleasure of discussing them as becoming sweeter as the years go by.

Teach me the glorious lesson that I do not wish to be a Saint. (Saints are so hard to live with) but a poor old woman is the growing work of the devil. Make me thoughtful but not moody, be helpful but not pushy, independent yet able to accept with graciousness favours that others wish to bestow on me.

Free me of the notion that simply because I have lived a long time I am wiser than those who have not. If I do not approve of some of the changes that have taken place in recent years, give me the wisdom to keep quiet.

Lord knows that when the end comes I would like to have a friend or two left.

"Believe me. Home Heating Safety is no accident!"

Bill Goodwin, Northwestern's foreman, customer service, knows that a few simple safety steps taken now can help you ward off possible problems later.

Take a few moments to make sure your heating system is safe and working properly. Be sure the vent pipes connecting your furnace and gas appliances to the chimney are clear, properly secured and not corroded. Check to insure the chimney is not clogged with debris.

Since a safe, efficient, trouble-free system also uses less energy, you'll be getting all the heat you pay for this winter.

For more safety tips, pick up a copy of our pamphlet, "Take Time For Home Heating Safety".

It's available at your nearest community office.

Good news for writers

December 14, 1976
 The Community Press
 Sedgewick, Alberta
 Dear Mr. Keith:
 It is a pleasure for me to advise that your Government, through Alberta Culture, will make available a grant of $300 which you have requested to pay contributors for literary contributions to The Community Press. The Director of Film and Literary Arts has spoken highly of the fine results this has already achieved for members of the Flagstaff Writers Group, and your hope of course is that this increased honorarium will be of still greater encouragement to those contributors.

May I thank you for the wonderful spirit of cooperation you are displaying in the development of literary arts in the province.

Sincerely,
 Horst A. Schmidt
 Minister, Alberta Culture

EDITORS' NOTE: Flagstaff Creative Writers have been regular contributors to this newspaper. They have received a small fee each week. The grant will now mean a payment of $10.00 for each article.

School to close!

by Mrs. Wise
 A news item on CFOW news has really disturbed the people of Galahad. This news item said that Mr. Cleveland of the Flagstaff County reported that Galahad School would be closing at the end of this term.

Saturday afternoon about 38 women held a meeting in the Senior Citizens Drop-In Centre to protest this proposed closing. They decided to phone all Citizens and hold a Public meeting on Tuesday at the school.

They planned and their work resulted in a meeting.

The meeting took place on Tuesday, January 18th in the Home Ec room at 2:30 p.m. Over 100 people were present.

Kra Hudson the town representative on the School Board was there. Allan Thiel, town councillor chaired the meeting.

Questions were asked. Reports on previous School Board meetings were given. The School young men with families to work. The people of Galahad want their tax money to be up-graded and airy. At present the grades 9 - 12 are being bused to Forestburg. After much discussion a petition was drafted, typed out and signed by all present. Everyone is asked to write their local M.P., A. Bessy, A. Cleveland, Rev. Hudson, Minister of Education and his deputy leader of the opposition.

Its true there are only 65 pupils but the school in Forestburg is already overcrowded. To bus these pupils to Forestburg, Killam and Alliance will cost money. No bus comes to Galahad from Alliance and Killam. One bus goes to Forestburg and its full.

To close Galahad School, one of the newest in the County would be a shame. At present the County is using the workshop as a storage place for oaks. Grain attracts mice and could be a fire hazard.

Why move the children to attend a crowded school built in 1957 - crowded and not well lighted was the complaint of children 20 years ago. Their children say the same thing today.

Metrics won't effect quotas

Calgary, Alberta, January 8, 1977 - Information received by the Alberta Wheat Pool indicates that no grain producers will be denied any quota delivery privileges in effect when the changeover from imperial to metric measurement is made on February 1st, 1977.

Reports in the country state that some quotas are to be terminated on January 21st to accommodate the new system of measurement.

Contrary to these reports, the Canadian Wheat Board advises the Alberta Wheat Pool that present delivery quotas are to be expressed in metric terms effective February 1st, 1977.

No delivery quotas will be cancelled.

A "once in a lifetime" presentation was made Saturday, January 15, when Kinsmen and Ki-10 members and their wives gathered to honor Jim and Eiderd Thiel.

District Deputy Governor Bob Bourne of Monville was present to present a coveted honour to Jim, a Life Membership in the Kinsmen Club of Sedgewick. The plaque reads "It is known that James A. Thiel has been elected a Life Member of the Assoc. of Kinsmen Club of the Kinsmen Club of Sedgewick for his outstanding contribution of Kinsmanship, January 15, 1977". Jim was a Charter member of the club, serving as it's President, then going on to serve as a District Deputy Governor. In his 17 years as a Kinsmen, Jim has a two-year perfect attendance.

A second plaque, presented by Kin Julius Komick, was given to Jim by the Kinsmen Club of Vermilion, who had been the original sponsors of the Sedgewick Club.

Native President Diane McClements presented Eiderd with a certificate, remarking that Eiderd's support over the years was evident in that she has obtained a 15-year perfect attendance pin, which she then presented. She has been a loyal Kinsmen wife and a dedicated Kinsmen over the years.

"For they are Jolly Good Fellows" started off an enjoyable evening of dancing. The banquet served earlier had been catered by the ladies of the Lutheran Church.

Girls 'fly-up'

"Colorful and fun", was the response of the Girl Guides who attended the Ice Capades on Saturday, January 15th for the zone performance. Attending were Beverly Bagdan, Amylene Milke, Jean Williams from Killam, Theresa Downood, Susie Harris, Janita Potage and Diane Fryer from Sedgewick. The girls were accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Keith and Mrs. Pat Harris and Mickey.

Following the performance, where they were treated to mints by Theresa's aunt, Marilyn Williams of Edmonton, the group started home, stopping at the Capilano Mall for a look through the stores.

It was reported that Mr. Mel Kraft Regional Fisheries Biologist was in the area on December 15th and did some tests of Sedgewick Lake and Hattie Lake. Mr. Kraft will be coming back in March to check lakes in the area again. He told us in December that Sedgewick Lake is to be stocked again in the spring of 1977. Owen's Pond is also on the stocking list.

The Iron Creek Fish and Game is also in the process of gathering materials for the building of Pleasants rearing facilities. The Club plans to rear 100 pheasants this summer for release in the area this fall.

The meeting closed with coffee and a film. Next meeting on February 4th, so watch for the "girls in blue". See you then.

Bovencamp heads F & G

At the annual meeting of the Iron Creek Fish and Game Assoc. held January 11th, at the Legion Hall in Loughheed, Bovencamp was elected to head the Club for the coming year. Ab Martin was elected Vice President and the group started home, stopping at the Capilano Mall for a look through the stores.

I challenge this assertion and offer that food prices are not being kept down by the Anti-Inflation Board.

One of the most glaring examples of a government claiming credit for something they clearly are not the authors of is the Trudeau Administration's ineffectual but continued insistence that the Anti-Inflation Board has been a success in regards to keeping down food costs. I challenge this assertion and offer that food prices are not being kept down by the Anti-Inflation Board.

HAZELWOOD GOOD DEED
Our January meeting was held at the home of Alvina Parsons with eight members and three visitors in attendance. Visitors were Mrs. N. Johnson, Mrs. M. Elm and Goldie Parsons.

The meeting was called to order by our president Kay Cox. Visitors were welcomed and the roll called. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. In view of the new material obtained for pillow cases and tea towels. Discussion on the new quilt was held and will be started soon as all members are home again.

Ena passed in money for three quilts.
V.L.N. was lucky this year. We put her birthday a month ahead so she could have some birthday cake.
Alvina Parsons got the most gifts, a lovely cup and saucer.

GRETNA GOOD WILL CLUB
The Gretna Good Will Club held their Christmas Party at Reids Hill Hall this year. We had a very nice party with over fifty persons in attendance. The hall was nicely decorated. Also a beautiful green spruce tree fully trimmed. Of course we had our usual tremendous feast, a delightful response to amuse the children little and big and also many games for everyone. Everybody participated in all Christmas party games and he was a "real barrel of fun" with his wit, humor, and dare.

Our last game of "And Long Spins" was up. Then we had fun with his real sleigh bells and bag of goodies. There were coffee, nuts, salad, turkey pie and ice cream, and off home, more than satisfied!

Clean up on a great clean up offer from Allis-Chalmers. Buy this tractor and snow thrower during our "clean up" sale and well treat it to a powerful snow thrower about 1/2 price. Hardisty and District News Hardisty Stampers met at Killam on Monday night where they were once again victorious with a score of 10 to 2. Keep it up Stampers.

The boys are busy pipe-laying again. Darryl Brauer and Dale Padin are on the pipe crew at Swan Hill, while Dean Drager went to Fort McMurray.

On January 15, 1977 Mr. William Sutton of Surrey, B.C. passed away at the age of 63 years. Besides his wife and family, he is survived by six sisters, one of whom is Mrs. Clyde Robbins.

People here remember when his father Ed Sutton had a butcher shop in Hardisty and also ran the family.

One ex-Hardistyle, Mr. Bill Gutwalski, now a resident of Drumheller, was in town the other day having a friendly chat with his old-time friends.

When the book "In the End of the Little" was launched in Alliance in November, Bill made a very good auctioneer for the first five books.

He says he always receives the Press and then he passes it on to a new line resident at the Goose Lake area. Mr. Arlie Shield who, although he left this region many years ago, still likes to keep up with the Lougheed news.

Mr. and Mrs. Mayle Sarty, Warren and Andrea from Ancillary 2-2, were in town at the Charlie Timolin residence last week. After leaving Hardisty their destination was Clearville, Alta. to visit with the Gerald Reber family.

The open house to view the Nelson home built by J. Quist and Arnold Lang, drew a number of spectators. The door prize was a lovely blanket won by Cindy Freighter. Congratulations Glyn.

The T.O.P.S. Club had a bake sale Saturday morning in the Hardisty Appliance building. The theme was to sell home baking that they could not indulge in, but could add calories to the customers. There were delicious looking cakes, pie, cream, doughnuts etc. and with the quantity of home baking available, it appeared to be a great success.

Kate Henshaw has gone to work in the Arctic for a few weeks.

Your reporter is not much of a hockey fan but when invited to see the Hardisty Old-Timers play the Bala Old-Timers 1 went. Hardisty Old-Timers, with son Allen in the goal, did a top job. However the Bala Old-Timers, looked like pretty young old-timers in a number of ways.

Congratulations to Neal Nelson on being a group winner at the Camrose Good Old-Timers bings. Paul Vanclief was another winner as the $10.00 prize always comes in handy.

Was able to see Dave and Jean Giesinger at the Andy Gibson celebration. They live in Sherwood Park now, after leaving Bitter Brad.

Mrs. Nettie Johnson enjoyed having her family home for the weekend. Kenny and Mary Johnson of Stettler with their five little girls arrived Saturday night. Thora Oscar and Doris Blane of Lloyminster and the Wayne Blanes were there on Sunday.

The Cross Country Ski Course was so popular that there will be another one on Feb. 26th and 27th. Last time it was a good turnout and they skied across the hills behind the arena and across the lake, having a bonfire with hot dogs, etc. to satisfy hungry appetites enjoyed by the healthy outdoor crowd.

CONGRATULATION The winners of the O.R.P.P. school awards were incorrectly reported. The correct winners are:
Shelly Din and Kara Fraser tied for first.
Brian deVries and Chantel Davall tied for second.

A bit belated, but still a surprise, Nadine Thompson of Hardisty is congratulated by Ralph Manning for her winning in the Reporter's Award sponsored by the Community Press. Nadine was the 1975 2nd place winner, winning on behalf of the Huddellville 1-11 House Club. Due to the fact that the 4-4 Club is in the (second tier) the opportunity to present her prize had not come about. Congratulations, Nadine, a job well done.

4-H CLUBS

LOUGHEED 141 On January 15th the Lougheed 4-H Housemen met at a trip to Edmonton to see the Ice Capades. We enjoyed it very much. Following this we went to the Legislative Building, then to the A.G.T. Tower. On behalf of the 4-H Club members we would like to thank Mr. Schmidt and Mrs. Booth for doing us up.

On Tuesday night (January 18th) we had a work meeting. We cut our projects out and started sewing on them. The evening ended with some ornate impromptu speeches about quilts which Mrs. Neuhaus brought.

HUGHENDEN 4-H The first meeting of the Huddellville 1-11 House Club was held at Percy Nalley's home. About 19 members came and there were a few parents. The Call was answered by each member by the name & breed of their horse. We decided to have a hay ride at Dean Porter's place on the 26th of January at 1:30. With only club members and their families coming. We also decided to get new uniforms this year. We handed out the books and discussed them. The next meeting will be held at Lorne Arley's place on February 14th at 7:30.

Rural areas to share

All rural districts, towns and cities are being invited to share new local revenue generated by dramatic but isolated increases in property values resulting from Alberta economic expansion.

But they still haven't been offered their long-sought slice of provincial income taxes and resources royalties - and the Loughheed government shows no signs of planning to surrender any of its own treasury.

Extra unemployment and income tax sharing proposal from Provincial Municipal Finance Council.

The pool, to be drawn from assessment on buildings and structures only because real estate values are so variable, would be distributed in either revenue collected with an Alberta-wide levy, or extra assessment for local rates.

A "redistribution formula" would ensure the highest gains go to the needy center by reflecting population, per capita assessments, operating expenditures, the amount of industry already

COME ALIVE... The song of a church bell

The bell in the belfry has tolled its song. It has perked its notes as time marched on. Many strong hands have pulled its rope. As it dipped and turned to the hammer's slope. Hands which poured its brass in the mould. Or tugged at the rope as the notes were tolled. Poured out its "wealth" of green. At rest below the watery ashes.

What has the song of our bell to say? As the years slip by like a day in May? "My bell is sturdy as I sing to you, list the builder and ranger have hands of clay".

The Lord gave us bells the dirge to sing. And the Lord gave us bells with a joyful ring. His promise to us is for a new day. Because He redeemed these hands of clay.

The song of a gift rang through the air. Of a Saviour born to men everywhere. Let the bell sing out its coming again. And joyfully ring with night and morn.

When life's trumpet sounds above the din, And the day of the Lord is ushered in, And the Archangel's voice shall call the roll: Our bell will then have pealed its last toll.

Let the bell ring on to eternity. And then we shall see what these hands will be.

(Written by Rev. C. Knack while listening to a church bell)

Str. citizens make plans

A large group of interested Senior Citizens met in the Club Room of the Dayland Community Hall Monday, Jan. 24, to plan for the "Comet on Aging" speaking in the opportunities available to the Senior Citizens. After lunch two groups met at each end of the hall, one to discuss the possibilities of a drop-in Centre and the other to plan further steps towards a place for the elderly persons in our community who no longer are able to live in and maintain their own homes. Being in their 80's or 90's and having served the land and community well through the years, would like to spend their last years in their own town.

To plan further for this, a meeting was set up for Mon. January 31st at 2:00 p.m. in the hall with Mr. Gordon S. O'Neil, M.L.A. as guest speaker, to discuss Provincial Government Funding for such a project. Mr. O'Neil is Chairman of the Flagstaff Foundation on housing for Seniors will be in attendance.

BUYING SHEETS

by Diane Borne, D.B.E.

January "White Sales" are a good time to buy sheets, as well as other bedding, table covers, tea towels and the like. "White Sales" usually offer authentically reduced prices on first quality goods. Mrs. Marilyn Hensling, Clothing and Textile Specialist, with our department, offers the following tips:

When purchasing sheets, consider fibre content, thread count, and labels indicating permanent press features. Price is usually a guideline — you get what you pay for. However, some "designer" patterns are very expensive; you are paying for the artist's ability and for the excellent quality sheeting on which the design is printed.

TYPES OF SHEETING

Percale has a thread count of 10 threads per square inch. It is smooth, lustrous and long wearing. Percale is expensive and not readily available locally. Fine combed percale with a thread count of 200, luxurious, very expensive and not designed to withstand constant wear. Muslin: a coarser fabric with fewer threads count. The term "muslin" is seldom on sheet labels now, and may be replaced by descriptive names such as "Service Quality."

High count — (120 - 140 threads per square inch). Most popular and most readily available. May not wear as long as high count muslin, but is very satisfactory for household use. Medium count — (120 threads per square inch). Most popular and most readily available. May not wear as long as high count muslin, but is very satisfactory for household use.

Low count - 112 threads per square inch.

Courtesy yarns heavy fabric for institutional use. Low count may also be available in a regular weight of yarn, which produces an open weave, for domestic use. Low count is usually not as comfortable nor as serviceable for household use as other qualities.

Flannellette: Available in "Dart" sheet — 75% cotton 25% polyester. The polyester adds to the life of the sheet, and provides stability (doesn't shrink as much as 100% cotton). "Durablel" flannellette sheets are readily available, and come in white with colored bands. The cost is slightly higher than for 100% cotton flannellette sheets.

100% cotton flannellette is still readily available. Shrinkage can be a problem.

FIBRE CONTENT

Permanent press feature in sheets is highly desirable for most of today's busy homemakers.

Most perma-press sheets on the market are a blend of 50% polyester and 50% cotton. However, the actual sheet size may vary a bit. Canadian-made sheets usually include measurement of finished size; American-made sheets usually measure the unfinished size. American-made sheets usually measure the unfinished size. American-made sheets usually measure the unfinished size.

"First Quality" sheets should have a straight, even hem, with the hem caught in the stitching all across. The ends of the hem should be machine stitched also. Patterns should be printed evenly, and there should be no tearing, thin areas, long hangings, etc. Thin yarns

In the fabric world reduce wear. He unless the threads are broken.

Unfortunately, some "first quality" sheets, sometimes have defects in workmanship, and being "first quality" has no bearing on the quality. Sheets may not be labelled as "first quality" but they are expected to be, unless labelled otherwise.

"Seconds" can be a good buy, but expect them to be less than perfect. Some defects, such as incorrect printing of designs won't affect wearability. "Durablel" sheets are available, and "seconds" to determine and evaluate the defect prior to purchase.

Fitted sheets with a binding over the corner seam prevent tearing when it is stretched over the mattress. Generally, the more elastic used on fitted sheets, the easier they are to pull onto the mattress as the less possibility to tearing the corners.

Sheet sizes are quite standard in that "Double Bed" size polyester and 50% cotton. However, the actual sheet size may vary a bit. Canadian-made sheets usually include measurement of finished size; American-made sheets usually measure the unfinished size. American-made sheets usually measure the unfinished size.

The choice of colored or white, patterned or plain is left to the buyer. Very few sheets are bleached color, but it is recommended to wash them alone for the first few launderings. Follow manufacturer's instructions regarding bleaching, water temperature, and drying, etc. Thin yarns

Question: I have had a problem over the last year with virus losses in my pigs. About one out of twenty either die in the confinement barn or on the truck on the way to market. I'll try and explain what happens. In the finishing barn the pigs in the pen start picking on one until it falls over dead. On the truck a hog will start to squeal then lay down and die. They were not crowded in the truck. The only thing I have seen in advance of the problem is that a pig will shiver, but otherwise seem normal.

Two different feed companies claim that if I feed their feed with extra magnesium added it would correct the problem. Could this be true? Dennis Hofer, Hog Manager, Red Willow Colony, Stettler.

Answer: Further to our telephone conversation about the description you outline in your letter I'm sure you are having problems with a condition normally referred to as porcine stress syndrome, and is abbreviated as PSS. This condition has been observed for several years and is associated somewhat with animals which are extremely noisy and heavy muscling. The picture herd of hogs are noted to be prone to this condition due to the extreme leaness and heavy musculature. To date I do not believe producers or research workers have experiences with the problem were recommended high levels of magnesium or any other ration ingredient other than the mineral selenium and vitamin E as possible aids to alleviate the condition. People who have been successful in combating the condition have done it by culling any and all animals that have produced the condition and by not saving the replacement animals with any relationship to the disease. To the best of my knowledge, the herd of the condition by selection may take 5 to 10 years but it can be done.

In the meantime, death loss can be minimized by avoiding as much stress as possible. Susceptible animals seemingly do not adjust to change. Fighting, crowding, change in temperature, catching and other stresses of this type add to death loss. Any management practices that skirt or avoid these stresses will help in short-term basis, reduce excessive death loss. Furthermore, I would strongly suggest the inclusion of a selenium - vitamin E premix in your sow and growing-finishing hog rations.

Silvest Sisters were drawn for the following year. We then had to try and guess whom our silent sister was for the past year. Well there were three good guesses and nine wrong guesses. The bad girls as there was a $1.00 prize. The first presented our departing Silvest Sister with a farewell gift.

The price for this year's gifts was set at $2.00 or less and we had two extra cards made by Valentine, Easter or etc. Marjory Storbacken is having the next meeting Feb. 19th at 7:00 p.m. The Roll Call is to tell something else about the person that sits at the left of you.

Folk singers in concert

Brandywine is a husband and wife team of folksingers specializing in Traditional Music of Great Britain and North America. They have been singing together for over 10 years both in England and Canada and at which time Mr. Cohen will present some ideas that the group may be able to act upon and assist with in regard to the Drinking problem, which affects many of our young people. It is hoped that more parents will be concerned and show more interest in what their children are doing not only in school, but also in their community, we are convinced this would be a first step in the right direction.
If you are a concerned parent and have anything to say in relation to your children, please feel free to come and bring a friend.

The children's workshop is being co-sponsored Feb. 26-27
by Flagstaff Further Education Council and Alberta

Last service after 47 years

The last services in the building known as the Church of the Nazarene in Loughheed will be held on Sunday, Feb. 13th at 10:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.
Services will be held in the new church at Sedgewick from Feb. 20th on.
The church has been in Loughheed for 46 years. In 1930 a garage building (formerly the first Loughheed School) was purchased by the Nazarene people. Services had previously been held in two country schools, Park Hill and Hazelwood. Because it was a garage, it took a lot of hard work by the people to carry out Broken cement, and scrub the oil and grease from the floor.
Accommodations were built at the back of the church and in 1931, Rev. George Coulter took a General Supp. in the Church of the Nazarene) became the first pastor to live in them.
The present pastor, Rev. Stuart
Abel lives in Sedgewick.
The church is happy to still have some of the pioneers, including Mr. and Mrs. Warren Walte, Mrs. Jessie Swanson and Miss Muriel Collier.

Bethlehem not a stop-over

When we travel by public transportation we have to stop ourselves to the stop-over. It occurs to me that Jews might have just made a stop-over when he arrived at Bethlehem. He might have only looked in on the world briefly, and then decided that he'd seen enough of it, and taken passage again back to the Father. He might have decided that Bethlehem and Calvary weren't worth the agony and the suffering. He might have decided that humankind just wasn't worth the trouble after all. He might have just made a stop-over at Bethlehem.

But he stayed. He stayed in love among us, and is with us still. Sometimes it is difficult for us to believe that he is as near to us as the air we breathe. Sometimes he seems to fade away into the dim past. But when we meditate on the words of his gospel, and call on his name, he is present. He steals back into our heart with his love, and gives us new courage. We know he is here, and we know that he won't leave us. When he came into the world it was no brief stop-over at Bethlehem.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,

The readers of your paper, who are natural gas consumers, should be made aware of the urgent need to ask some pertinent and perhaps, embarrassing questions. These questions should be asked in view of the impending increase in the price of natural gas.

1. Why a natural gas price increase?
2. Why the price increased 148% from 1974 to 1977?
3. Why has the price increased 148% of natural gas?
4. Why should the natural gas be sold in accordance with oil, propane, coal or any other fuel?

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN
We are students attending Forestburg High School in the Edgemoor area. On February 2nd a statement was made that 230 more students could be enrolled. Where would these students be put? At the present time all classrooms are being used for some subject. The Food Science and Typing Class some students were not allowed into these classes because of being overcrowded. The time schedule is made to fit the diploma students while matriculation students end up taking correspondence.

Here's to St. Valentine

by Pamela Copeland
Have you ever wondered just where we acquired the habit of celebrating Valentine's day? You may have heard that it was named in honor of St. Valentine, but that is not entirely true. In reality, there were seven St. Valentines listed in the 'Acts of the Saints' or 'Acta Sanctorum', from Italy, France, Belgium, Spain and Africa. Not any of them had anything to do with the lover's day we recognize now, although two of them were martyred on the same day and both were buried on February 14 in the days of the Roman emperor. More likely, what we celebrate on that day is a continuation in modified form of a carnival-like Roman festival called the "Lupercalia". Even so, there were a few gay acts of that event that bear resemblance to all at our present Valentine's Day.

Yet, through the centuries, a few unusual customs developed that were taken quite seriously. It was said that birds chose their mates on Valentine's Day. In the eighteenth century it was thought that the first person of the opposite sex that you saw on that day would be your "valentine" for the year or perhaps even life! In 1764, one young lady wrote,

"I lay about all morning and say my eyes till I came to see another man before him for all the world".
A few years later, young people would hold a type of lottery on the eve of Valentine's Day. The girls names would be put into a box to be drawn out at random by the boys. Each pair would then exchange gifts and become each other's valentine for the year. For more thoughtful and literary young lovers who wished to write and decorate their own valentines, a book called "Cabinet of Love or Cupid's Repository of Choice Valentines" was published in 1787.
These days we don't feel home to the first person of the opposite sex we see, and we don't place one year's special schedule in the hands of chance at the bottom of a lottery box. But we do still exchange valentines and gifts with our friends and families as tokens of friendship and love.

St. Valentine, (whichever one of you wishes to be given some credit), you may not have had much to do with our present day celebration, but it is still a rather nice way to show love and affection to one another.

ODDS AND ENDS:

"overweight is often just desires"

"a ham labelled 'ready-to-serve' or 'fully cooked' but be served as you prefer, hot or cold. To serve warm, simply heat in a 225 degree oven until the internal temperature reaches 130 degrees F."

"when shopping, compare prices, not only by price but also consider the 'number of servings per pound. Some meats yield 3-4 servings per pound, while a ham roast provides only 2-3 servings per pound."

"port is an excellent source of thiamine and niacin (B vitamins) and is a good source of phosphorus and iron."

BUYING THAT NEW HOME
There are many reasons for buying a new home. Whether the reason, however, homeownership adds a new dimension to your life. Whatever the reason for buying, you want a home to suit your wants and needs and your financial ability. Be sure to research the various ways of financing that new home so that you're capable of choosing the best means of financing for your family.

A traditional rule of thumb on price says that your new home should not exceed two and a half times your annual income. There are a number of other factors in buying a house besides that figure on the price tag. Things such as legal fees, an adjustment and property insurance must be considered.

A large downpayment can give a shorter term mortgage. This means you will pay less interest. Also be prepared for other costs like utilities, maintenance and repair costs, and insurance.

If you would like more information on the various housing alternatives, the Alberta Department of Consumer Affairs has printed several booklets.

QUESTION: We have heavy cattle on full feed and they seem to be eating an excessive amount of dirt. What is lacking in their diet?

A. Kueher - Killam ANSWER: Our discussion at the mill office was rather helpful, but a complete answer to your question is impossible. First, you haven't had a complete analysis of what the total ration consists of, especially in the form of minerals. Second, some animals will just eat dirt for no other reason but habit. I usually feel that the usual consumption of dirt is due to a mineral deficiency; however, cattle on a highly concentrated ration will eat dirt just to supply their need for ruminal fiber to stimulate rumination. The dirt is not the fiber but it does furnish abrasive action similar to fiber.

Lack of phosphorus is the mineral problem most associated with abnormal eating habits. Phosphorus deficient animals will eat wood, bones or dirt. A deficiency in trace minerals can also be the cause of dirt eating. Low quality, cheap feed supplements will not supply enough of the essential trace minerals for the fattening animals require.

It is always advisable to feed sufficient high quality mineral free choice to ensure proper daily intake. Trust the above information may be of some assistance in your feed lot problem.

March blizzards.
Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Jack motored to Watrous, Man., where Scotty paid another painful visit to the dentist.

Several ladies, representing the various churches of the community, gathered Tuesday at the home of Mrs. T. Cookson to discuss plans for the World Day of Prayer, to take place at St. John's Anglican Church on Friday, March 10th. Your faithful reporter, Mrs. Betty Walsh, is now a patient in Kilham Hospital, which explains the brevity of this column. Don't stay away too long Betty.

Unlucky Betty is on her feet again. Would you please pass along your news items to Mrs. Donna Martin, Phone 261-2541.

Project for Services for Grace Collins 60th anniversary

The 4th movement is celebrating its 60th anniversary. Alberta this year by embarking on a campaign to raise funds to purchase land and to construct a 4-H centre.

For many years 4-H members and leaders have been urging their provincial advisory council to consider establishing a centre that would include recreational facilities to accommodate the 4-H educational, recreational and social activities.

An option has already been taken on a 10-acre of parcel of land on Battle Lake, west of Wetaskiwin and 4-H members, clubs and counsellors throughout Alberta are engaged in raising funds in numerous communities to pay for the land. If they succeed in raising sufficient funds to purchase it by April 1 of this year, planning for the facilities to be built on the land will begin. The plan will be presented to all 4-H leaders for approval at the November 1977 4-H Leaders' Conference, which will be held in Calgary. The centre should be completed in 1980, if all goes according to schedule.

Interment took place in the Kilham cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, donations were made to Alberta Heart Foundation, Community Cemetery Fund, the Anglican Church and the Canadian Cancer Society.

CARD OF THANKS
We extend our sincere thanks to all the friends who helped us through this time of sorrow.

Lougheed has own ideas on B.N.A. act

Kevin Peterson
Premier Lougheed has turned a cold shoulder to Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau's continuing attempts to get the country working on constitutional reform.

Bringing in rise to Mr. Trudeau's bid, Mr. Lougheed insists that attempts to patriate
the British North America Act from England and revise it should be put on the "back burner" and stay there.
Mr. Lougheed said a new conference that Mr. Trudeau's open invitation last month to reopen constitutional talks has sparked only preliminary discussion among Alberta leaders so far.

Making the country's 118-year-old basic law into a Canadian statute "is still English and can only be amended abroad" - is supposed to be a parfait project.

Mr. Lougheed has always agreed that retrieving the constitution would be a fine symbolic step but he continues to see little practical advantage in taking time out for the work now.

Reversing last year's fail-lure efforts at patriation and getting national agreement on an amending formula would not overcome Quebec separatism, Mr. Lougheed said.

A resolution the legislature passed last year commits the Alberta government to amending principles which all other provinces either accept or are willing to endorse upon Mr. Lougheed's administration maintains that the constitution must not be changed without a province's consent.
If a proposed amendment affects its jurisdiction or property.

Other leaders regard the Alberta stand as a demand for Hardisty C of C look to improve lake area

The regular meeting of the Hardisty and District Chamber of Commerce was held in the Park Cafe on Wednesday, January 26th, 1977. Following reading of the minutes of the last meeting and a business session, a letter was presented.

A letter received from Barb Crofton regarding Hardisty Lake was read. In this letter many objectives to improve the lake were outlined. The objectives were to improve the lake area by having a professional indoor rodeo to be held in the Hardisty Arena. This was to be brought up at the Area Management Board meeting on Tuesday, February 1st for approval of the use of the arena facilities. Hopefully this rodeo would take place sometime in April.

The next meeting will be held February 23rd, at 7:30 p.m.

The Planning Committee is working with the Alberta Hospital Commission, hoping for a functional plan completion early in 1978.

The C. of C. constitution was discussed resulting in the decision to adhere to the constitution rules.

The next meeting will be held February 23rd, at 7:30 p.m.

Hardisty wipe-out days

A full weekend of events have been planned for Hardisty Wipe-out Days Feb. 18, 19 and 20.

Contest events for the weekend include a cash bingo, cross country skiing, log sawing, nail to the winning yard for the period of one year. Second and third prizes should be cash.

A committee has been formed to organize this project.

Mayor Fred Mitchell reported on the proposed new hospital for Hardisty, stating that RECEIVES AWARD — League President Jim Tindall presented Daryl Brown of the Killam Indians with the Rookie of the Year Award at a game in Killam last week.

Saturday: Minor hockey is on at 5:30 p.m. The special of the day will be a hamburger dinner for only $1.00.

A Souk & Dance in the Elks Hall from 10 to 2 midnight Saturday night.

Sunday: There will be a pancake breakfast, beginning at 10 a.m. At noon, a skate-a-thon will be held. At 4 p.m. a stew supper will be served.

To be or not to be

Flagstaff Preventive Social Services (P.S.S.) in conjunction with the Alberta East Central Health Unit will be holding public meetings over the next few weeks in each of the towns and villages throughout the County of Flagstaff. The theme of these meetings is: "To Be or Not to Be? — Comprehensive Services in the Area". The topics of discussion are to be: Health Services, Social Services, Education, and Recreation.

These meetings will help to identify the nature of services available in the area as well as those services which are not available to all due to cost, lack of access, because of distance, or limited facilities. These meetings will be held in small-group, workshop style.

It is important that you come and express your individual feelings and experiences in regards to obtaining the services you require. Your participation in these meetings will in future help to provide improved services in the area.

Meetings will take place in each community within the county. Those scheduled to date are:

Returns to mission work

Pat Paolier, who was recently back on furlough, left early in January to return to work for another year with the United Nations in Nepal. Work has been hectic from Pat's arrival and he arrived safely in Kathmandu, after having stopped over along the way to visit friends in England and Afghanistan and India. Pat was happy to have a visit with Dr. Helen Huson at H.I. in Kathmandu. Helen had been on holidays and was on her way back to continue her work at the hospital at the Nepal Pipe in Western Nepal. Pat will be spending a month in Kathmandu before leaving for another study a month at Tanush, observing their Community Health program, and then will go back to the hill country at Okhalehanga, where she will be involved in setting up a Community Health program in that area.

The Strone Senior Citizens Club held their business meeting on Thursday, February 17 with 24 members present. The President called the meeting to order with the Secretary and Treas. reports. Letters were read and discussed. A discussion took place, and it was decided we buy a set of snooker balls.
